Oshawa Entry Is Favored To Win Woodbine Classic

(By Edgar Simon, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

TORONTO, May 21—(CP)— Attention of racing enthusiasts all over Canada will be focused on Toronto's Woodbine Park Saturday for the 87th renewal of the King's Plate, Canada's top-ranking horse race and the oldest continuously-run turf event on the North American continent.

With Canada's new vice-regal couple, Viscount and Lady Alexander, in attendance, a field of Canadian-bred three-year-olds will go to the post in quest of the purse of 50 guineas, gift of the King, and $10,000 added money.

The royal donation was originally made in 1859 by Queen Victoria in response to a petition from the Toronto Turf Club through Governor-General Sir Edmund Head for a Queen's Plate of 50 pounds to be run for at Toronto or such other place in Upper Canada as Her Majesty might appoint."

Under political pressure, the race was staged at a number of Ontario tracks until Woodbine became its permanent site in 1883. James White's Don Juan was the first winner of the Plate at Carleton, now West Toronto, in 1860.

The Seagram Stable of Waterloo, Ont., has been the most consistent winner of the guineas, establishing an eight-year monopoly from 1891 to 1898, and carrying off top honors no less than 20 times. A Seagram entry, Kanshore, is a candidate for this year's running.

Most successful campaigner in recent years has been the late H. C. Hatch of Toronto who has won the Plate five times in the last 10 years. The Hatch estate has two entries in this year's race, Palermo and the highly-rated Bluesweep. The latter will probably be ridden by Bobby Watson who booted home two straight Hatch horses, Acara and Uttermost, in 1944 and 1945.

Track record over the 1 1-8 mile distance was set last year by Uttermost who covered the course in 1:53 4-5.

The Hatch stable established another mark in 1944 when its three-horse entry of Acara, Ompalo and Sayonara finished first, second and fourth respectively, leaving only the $1,000 third money to an outside competitor.

Originally limited to Ontario-the race is now open to horses bred anywhere in Canada, Sioris, owned by Dr. F. G. Salisbury of Saskatoon, is entered this year and Quebec province is represented by Gallant VI, owned and bred by C. H. Conyers.

Favorite for the race is still Kingarvie, king of last year's two-year-olds, owned by R. S. McLaughlin of Oshawa, with Bluesweep, Harry Giddings' Karakas and the Medway Stable's Khabula currently receiving considerable attention from the railbirds.

TEST A SUCCESS

INDIANAPOLIS, May 21 —(AP) —Duke Nalon, Beverly Hills, Calif., driver, tried out his auxiliary rocket power speedster at the Indianapolis motor speedway today and pronounced the test a success.

Although the run was not timed officially, the dapper pilot said his car was travelling at the rate of 100 miles an hour when he fired a four-second Jato rocket and that the speed increased to "130 miles an hour and possibly 140."

Cardinals' Ace Scoffs At .400 Mark

PHILADELPHIA, May 21—(AP) —Stan Musial scoffed today at his chances of hitting .400 this year.

"Why, to hit .400 this year is really something," he said. "That is about 50 points higher than my best mark when I won the batting championship in 1943. "And don't forget that was during wartime and now the pitching is much better."

The St. Louis Cardinal outfielder nevertheless was pounding National League pitching at a .377 clip after today's game with Philadelphia Phillies and Stan was only recently released from the navy where he saw a year's duty.

Should Musial crack the 400 mark, it would be the first time a National Leaguer hit the elite circle since Billy Terry turned the trick in 1930 for the Giants.

While Stan is not at present a leading contender in the senior circuit's home run derby, he is leading the league in doubles and triples.

The wrestling season will be officially opened at the Sporting Club tonight when two high-class bouts will be staged featuring the first imported grunt-and-groan talent to display their wares here this year. In the past the grapplers have performed before some large houses and those fans who like to view two well-conditioned athletes trying to commit assorted mayhem on each other should have an entertaining evening.

Rugged Fred Carone from Brooklyn and Jim Kilonis from Chicago are the principals in the main bout with a 60-minute time limit and both are well-known performers. Kilonis is a member of one of wrestling's most famous families and has been developing rapidly under the tutelage of the headman of the clan, John Kilonis. He has won great popularity in New York and the New England States. Carone is the rugged type of wrestler who likes to soften his opponent up with elbow smashes and other rough tactics before applying the finer tricks of the art.

The semi-final brings together Jack Timmins and Bill Rhyno wrestling the best two out of three falls with a 45-minute limit. Although not as well known as the main eventers, both boys are competent performers and come here well recommended. Now that the more skilled exponents of the art are again touring the Maritimes it is expected to see a revival of the keen interest evidenced locally when Dropkick Murphy, Cowboy Hughes and other clever wrestlers went through their paces.

Of all the golfers who were in the American armed services the one that will bear the most watching for the next year or two will be little Ben Hogan, in the opinion of Sam Byrd, former baseball star with the New York Yankees but now a keen golf student. Byrd thinks Byron Nelson is the man to beat in any one tournament, but feels sure Hogan will give Nelson a battle for the top money-winning role.

The former Bronx Bomber says: "The way I figure, Nelson is on the verge of being burned out or bored with the long grind. He has enough money and many good contracts. The old urge isn't as evident as it used to be. On the other hand Hogan was forced to miss many of the big money events during the past several years. He's eager to make up lost ground. Ben's got the urge now —and when he sets his mind to a thing he's a hard man to beat." All in all the battle between Hogand and Nelson should provide many a golf thrill this summer.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

The Charlottetown Bunnies, local ladies bowling team competing in the Maritime women's bowling tournament being held at St. John didn't break into the win column at the end of the first day's bowling, suffering four losses in as many starts, but should make a better showing now that they've become accustomed to the strange alleys.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Chicago White Sox claim to have the player with the most spectacular war record in rookie Jake Jones, according to a sports writer in the Windsor Star. Jones started warming the bench but has recently taken over Hal Trosky's position at first base and has been looking so good he might become a permanent fixture.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Jones was what the flying trade call a hot pilot and flew missions in a Hellcat of the aircraft carrier Yorktown. In these missions Jones ran into sufficient interception to knock off seven Jap planes, plus one probable, while destroying 15 aircraft on the ground. He wears the Silver Star, three distinguished flying crosses and seven air medals. That's a lot of fruit salad, particularly for a Navy flyer, and one who never went to college, either.

The White Sox have been called a waiver price ball club because so many of Jimmy Dykes' players are discards who were picked up for the claiming price of $7,500. But Jones is not one of them. He cost the Sox $26,000. They bought him from Shreveport of the Texas League in 1941. Since he was given a chance to replace Trosky, Jones has been hitting the ball hard and often and while he may not be able to maintain his hot pace at the plate, he's got all the fellows on the club rooting for him.

Hammering Hank Greenberg, who draws the fattest pay cheque in major league ball for his chores with the Detroit Tigers, is said to be the best dressed man in baseball. Hankus Pankus has a well stocked clothes closet including 18 business suits, three dinner jackets, one full dress suit, nine pairs of slacks, eight hats, eight sport jackets, 16 pairs of shoes, 104 shirts and 228 ties.

Feller Again Displays Mastery Over Yankees As Tribe Wins 7-2

By The Canadian Press

Bobby Feller, who hurled a no-hit shutout against New York Yankees April 30, had the snarling Yankees looking mighty helpless for a while yesterday again as he humbled them 7-2 at Cleveland for his sixth victory of the American League season.

Feller held Yanks hitless for 4 2/3 innings yesterday to stretch his skein to 13 2/3 hitless innings before Bill Dickey broke the spell with a single in the fifth. The Cleveland fireball fanned eight Bronx Bombers to raise his total for the year to 93 in 80 innings.

Red Sox Win

The Yanks defeat dropped them a full six games behind Boston as the Red Sox hammered out a 6-4 win over the Tigers at Detroit despite some sloppy playing. Earl Johnson, blond southpaw relief hurler, pitched and batted the Sox to victory, driving in the last two runs with an eighth-inning double.

Johnson pitched five hitless innings after Tigers got away to an early 4-0 lead with the help of four Boston errors and a wild pitch in the first two innings. Joe Dobson, Boston starter, lasted just one inning, yielded two runs, and Jim Bagby was victim of the other two unearned runs in the second.

George Metcovich homered with nobody aboard in the third, and Boston bunched four singles in the fifth to drive Virgil (Fire) Trucks to cover. Johnson doubled in the seventh and tied the score as he raced home on Ted Williams' two-bagger to set the stage for his eighth inning show.

At Cleveland, Feller's worst inning was the seventh when Yanks collected three safeties, including Tommy Henrich's fourth homer of the year.

Outside of that he had everything under control from start to finish, as his teammates gave him a four-run lead in the first inning. Frankie Hayes, who belted the game-winning homer in Bobby's no-hitter, came up yesterday with the bases loaded and pushed three runs across with a smacking double.

K. OF C. BOWLING PRIZES PRESENTED

Climaxing a highly successful season bowlers partaking in this year's Knights of Columbus Bowling Leagues last night were guests at an enjoyable dinner function at the V-Club. There were over 80 in attendance and it was presided over by Lecturer T. W. Campbell.

Guest speaker of the evening was Rev. Patrick McMahon, D.D., who spoke enthusiastically on the success attaining the social activities of the local Council and impressed upon his listeners continuing their line of endeavours towards the welfare of the youth of the city. Dr. McMahon also heartily congratulated the winners of the different trophies and prizes on their successes.

Before the gathering dispersed a vote of thanks, moved by Grand Knight R. A. McDonald and seconded by Louis Butler was conveyed to Rev. Fr. McMahon for his timely and interesting address by chairman T. W. Campbell.

A vote of thanks was also tendered the bowling committee comprised of Messrs. Wendell Mullins, P. Curley, T. McAdam and E. Smith.

After dinner and presentation of prizes had been concluded dancing was indulged in for the remainder of the evening. Music was supplied by Al Blanchard's Orchestra.

Presentation of Prizes

The Dr. F. C. Dougan Trophy was presented to Capt. L. Butler of the Shamrocks by Grand Knight R. A. McDonald. Other members of the team include H. Conway, Con Gaudet, Leo Peters and F. Shanahan.

Aces captained by William McInnis were winners of the Grand Knight J. Alfred Doyle Trophy, the donor in presenting the trophy heartily congratulating the winners on their bowling ability. Prizes donated by Grand Knight R. A. McDonald also went to members of the team who in addition to Capt. McInnis are W. Mullins, L. DesRoche, C. Murphy, Rev. Fr. Roche and R. E. Bradley.

Lecturer T. W. Campbell's Trophy went to the Hot Shots, Mr. Campbell presenting the silverware to Captain F. Shanahan. Other members are A. Curley, H. Conway, G. Gallant and S. Trainor.

A feature of the presentation was the capturing of the Deputy Grand Knight R. E. Bradley prize by Leonard McDonald who rolled the season's high single knocking the maples for a total of 343 in a single game.

Lowly Phils Down Cards By 4-3 Score

St. Louis Cardinals were smacked down into a first-place tie with Brooklyn in the National League standings yesterday by — of all things — the lowly Philadelphia Phillies.

The Phils, who had won a not-so-sparkling total of six games until yesterday, lashed out with a three-run rally in the sixth to dunk the Red Birds 4-3 while the Dodgers were idle.

The other two scheduled games on the program, Pittsburgh at New York and Cincinnati at Brooklyn, were washed out.

The Phillies hammered Ted Wilks and Fred Martin for five hits in the sixth. The uprising was touched off by Ron Northey leading the frame with a home run over the right field wall, his third of the season.

Al Jurisich, credited with his third win of the year, was tagged for two runs when Whitey Kurowski drove his third round tripper of the campaign into the left field stands with one on in the second inning.

Output Of Leather Footwear Climbing

OTTAWA, May 21 — (CP) — Canada's production of leather footwear continued an upward trend in March, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today. A record monthly total for recent years of 4,020,000 pairs was produced compared with 3,497,000 in February.

Production was higher in each of the first three months of the current year and the aggregate rose from 9,347,000 pairs last year to 10,917,000 pairs.

Big League Ball Risky Investment

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK, May 21 — (AP)— Charles Segar, publicity director for the National League, issued a "writ" today which appears to show that organized baseball, regardless of whether it is a monopoly, has represented one of the riskiest investments in the world for many a year.

"As far as our league is concerned, it's strictly a rich man's game — owning a ball club," he said. "I've just finished going back over the financial records of all eight teams since 1915, and with one exception they show that fresh money was needed to keep them going during that period.

"I don't know whether ball players are being paid all they're worth, but the record shows that nobody has got rich off their efforts."

Although it was not offered as such, Segar's finding obviously formed a rebuttal to any implication by the Mexican League that organized ball, by its alleged "monopoly", had grown wealthy off the sweat of its employees.

"Only one National League club, Pittsburgh, has managed to pull through since 1916 without finding a wealthy backer who could afford to drop a lot of money in the lean years," Segar said his search of the records disclosed. "Some of the others have changed hands up to five times, and only in the past year have the Boston Braves and the Philadelphia Phils finally got themselves on solid ground."

Select Site For Dom. Ski Championships

MONTREAL, May 19—(CP)—The 1947 Dominion ski championships, the first such meet to be held since pre-war days, have been awarded to the St. Lawrence Valley ski zone and will be held at Mont Ste. Anne, 25 miles east of Quebec, it was decided at the two-day annual general meeting of the Canadian Amateur Ski Association which ended here today.

The sessions were attended by delegates from all parts of the Dominion, especially by members of 36 clubs from the central district and eastern section of the C. A. S. A. The western session was held at Princeton, B. C., last February.

Minimum standards for Canadian championships competition were adopted at the meetings. These minimum standards will consist of a downhill run of at least 2,000 feet while slalom tests should be held on a minimum course of 400 feet. It was also decided that jumping events should take place on a 165-foot jump while cross-country races should take place on an 11.2-mile course.

Unanimous support was given a resolution seeking full support of the Canadian Olympic Committee for a strong representation of the C. A. S. A. at the winter games of 1948.

A. Sidney Daws was re-elected president of the Association and J. R. Houghton chairman of the technical board.

Fredericton St. Dunstan's, relinquishing the leadership, won only one game today and was tied with Saint John St. Peter's and St. Rose's. Each had five wins. Next, with four and four, were the Saint Johns, Fredericton Capitals and Marysville.

Moncton lost all four games today and has only one win. Digby and Charlottetown remained in the cellar with eight losses.

Weatherman Aids Royals To Top Rung

By The Canadian Press

Montreal Royals climbed back into first place in the International League last night with capable assists from the weatherman and Syracuse Chiefs.

The Rochester at Montreal game was rained out, and the leading Chiefs dropped a 10-inning set-to at Newark to fall one-half game behind Royals.

Toronto Maple Leafs meanwhile kept pace with Newark—they're tied for fifth place—by trouncing Buffalo Bisons 6-3 in an arclight game at Toronto.

Leafs gained their victory with an eighth-inning walkfest that saw three runs amble across the plate. Jack Houck was purposely walked to load the bases, and then Buffalo hurler Les Mueller walked pinch hitter Chet Morgan and Eddie Yount before Hank Biasatti poled a long fly to account for the third tally.

A walk also figured in the Newark game, with Jack Phillips getting a free pass in the 10th with the bases loaded to push in the necessary run and oreak up the game.

Rounding out the evening's card, Baltimore Orioles climbed into a third-place virtual tie with Buffalo as they put the skids to the tail-end Jersey City Giants by a 4-2 score.

Tigers Plug 3rd Base Gap

DETROIT, May 19—(CP) —Detroit Tigers, plugging a defensive gap at third base and striving for more power in their impotent batting order, Saturday traded outfielder William Barney McCosky to Philadelphia Athletics for third baseman George C. Kell.

General manager George Trautman of the world champions, said the deal, first of major importance here since Rudy York went to Boston last January for Eddie Lake, was an out-and-out trade with no cash involved.

McCosky, 28-year-old former Detroit sandlotter who delighted fans with his heavy hitting in pre-war days, has been in a bad batting slump this season and was benched recently with a recurrence of a leg ailment that has bothered him for weeks.

His average had slipped to .196 in contrast to his pre-war standard of .316 for four major league years.

Recommend Huge Vote For U.S. Navy

WASHINGTON, May 21—(AP)— The House of Representatives appropriations committee today recommended $4,369,659,000 for the United States Navy next year in response to Secretary Forrestal's plea for a "truly effective sea and naval air power" to help keep the peace.

The money would finance the navy in the fiscal period beginning July 1. The committee increased Budget Bureau estimates by $374,260,000. The navy originally had asked the Budget Bureau for about $6,000,000,000.

Senators Will Beat Out Yankees And Sox Says Griffith

By BUS HAM

WASHINGTON, May 21 —(AP)— This may shock Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees:—

Washington Senators are going to beat them out in the American League pennant race—Clark Griffith says so.

The white-haired old gentleman who directs the Senators, now sizzling through the west, put it this way in an interview:—

"I'm not saying that the Red Sox and Yankees aren't good ball clubs—they are, darn good, in fact —but we're going to beat them out.

"We're going to do so because we're the best balanced club in the league. We may not be the flashiest but we're sound defensively with a wider spread in our hitting and pitching strength.

"We may not have a Joe Dimaggio or Ted Williams but I wouldn't trade our batting order from top to bottom for any other crew in the league.

"And our pitching strength will tell more and more as the race stretches out. We don't need to rely on two or three standouts; we've got seven or eight pitchers who can win."

Griffith isn't forgetting that the Red Sox and Yankees mauled the Senators in six of eight games at the start of the season.

"That's what I'm talking about," he said. "They were ready for a fast start and we weren't. But we're rolling now."

Worried About Bluesweep

(By The Canadian Press)

TORONTO, May 21 — Dopesters who figure Kingarvie, R. S. McLaughlin's Parkwood Stable speedster, a sure bet for the King's Plate on the basis of his easy victory in one division of the Plate trial last Saturday had better listen awhile to Arthur Brent, Kingarvie's trainer.

Despite the colt's romp over such Plate candidates as the Hatch Stable's Bluesweep, Arthur admitted in an interview today he was worried.

"I see that Bluesweep in my dreams," said Brent. "You know they didn't let him run much in the trial. I'm worried about him. He's a good colt. He can run a lot better than they let him run in the trial."

Some observers at the trial were inclined to agree with Brent. Bluesweep left the gate in last place and appeared to sprawl in the greasy going. When his jockey saw he could not overhaul Kingarvie he didn't punish his mount.

LOVE STORY OF GREAT JOHN L. MAKES FILM'S EXCITING THEME

That famous old Gallicism "cherchez la femme" is, of course, justified whether it be applied to a juicy murder or the more minor aberrations in a man's lifetime. It has become almost axiomatic that for the success of every great man, somewhere in the background is the woman who made that success possible. This is true whether it be applied to statesmen, philosophers or —prizefighters.

It was certainly true in the case of that most fabulous of all fistic idols, the great John L. Sullivan, whose colorful life is currently unfolding at the Yeo Theatre through United Artists release. A search into the great fighter's private life reveals not one but two women, each of whom had no little influence on his drive to fame. It is with the story of the two women and their romance that the "Great John L." is primarily concerned.

Bing Crosby Productions have approached the life of the fighter from an unusual angle and the results have been fruitful. In his off-stage life the producers have discovered and presented a story more highly dramatic than even the most drama-filled bout in Jawn's hard-hitting career.

The two women in Sullivan's life were Kathy Harkness, childhood sweetheart of his Boston days and Anne Livingston one of the most famous musical comedy stars of the '80's.

No man could have loved two so disimilar women. Kathy Harkness was a gentle innocent from Sullivan's native city.

After Anne's death, Sullivan returned to Boston and there married Kathy. His final days with her were quiet, based on a solid family relationship.

L.P.U. Team Having Large Turnouts

Although practices continue to be somewhat limited—not in manpower by any means—nevertheless manager Fred McCabe and Hec McQuarrie of the L.P.U. team are gradually getting around to a weeding-out process and they, according to a spokesman for the team last night, are confident of fielding a squad that will give the other teams plenty of argument all season long.

There appears to be a wealth of material, untried in some cases, to pick from, our informant told us. Charlie Ryan and Harold Hennessey will likely fortify the catching department with the latter giving the former quite a chase for honors, while in the hurling corps, McCallum, McAleer, Larter and McCormack are gradually whipping their arms into shape for the opening encounters. Infield material is also plentiful as is the case in the outfield and once the diamond is in playing shape, the axe will likely be wielded in order to cut the squad down to playing size.

The squad worked out last night with a large number of players on hand. Tonight they will hold another practice session on the Knights of Columbus diamond at 6.30 and again everyone is asked to be on hand.

Fortress Germany is besieged. The blood-drenched bastions of the Third Reich buckle under the weight of Allied armor. Her once arrogant Luffwaffe, beaten from the skies, lies like a crippled bird. Her invincible panzers have tasted the bitter fruits of defeat. To Germany, the war is lost.

But not so the peace. For seeds of conquest can be planted underground. Plans of harder men and grimmer reapers can be stored away in men's minds and in the minds of their children and these, too, can grow underground. Then quite suddenly, these can burst from the ground and bear the fruits of another war.

As stark and grim as the nation is reveals, "Hotel Berlin" is the story of twisted lives and anguished souls, dwelling in the shadow of their own swastika in Berlin's grandest hotel.
