THE TRUE GENTLEMAN

The man we call a gentleman is one who never causes pain; He moves another's obstacles, With dignity—in his own mind. He never causes jolts or jars In the minds of those who with him hide, And very cautiously avoids Restraint, suspicion, gloom or pride.

WHAT CHANCE FOR THE POOR RUM BOAT?

Left to Right—a Coast Guard speed boat, the unfortunate rum ship on Rum Row, a torpedo boat and a revenue cutter give an idea of how each rum boat on Rum Row in the North Atlantic is picketed by U. S. government vessels to prevent discharging its illicit cargo or to receive supplies from the shore.

He has his eyes on all his guests, To the bashful tenderness he shows; He helps the distant and absurd, He guards against unkind remarks, Or topics which may irritate; In talk he's never prominent, But always kindly and sedate. He never lists to slanderous tongues, For gossiping he has no ears; To those who interfere with him He motives gives, but never sneers.

Which tear and hack, but don't cut clean He does not say he's always right, Injustice with him has no place; Such candour will not 'er be found In others of the human race. He knows the human weaknesses, And tries to help them all he can. When all these virtues are combined

You'll know, my friend, there is a MAN. By F. L. Campbell From the prose by J. H. Newman.

IN MEMORIAM

ISABEL A. TAYLOR

Entered into rest on the 23th of May, Isabel A. Taylor, daughter of the late Henry Taylor, of Rice Point, in the 70th year of her age. Miss Taylor lived for about forty years in Providence, R.I., and returned two years ago to her native shore. Her illness was borne with Christian resignation and her last hours were comforted by the love and cherishing tenderness of her most devoted friends and relatives. Isabel from her girlhood lived a quiet, unobtrusive life. Peace and good will towards all was the atmosphere in which she loved to dwell. "The meek shall delight themselves in abundance of peace." She has passed from our midst leaving no enemies but many friends who shall always remember her steadfast Christian faith, made bright by a quiet but enduring cheerfulness.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. M. Lamont at Mr. G. D. Wright's rooms and also on arrival at Canoe Cove Church, where a considerable congregation assembled notwithstanding inclement weather. Deceased's sister, Miss Martha Taylor, who had travelled from Providence, R.I., was present at the services.

Deceased leaves to mourn their loss the following brothers: William and Angus in Saskatchewan; James in Ontario; David in Providence R.I.; Simon in Canoe Cove, Henry in Rice Point, and sisters, Mrs. T. MacQuarrie in Rice Point, and Martha in Providence, R. I. The pall-bearers were: Harry McNevin, Chas. McDougall, Donald McFadyen, Duncan McEachern, Duncan Darrach and Alexander McKenzie.

MRS. WM. J. CARVER.

There passed peacefully away on June 2nd at Mt. Albion, an old and respected lady in the person of Mrs. Wm. J. Carver who was in her 80th year.

Deceased was of a quiet retiring disposition. The soul of honor, it did not seem possible for her to think an unkind thought, or do an unkind deed. Modest in demeanor but possessed with a wonderful ability to make lasting friendships among all she came in contact with. Always ready to help in time of sickness and trouble and never heard to murmur or complain. Everyone who went to her home was always welcomed with a cheery smile. Her many deeds of kindness will never be known till the recording angels read them out of the book of life. Thoughtful and generous beyond measure, she has left a void in many hearts which can never be filled. But they have the assurance that some day they shall meet her face to face and know her as she is, where there is no pain, sickness or sorrow and where God Himself shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

The funeral which took place from her home in Mt. Albion to Hazelbrook cemetery on June 4th was largely attended, and showed the esteem in which the deceased was held. The services were conducted by the Rev. E. McDougall, of Charlottetown, who spoke very highly of the deceased and also spoke comforting words to the bereaved. The Rev. Mr. E. A. Westmoreland assisted at the house and Mr. Tilley, of Pownal, at the cemetery. The hymns were sung very sweetly, and were as follows: Jesus Lover of My Soul; Asleep in Jesus, and Lead Kindly Light.

There are left to mourn a sorrowing husband, three sons and three daughters, namely: Mrs. A. D. Fraser, Charlottetown; Mrs. Benj. Horton, Mt. Albion, and Miss Julia at home. The sons are: Leigh and Cyrus in the United States and Heath at home. Also eight grandchildren and one great grandchild and two sisters and one brother besides other relatives and friends. The pallbearers were: Boswell Jenkins, Henry McKenzie, Henry Jones, George Ballen, Alfred Lund and Frank Driscoll. The floral offerings were very beautiful and included the following:

Wreath—Family.
Sprays—James Stombury, the grandchildren; Ladies' Aid of Zion Church.
City bouquets—Mrs. J. A. Clark and Miss F. Campbell, Charlottetown.

MR. LEO GILLIS

The funeral of the late Leo Gillis on Friday afternoon was largely attended, upwards of two hundred autos and carriages being in the long procession to St. Margaret's Church and cemetery, testifying to the esteem in which Mr. Gillis, who was a comparatively young man of fifty years was held.

The service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Father McPherson, who also administered the last sacrament shortly before Mr. Gillis' death.

He leaves to mourn their loss his mother (Jane McDonald, of Hay River); sister Maggie, a son, eleven years, and a daughter, of ten years. His wife died eight or nine years ago. The pallbearers were Messrs. Chester McDonald, Andrew McDonald, Wilfred McDonald, Stephen McDonald and Ronald McPhee. At the chapel Mr. Michael McIntyre presided at the organ and sang the Libera and the responses at the grave. That the deceased was universally revered was strongly evidenced by the immense number who followed the remains of a beloved neighbor to its last resting place. R.I.P.
