QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

EDWIN E. AND Mrs. LEWIS, Applin Road, were in the city Saturday.

If you want to see good clean Hockey you are sure to go to the Hillside rink Tuesday evening.

SCARLETINA is prevalent in Rustico and vicinity, but all victims of the disease arrive in a fair way to recovery.

J. A. CROZIER of Murray & Crozier real estate agents, Winulpeg, left Saturday for Malouque on a short visit.

Her many friends will be pleased to learn that Angie Peters organist of St. Augustine Church, Rustico, has completely recovered from her recent illness.

By referring to the classified column it will be seen that M. Trator & Co. offer an opportunity for an excellent training in Millinery Work to girls desirous of learning.

The funeral of the late James Gallant, aged 74 years, of Wheatley River, took place March 1, to St. Augustine Church, Rustico, where a Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Dr. Chlason, P. P.

E. W. TAYLOR, who has a transit instrument, informs The Guardian that the correct time is but a few seconds fast by correct time. It is advisable that Railway time be exactly the same as that of the town clock.

There is no truth whatever in the statement that Rev. Mr. Cotton had received a call to the parish of Springhill, now vacant through the resignation of Rev. W. B. Sisson. So says the Halifax Mail.

ABRAM PETERS, supervisor of New Brunswick and P. E. I. Land, for the Singer Sewing Machine Co., paid a short visit to his home in Rustico last week. Mr. Peters will remain on the Island about a month in connection with the Singer Co.

TOMORROW night's carnival at the big Arena promises to be the most largely attended of the season as it is the last this year. Those who skated at the former carnivals will not miss the real fun of skating again, and a large number are preparing elaborate costumes. The Fourth Regiment Band will be in attendance.

A PROVINCIALIST gives information as to what kind of news a paper should contain. "It doesn't appear to me the public are ever anxious as to what people will babble or who poured tea and coffee at receptions, or whether Lizee spent Sunday in town the guest of Sallie, or how many fish Joe and Jim caught on their last excursion." The Guardian will be glad to have other opinions regarding what is news.

This hockey match on Saturday morning in Hillside rink, between the carriers of The Guardian and the carriers of The Patriot, resulted in a score of 3 to 1 in favor of The Guardian carriers. The boys averaged about 13 years and they made a rough and tumble game which kept the referee busy watching off-ides and slashing. The teams lined up as follows:

Guardian Carriers.	Patriot Carriers.
M. McMillan	Goal W. Whitlock
L. on Worby	Pt. T. Fyfe
C. Dingwell	C.Pt. A. Wilson
Pat Cullaghan	Jack Duffy
Brenton Hooper	H. Trainer
Walter Smith	J. McDonald
Loy McDonald	Joe Flynn

A very pleasant evening passed only a few minutes ago at the home of Mrs. J. J. McMillan, 111 Kent St., where some friends gathered to celebrate the birthday of a young girl, who is now a double about to be from Prowse Bros. Charlottetown. The evening was spent very happily in instrumental music, solos, quartets, sacred and comic song. G. H. Moore of Charlottetown gave some very pleasing sacred and comic selections both vocal and instrumental to the delight of the gathering. When the clock struck one, all too soon, all rose to toast the host and hostess, and also Mrs. Bruce McMillan in honor of her birthday. She aided materially to the evening's entertainment by her skillful performance on violin and organ. The company broke up by singing God Save the King, each vowing to meet again as soon as possible.

Sings of Spring are becoming increasingly abundant. The voice of "whistlers" may now be heard in the early morning crowing to the dawn, while fresh-laid eggs are being sold at less than the rates charged for pearls of the same size. The man who attends the furnace every night has less shoveling to do. The ladies of their households are filling the rooms with their hair with the annually recurring terror of the Spring house-cleaning. Wet feet, new rubbers, colds, and lobster supplies are the chief things in evidence, and tomorrow probably all doubt of the advancing season will be set at rest when the order of truckmen will form in squadrons and advance through the streets of the City towing the immense spring impatiations of Prowse Bros., Ltd., from the Railway station to their large departmental store. But the most indisputable fact of all is the spring poetry which shows signs of being an unusually prolific crop. Samples already received at this office indicate a slight improvement in quality and an enormous increase in quantity. Thrice welcome, gentle spring!

British Almond Pink.—This is an ideal preparation for chapped hands, roughened skin, etc. It has an ever increasing sale, which speaks for its merits. Once used always used! Its receipt, Only 25c. per bottle. Prepared and sold by A. W. Reddin Pharm. B.

CHARLOTTETOWN vs Summerside at Hillside rink tomorrow night.

Don't fail to see the Octoroon in the Opera House on Easter Monday night.

TOMORROW night the last and best carnival of the season at the big Arena.

Any person having an express wagon to dispose of should read the classified col.

ARCHIBALD McLEAN, son of Rev. D. McLean, Lot 48, leaves for Straburg, Sask., as soon as the steamer resume running.

The Charlottetown Hockey Team make their first appearance before a Charlottetown audience tomorrow evening. Be sure and see them.

J. E. MATTHEWS, of this city representative of the North American Life Assurance Company, who is at present in the West, is expected home about May first.

JAMES D. McLEOD, Montague, was in the city Saturday. Mr. McLeod is a theological student and is engaged in church work at Jeddore, N. S. For the past few weeks he has been visiting his father who has been ill at Montague, but who is improving. Mr. McLeod will leave shortly on return to Jeddore.

The Mark Wright Furnishing Co. have secured the contract for furnishing the new wing of Prince of Wales College now being finished. Three hundred desks and seats for the pupils and the necessary desks, chairs, etc. for the teachers are called for all to be of the latest design and the finest that money can buy.

DONALD A. ROSS, Duluth Minn., formerly of Strathlbyn, is visiting friends on the Island. Mr. Ross has been engaged for some time past in heavy railroad and mill construction work on the Wisconsin Central Railway, where the finest car factories in the world are used. He expects to leave on return to Duluth about March 11th.

MISS LAURA M. D. MITCHELL, daughter of Mrs. Mitchell of this city, has been very successful in her art studies at New York. After three months instruction in the New York School of Art, Miss Mitchell has had her paintings accepted and placed in the Clausen Art Gallery and also in the Catherine Lorillard Wolfe Art Students' Club, competing against professionals.

A most enjoyable evening was spent at the home of John and Mrs. Holman, Winulpeg, on Friday evening when their many friends met to bid them farewell before their leaving for their new home in the West. Addresses were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Holman, to which they very feelingly replied. Short speeches were also made by Chas. Bryenton, John Boudy and Rev. J. M. Rice.

Those who want work of any kind or are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown, Telephone 132a. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application, less postage if sent by mail, if they do not get what they want.

It is denied that Jere McAuliffe has endangered his standing in the hockey league by playing with the Abegweits in the middle of North America. Sir J. is a professional in Canada, in his club work he has been one of the greatest followers of the "Pack" of the drama, that is to be found in North America. Anyone who has seen him in comedy will readily admit this. During the last week while he has been floating about in the ice-blocked straits of "Hearts Adrift," and although the audiences were not large, they comprised every living soul who could possibly attend. The special scenery used for the occasion exceeded anything in that line ever used by any manager in America. Further particulars will be given by Jere when he arrives.
