POTATO GROWER'S SPRAY BULLETIN

The first brood of potato flea beetles is now about over. The second brood will appear during the second week of August. Aphids and tarnished plant bugs are just beginning to appear in many fields. DDT should be applied at regular intervals throughout the season to keep these insects under control.

The foregoing information is published in the interests of good spray practice and is in no way guaranteed.

The grower of high quality potatoes should use only the best spray materials he knows he can rely on--Spray materials such as--

Gentox S-50
Genicop Spray Powder
Spraycop with Adhesive
