TELEPHONE RATES MUST COME DOWN

ST. JOHN, July 31 — The public utility commission gave judgment today in the case against the New Brunswick Telephone company, ordering the company to reduce the rates on the telephone extension sets for both offices and residences, but finding that the other rates and charges complained of were not unjust or unreasonable. Altho this ruling only applies to St John, the commissioners stated that in the event of receiving complaints from other cities they would make a similar order, and thereupon A. P. Barnhill, solicitor for the company informed the commission that the company would accept the ruling as being applicable to the whole province and would adopt the new rate as soon as possible.

The judgment reduces the rates on extension sets for officers from $12 to $6, and on extension sets for residences from $5 to $2.50. In regard to the complaint that the New Brunswick company was over capitalized, the commission found that there was no evidence that stock issues had been improperly made, tho they condemned the company for issuing $172,000 of bonus stock. They did not, however, make any ruling on complainants contention that the bonus stock was not entitled to dividends. They affirmed that the company ought to be allowed to earn eight per cent. on its paid-up capital, and that it should establish a reserve fund.

LORD KITCHENER NOT ENGAGED

LONDON, July 31— An announcement appeared in the "Indian Daily Telegraph," of Lucknow, on June 15, which has just been received here by the incoming mail, to the effect that that paper is asked to publish the engagement of Lord Kitchener to Miss ———, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. ———, and granddaughter of the late Lieut. General Sir ———, K. C. B. We have suppressed the name of the lady and her family.

This paragraph occupies a conspicuous position in the news columns of the "Indian Daily Telegraph," and the announcement was cabled broadcast, but Lord Kitchener's out-of-town engagements prevented him from being approached on the question until late last evening. He at once issued an official statement that there is no truth whatever in the announcement. Indeed, Lord Kitchener does not even know the lady, and he has been compelled to cable to all the newspapers in India contradicting the unwarranted paragraph.

Very little is known in London of the lady referred to, except that she belongs to an excellent old English family, and that her father, with whom she is at present living in Lucknow, is a well-favored official in the Indian Civil Service. Many other Indian newspapers printed the same paragraph in practically the same phraseology, a fact which would indicate that the announcement was inspired by some individual, and not the result of mere brumor.

CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.

Vernon Crockett, City, returned by the mail train last night from a visit to Moncton.

Miss Moseley, Charlottetown, was registered at the Hotel Brunswick, Moncton yesterday.

Charles Baker, Grand Falls, N. B., has left for Prince Edward Island, where he will spend his vacation with friends there.

James and Mrs. Calder, Moncton, left last night on a five weeks' visit to friends in Cape Breton and Prince Edward Island.

Fires which have burned fiercely for two days have done considerable damage to wood land between Fanning Brook and Peake's Station.

The S. S. Harland had a great many excursionists to Orwell yesterday, all of whom thoroughly enjoyed the lovely scenery and cool sea breezes.

Rev. J. W. Godfrey, wife and children, Sydney, were passengers to this city last evening by the S. S. Northumberland. They are the guests of Mrs J. K. Ross, Queen St.

The hay crop in the vicinity of Mt. Stewart and Pisquid is reported not nearly up to the average. The early grain looks well but the late is very short owing to the dry weather. Root crops are fairly promising.

Rev. A. C. Lucas, field secretary of the Sunday School Association of the West Indies and Central America, recently returned to his former home at Sackville, after attending a convention in California.—St. John Exc. Mr. Lucas is well known in this city.

Douglas Steele, Professor of English, Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown, P. E. I., who has been in Boston for the month of July, is expected home today to spend the remainder of the summer vacation at his home, Methodist Parsonage.—Moncton Exc.

W. L. Burt, formerly general agent for the Golden State Life Insurance company for Arizona recently resigned from his position, and his place has been taken by J. A. Crozier, who now officiates as general manager at the Hotel Ford. Mr. Crozier has money to loan, and a limited amount of insurance to sell.—Arizona Republican. Mr. Crozier is a native of this Province.

Clara Waltho McKay, daughter of John and Mrs. McKay, Wood Islands, has became the bride of Fred Ansel Plant, of Providence, R. I., but now of Brocton, Mass. Both bride and groom were unattended, the ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. Dornan. The affair was quiet but a number of their friends were awaiting them with confetti and rice as they came out and they made their escape in an automobile.

Misses Barbara and Lydia Matthews, Chatham, N. B., have gone on a visit to Charlottetown.

A Halifax exchange says:—Up to quite recently Prince Edward Island has been noted chiefly for its exports of horses and potatoes. It has, however, now gained a wider prominence through the sale of a black fox skin at the highest price ever paid in the fur market for a piece of fur of the same size, namely $2,300. The fox from which this expensive skin was taken was a pure jet black, and was raised at one of the Prince Edward Island farms, and the skin was sold in the London fur market a very short time ago, the sale being recorded in the Daily Consular and Trade reports.

H. H. Shaw, City, was in Moncton yesterday.

The Canadian cruiser Canada is in Sydney coaling.

John O'Connor, St. John, is visiting in Clinton.

C. G. Duffy, City, was a passenger returning by the mail train last night.

James and Mrs. Gass, New Glasgow, were passengers by the S. S. Northumberland last night.

The twin screw pleasure yacht Alacrity, of New York, was in port yesterday at the Marine Wharf.

Harry L. Munsey and Mrs Munsey of Salem, Mass., who have been visiting in this city for the past five weeks leave Friday on return home.

The Misses. Nina West and Jessie Snyder, left this afternoon on a vacation trip to Prince Edward Island. They will spend the greater portion of the time in Souris.—Moncton Exc.

Rev. Dr. G. M. Campbell, Fredericton, N. B., formerly of Charlottetown, is being mentioned as a liberal candidate in a New Brunswick constituency, possibly York or Kings county. His friends deny that he will be a candidate.—St. John Ex.

The funeral of the late Isaac Crosby of Marshfield which took place yesterday afternoon to the family cemetery at West River was very largely attended by a wide circle of sorrowing friends and relatives. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Wm. Harrison of Charlottetown. The pall bearers were Robert McFarlane, John Mellett, J. A. Ferguson, Wm. Boyle, James Drake and Wm. Godfrey.

The people of Marshfield, who have had a daily mail to and from the city for years past were left yesterday without that useful service. No mail carrier went or came between the city and Marshfield. This was a cause of much inconvenience and dissatisfaction. The Guardian is informed that the late mail carrier had been officially notified that his contract would close on July 31st and no other took his place yesterday. Probably the interruption will not last very long.

POPE CUTS DOWN LIST OF HOLY DAYS

NEW YORK, July 31—Announcement was made in this city yesterday that Pope Pius X., by a recent pontifical decree, had removed from the list of holy days of obligation, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, which Roman Catholics the world over celebrate on December 8.

The effect of the decree will be to relieve Roman Catholics of the obligation of hearing mass and abstaining from unnecessary work on the feast day.

Reports of the decree, which has not yet been promulgated officially in this diocese, brought expression of surprise from Roman Catholic clergymen, and some of them were inclined to think the translators of the decree were at fault and that no such change had been made by the pontiff.

The Immaculate Conception remained a matter of pious belief only until Pope Pius IX., after a Vatican council, in an apostolic letter dated December 8, 1854, defined the doctrine as an article of faith. Thereafter the Feast of the Immaculate Conception was observed throughout the Catholic world as a holy day of obligation.

In his recent decree Pope Pius X. says that on account of the changed conditions of civil society and in response to numerous petitions or the lessening of the number of holy days of obligation he has prescribed that only the following shall be observed.

"All Sundays throughout the year, the feast of the Nativity, the Circumcision, the Epiphany, the Ascension, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin, the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul and the Feast of All Saints."

In this country the Feasts of the Epiphany and SS. Peter and Paul have never been observed except as days of special devotion. When Archbishop Farley receives an official copy of the Pope's decree and sends a copy of it to each priest in the diocese there will be one less holy day of obligation in the local church calendar.

PAT: BRONX DONKEY, MOURNED BY CHILDREN AND GROWN-UPS

NEW YORK, July 31—Glory be, and Michael O'Connell's donkey do be after dying up in the Bronx, where he held out these sixty-five years with Mr. O'Connell, not to say anything of the seven years he hopscotched around before his owner rounded him up and named him Pat, after a wit of an uncle who died years before in County Mayo—have mercy on his soul.

It's a lot to say in one breath, but it's little part of the real and complete story of the good donkey Pat. Let you listen for a brief moment to the testimony of one good citizen who knew Pat in life and in death. This is only a bit of what he says:—

"Divvil a child in the Bronx that didn't know 'Pat,' and knew him well enough to pull his tail. An' that's going some with a jackass. He was the best natured and kindest-hearted old beast you ever knew. Sorra a child that couldn't walk up and tie the tail of a kite to him, daub his hoofs with green paint or throw a chain of dasies around his neck. When any of these things were coming off—and that was often—Pat only turned his head around like a chump and tried to look wise. He was a fine old fellow, and I hate to think he's gone."

"Pat" offered the first thrill for many a child in the Bronx. If you know the locality at all you can imgine how it was fifty, yes, twenty-five years ago. Probably all the children in the neighborhood—if they were the friends of the O'Connells, of course—got their first ride on the bareback of this selfsame donkey. And by the same token let it not be forgotten that the number included quite a few of the present judges, Aldermen, Assemblymen and other officials, not to say anything of numerous other persons, including famous cab drivers, saloon keepers, prize fight promoters et al.

As to his early history Michael O'Connell, his master and a wealthy contractor, of No. 2,075 Arthur avenue, knew little except that he was well recommended by a good family. That was sixty-five years ago, mind you.

If the reporter was not too lazy he might be able to turn up in the newspaper files story after story about Pat. They do say that he was a feature in many a St. Patrick's Day parade. That's a distinction in itself.

The glorious life of Pat came to an end yesterday when an unidentified youngster hurled a stone which caught the beast full in the right eye. That settled Pat. The magnetic words "March 17" were mentioned without avail. There was no doubting it, he was down for the final count. Policeman Christopher Schwartz was asked to despatch the animal with a bullet. He did so without shedding a tear. But he was a German policeman.

Last night the children of the neighborhood got together and began to arrange elaborate details for the funeral of Pat, which took place today. There will be flowers, a gravestone and all sorts of things. And if you dont let it go any further you can know that there are a lot of grown-ups who will have had a hand in this funeral.

CROWD SWEPT AWAY THE POLICE GUARD

NEW YORK, July 31 — Souvenir hunters nearly broke up the ceremonies that accompanied the beginning of work on the new subway today. Workmen had loosened a little square of asphalt on Lexington Avenue under which the new line will run, Public Service Commission Wilcox was preparing to lift the first shovelful of earth with a silver spade when several thousands enthusiasts swept away the small police guard.

After the reserves had been brought, the programme was continued. But the first earth was not lifted with a silver spade. It was scooped out of the hole by dozens of unofficial hands, while the police fought to keep the city officials and others scheduled to perform the ceremony from being swept off their feet. When the ceremonies began again the hole was several inches deep, while the crowd continued outside the police lines to scramble for the cubic foot or more of earth gathered by the more energetic of the souvenir hunters.

No arrests were made and nobody was badly hurt, although four women fainted and a police captain had the badge snapped from his cap also as a souvenir.

GREW PEANUTS WHERE ONCE COTTON BLOOMED

CHICAGO, July 28—Certain sections of the South have found it practically impossible, owing to the ravages of the boll weevil, to raise cotton for the past few years. A Mississippi man, writing to the Manufacturers' Record, says that his county will have produced this year just coming to a close possibly 3,500 bales of cotton compared with 25,880 bales three years ago.

"Last year," writes the correspondent, "I took it upon myself to investigate the raising of peanuts as a substitute for cotton. My associates and myself began a public advocacy of the peanut, and we succeeded in having about 2,500 acres of them planted in this section last year. The results were so good that I was called upon to go many points in the boll weevil stricken districts to tell them about the peanut.

"The result of these visits is that it is estimated that there will be anywhere from 100,000 to 150,000 acres planted in the white Spanish peanut in this state alone the coming season. And Louisiana, which last year had something like 30,000 acres under the crop, will increase her acreage the coming season to fully 100,000 acres.

"That the peanut is a money crop is now no longer a doubt, and it will always be a fixture on the farms in this state and Louisiana. It is found that the hay made from the peanut vines is more nutritious than timothy and also that the hay will more than pay all expenses incurred in making the crop.

"It has been proved through my own experiments that the oil from the peanut is of a very much higher grade than cotton oil, and hence it is not at all a question of finding a market for the oil, but to get a sufficient supply of the raw material from which to make the oil. The market is ready and waiting."

ALMEDA WILLEY'S CREW RESCUED

BOSTON, July 31—The shipwrecked crew of six men from the Salem three masted schooner Almeda Wiley arrived at Rockland, Maine, by steamer from Swan Island today and reported that they abandoned their vessel and were rescued by the schooner Alice, of Swan Island, after being in the rigging fourteen hours in Friday's gale. They were without food and drink twenty-four hours.

They were caught by the gale off Mount Desert Rock, their schooner filled with water and they were forced to take to the rigging. When they were taken off by the Alice Saturday afternoon they were eight miles off Isle Au Haut. The schooner sank or drifted ashore on Long Island and broke up.

Capt. H. M. Hatfield, of St. John, master and owner, while at the wheel with the wind blowing seventy miles an hour, and struck in the back by a mammoth sea and thrown down. He was not seriously injured. The Almeda Willey was built at Thomaston in 1874 and registered 547 tons gross. She was bound from St. John for Vineyard Haven.

PRESBYTERY OF P. E. ISLAND

induct, Rev. A. McKay to preach, Rev. H. J. Fraser to address the people, and Rev. John Murray the minister. The date and hour to be subsequently fixed by Moderator and Clerk of Presbytery.

A call from St. Peter's to Rev. A. J. Back of Quoddy, N. S., was submitted to Presbytery. W. Webster, representing the congregation, narrated the circumstances under which the call was entered into. On motion the call was not sustained and thereby set aside.

Elders commissions were submitted and the respective names added to roll of Presbytery.

It coming to the notice of Presbytery that Rev. Mr. McKenzie of Wood Islands had suffered bereavement and was now conveying the body of his son to Ontario for interment, it was moved, seconded and carried that the sympathy of the Court be extended to Mr. McKenzie.

A committee was appointed to visit the Congregation of Richmond Bay East and West to enquire into the conditions and see whether any rearrangement can be made in the working of the fields. The committee to consist of Revs. T. F. Fullerton, R. G. Strathie, H. J. Fraser, Robert Murray, W. H. Spencer, and E. J. Rattee, ministers, together with Lt. Gov. Rogers, T. C. James, A. S. McKay, and G. B. McNutt, elders.

Quite a discussion took place as to the minimum of minister's salary. The elders present spoke freely. A motion was passed in which the conviction was expressed that a thousand dollars was the last that should be given. Feeling that many congregations could not at once rise to this standing it was moved that all congregations be requested to take steps to adopt a minimum of nine hundred dollars as the minister's stipend. A committee was appointed to devise a scheme by which this matter be brought before congregations.

HIGH PRICES FOR MACKERAL FARES

GLOUCESTER, July 31—Four small fares of mackerel are in, one at this port, and two at Boston, and one at Provincetown, and although the trips are really northing more than dory pods, yet so high are the prices that each craft will be well paid for running to market with their catches.

The schooner Marguerite Haskins, which has been making trips about as often as any craft in the fleet, if not a little oftener, got the market for her catch, for her large fish brought 35 cents each, while the mediums sold for 25 cents and the tinvers which ordinarily bring three and four cents each, and with any amount in would go to the canners, sold this morning at the splendid figures of eight cents each.

EARL REMAINED AT HOME. BUT THE COUNTESS SAILED

LONDON, July 31—Although he had engaged passage to New York for himself and wife on board the Steamer Lusitania, which sailed last Saturday the Earl of Canard was compelled to stay here. The countess sailed alone. The Earl was compelled to forego the trip in order that he may be present to help pass the veto bill through the house of lords. The fact that he holds a political appointment as master of the house in the King's household obligates him to the government.

DOCTORS TELL HOW "CUTICURA" CURED SKIN DISEASES

One says, "I have Great Faith in Cuticura Remedies." Another, "They Always Bring Results."

"I wish to let you know of a couple of recent cures which I have made by the use of the Cuticura Remedies. Last August, Mr. ——— of this city came to my office, troubled with a severe skin eruption. At first I could not understand the nature of the case. I finally traced it to his occupation, as he was a painter and decorator. It was dermatitis in its worst form. It started with a slight eruption and would affect most parts of his body—thighs, elbows chest, back and abdomen—and would terminate in little pustules. The itching and burning was dreadful and he would almost tear his skin apart, trying to get relief. I recommended all the various treatments I could think of and he spent about fifteen dollars on prescriptions but nothing seemed to help him.

"In the meantime my wife who was continually suffering with a slight skin trouble and who had been trying different prescriptions and methods with my assistance, told me she was going to get some of the Cuticura Remedies. But as I did not know much about Cuticura at that time I was doubtful whether it would help her. Her skin would thicken, break and bleed, especially on the fingers, wrists and arms. I could do nothing to relieve her permanently. When she first applied the warm baths of Cuticura Soap and applications of Cuticura Ointment she saw a decided improvement and in a few days she was completely cured.

"I lost no time in recommending the Cuticura Remedies to Mr. ———, and this was two months ago. I told him to wash with warm baths of the Cuticura Soap and to apply the Cuticura Ointment generously. Believe me, from the very first day's use of the Cuticura Remedies he was greatly relieved and to-day he is completely cured through their use. I have great faith in the Cuticura Remedies and shall always have a good word for them now that I am convinced of their wonderful merits." (Signed) E. L. Whitehead, M.D., 108 Dartmouth St., Boston, Mass., July 22, 1910.

As though in confirmation of this most convincing statement, G. M. Fisher, M.D., Big Pool, Md., writes: "My face was afflicted with eczema in the year 1897. I used the Cuticura Remedies and was entirely cured. I am a practicing physician and very often prescribe Cuticura Remedies in cases of eczema, and they have cured where other formulas have failed. I am not in the habit of endorsing patent medicines, but when I find remedies possessing true merit, such as the Cuticura Remedies do, I am broad-minded enough to proclaim their virtues to the world. I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and must say I find your Remedies A No 1. I still find the Cuticura Remedies as good as ever. They always bring results."

Cuticura Remedies are sold by druggists everywhere. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass. Mailed free, on request latest 32-page Cuticura Book on the speedy treatment of skin diseases.
