THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

—NEW ANNAN ENTRIES close Sat. Aug. 5th. Free-for-all, 2:20 Trot, 2:29 Trot and Pace, Colt Stake, $1150.00 in purses. Races Aug. 17th. 817C

—HYDRATED LIME, especially prepared for spraying. Fine as flour. Doesn't clog. Phone Holman's, Summerside. 8164-7-28-21

—I WILL BE UNLOADING car coal at Carleton on Thursday and Friday. Car lots now arriving regularly. Put in your winter's supply while the roads are good and prices low. Fred Bell. 8163-7-28-21

—THE MARGARET DRAMATIC Players will present their Four Act Comedy Drama, "The Villian Foiled" in Traveller's Rest Hall on Thursday evening, July 28th. If not fine will be held Friday evening.

—RICHMOND BAY CONGREGATION—Services in connection with the Presbyterian Church of Canada will be held on Sabbath next in Lot 11 at 10:30 a. m., in Lot 14 at 3 p. m. Sabbath School at 2 p. m., and in Tyne Valley at 7:30 p. m. Everyone welcome to these services.

—BRILLIANT STUDENT—Mr. Edwin Gillis is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillis, Bayside. Mr. Gillis has completed the prescribed medical course at Tufts University, Boston, taking the two years in one, and intends to enter the Tufts Medical School this fall.

—ON MOTOR TRIP—Mr. and Mrs. William McIntyre are visiting the former's brother, Mr. Augustine McIntyre, Bayside, having motored from Boston last week. It is twenty-nine years since Mr. McIntyre left the old home and this is the first time he has revisited it. Mrs. McIntyre is a native of Pittsburgh Penn.

—SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS—The rate-payers of Bayside school district are making several improvements to the school grounds. The yard has been enlarged and graded and the school house moved to the rear of the lot. When the new fence is erected and other changes effected the property will have a greatly enhanced appearance.

—TELEPHONE REPAIRED—The Grand River telephone line has been given a thorough and much needed overhauling. Many of the boxes were out of order and the line connecting with the central office at Richmond had for several weeks been practically useless. Mr. Lee Stewart had charge of the work and it is needless to say that it was done most satisfactorily. Providing the subscribers renew their batteries once a year or more often where necessary this line should continue to give most efficient service.

—PRIZE WINNERS—The many friends of Miss Peggy Strachan of Halifax, who is a niece of Mrs. W. B. Robinson, of Summerside, and for several years was a student in the Summerside High School, will be glad to learn of her good fortune in achieving a high standing among the prize winners of the recent Maclean's Magazine contest as conducted by MacLean's Magazine. Miss Strachan has received a cheque from the magazine for a substantial amount and congratulations are in order on her success in this unique series of contests, of which Maclean's Magazine announces a new one in each issue. This is the second time Halifax has made an appearance in these prize awards.

A mock marriage and snow in her marriage, honor of Miss Florence Gillis, a past president who will become the bride of Vernon Malone of Alberta, Can., in June, was the feature of the meeting of Clan Macdonald Auxiliary in Harmony Hall, Wednesday evening, Miss Gillis is a native of Prince Edward Island.

Spokeswoman for the gathering was Mrs. Carrie Poirier, president of the auxiliary, and she presented the coming bride with a complete linen set and embroidered linen towels.

There was a large attendance and one candidate was initiated. Mrs. Mary MacCarrach and Mrs. Elma Ballum were reported ill. Plans were furthered for the supper and roll call which will be features of the observance of the 26th anniversary of institution, Wednesday night, May 18. The committee includes Mrs. Minnie MacPherson, Mrs. Catherine Powderly, Mrs. Madeline Ward, Mrs. Grace Donlon, Mrs. Annie Gillis, Mrs. Christine Swinerton, Miss Jennie MacDonald, Mrs. Edith Duff, Mrs. Davidina Crawford and Mrs. Alpha Ellis.

A luncheon was served by those who took part in the mock marriage, including: Bride, Mrs. Carrie Poirier; groom, Mrs. Madeline Ward; bridesmaid, Mrs. Florence MacCarrach; best man, Mrs. Davidina Crawford; father of the bride, Mrs. Minnie MacPherson; flower girl, Mrs. Annie Gillis; ring bearer, Miss Emily Parks; parson, Miss Jennie MacCarrach; organist, Miss Hattie MacCarrach.

Miss Florence Gillis, 40 Haverhill street, was tendered a surprise miscellaneous shower by more than 60 friends Monday night at the home of Miss Margaret J. Corcoran, 15 Taylor avenue, in honor of her approaching marriage, June 28, to Vernon Malone of Prince Edward Island. The young woman received numerous gifts of linen, cut glass, silverware, aluminum and other household necessities.

Pink and white streamers and cut flowers were used in attractive decorations. The bride-elect was in the position of honor beneath a large floral archway from which was suspended a wedding bell. A shower of rose petals descended from the bell at the opening of the festivities. Piano solos were given by Miss
