

An Emulsion You Can Take

No matter what difficulty you have had in taking an emulsion, there is no doubt in our mind in regard to your being able to take

Our Emulsion Cod Liver Oil.

It is fresh, and fresh emulsion made from pure, Norwegian oil is the only kind to take. Our emulsion is combined with hypophosphites and is a most palatable preparation. For bronchial affections, chronic coughs, and tugging up after colds, etc., there is nothing quite so good to take. Our 35 cent bottle equals the foreign 50 cent.

Large bottles 75 cents.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

MONDAY MORNING, JANUARY 21, 1907.

ARE WE TOO FEW, THE REMEDY TOO COSTLY?

A hundred thousand people more or less in Prince Edward Island claim equal rights, an equal chance to live, and prosper, with their fellow citizens in the other Provinces. Some timid ones say we will never get it, we are too weak.

Others say we will never get the Tunnel because it would cost ten millions of dollars. If Canada were too poor to pay the cost the plea might give us pause. But Canada is rich. An overflowing treasury is her boast.

We are too few! the remedy too costly! Let us go back a few years and see.

The white, non-Boer population of the Transvaal in 1898 did not exceed in number the people of Prince Edward Island. They were denied equality. They were taxed without the enjoyment of equal rights, but the wrongs and injuries they suffered were not half as great as ours.

Yet out of the real or imaginary grievances of these hundred thousand men grew the Jameson raid, the war with Kruger, the sending of 200,000 soldiers to South Africa, the loss of 3,000 lives and the cost of a billion dollars!

It touched Canada, too, though so far away, and cost us the lives of some of our son- and the Canadian treasury two millions of dollars.

In other words the wrongs of a people as few as those of this Island shook the British Empire to its centre, marshalled the armed forces of the British Isles, India, Australia and Canada in a struggle that lasted for years.

It terminated Dutch rule in South Africa, sent Kruger to die in exile and nearly precipitated a war between Britain and Germany.

It is impolitic, it is dangerous, it is costly sometimes, to trifle with the wrongs of 100,000 people in these days! Let Canada lay the lesson to heart.

Those men of the Transvaal whose cause thus shook the Empire, were not more than two thirds of them British subjects by birth. They were immigrants to Kruger's domain. No treaty compact had been broken with them.

We are British subjects all; we are in the Canadian union under a solemn compact which Canada has broken, has confessed that she has broken and is at it setting it at naught. By so much is our case stronger than that of the men of Johannesburg.

To right their wrongs cost Britain a billion dollars, and Canada paid two millions more. Shall Canada that did so much for these men, who never contributed a dollar to the Canadian treasury, shall she not at whatever cost, fulfil her treaty pact with one hundred thousand tax-paying British Islanders?

Think it over, men of little faith and little courage who praise of the smallness of our numbers and the cost of the reparation. Think it over, men of courage, justice loving men, who have suffered so much from Canadian injustice!

We repeat: We cannot go on as we have been going. We must have justice, equality or separation. The cost of a Tunnel would be trifling to the loss and cost of forcing upon the Island people the reparation for their own wrongs.

THE CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE.

The Guardian prints on another page this morning the report of proceedings at the annual meeting of share holders of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and speaks a careful reading of the same from all who take an interest in the financial affairs of the country. The Canadian Bank of Commerce is one of the great monetary institutions of North America. Its strength is apparent from its paid-up capital of $10,000,000, its rest of $5,000,000, its handsome annual dividends, (7 per cent. with a bonus of 1 per cent for the year just closed) and the proved and signal ability, integrity and financial eminence of its official staff. The retiring President George A. Cox and General Manager B. E. Walker, now promoted to the presidency of the Bank, are men whose annual reports have hitherto been looked upon in the financial world as ranking in importance with the budget of the Finance Minister.

The annual report will be of great interest and value to Guardian readers from its comprehensive review of commercial conditions throughout the entire Dominion and from the fact that the year just closed was the first in which this leading Canadian Bank was established in this Province. Manager J. M. Davidson and his efficient staff, so long and favorably known to the commercial community here in connection with a local bank, retain to the full in their larger sphere the confidence and popular regard which they have always held, and the Canadian Bank of Commerce steadily advances in favor with merchants and business men everywhere.

More and stronger words of commendation, some of them too flattering to be here repeated, are reaching The Guardian every day for its articles and attitude on our relations with Canada.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Complaints reach The Guardian from various quarters of prohibition prosecutors who are either trifling with their duties or playing into the hands of the violators of the law. Also that in one or more instances the convicting magistrate has accepted part payment of the fines imposed. Such malfeasance in office if continued must yet be set in its true light before the public.

The Guardian has affirmed and reaffirmed that this Province cannot go on as we have been going and has raised the clear issue of justice, equality, the fulfilment of the terms of union, or separation. Will The Patriot, will any public man, any clergyman on this Island, over his own proper signature say that without justice or equality, or the attempt on the part of Canada to fulfil the conditions of union, we can go on, or ought to go on?

The Halifax Echo does not quite approve of all The Guardian's methods, but has the fairness to say "it must be admitted that the people of the Island have much to complain of." It wants to know why we do not work untidily for the Tunnel and adds: "It is doubtful if regular communication by steamer can ever be steadily and uninterruptedly maintained in the winter months. The Island is plainly entitled to such uninterrupted communication."

Frank Collins, now in jail under conviction for a second offence, is reported to want to get out, on the claim that he will promise to stop selling and that his family need his services. It is said His Honor the Lieutenant Governor has been applied to for a pardon. One notorious offender was pardoned some months ago on a like plea, with the result that the promise was broken. We cannot believe that executive clemency will be again extended to a notorious offender in this way.

Says The Examiner: "We know that there is great unrest and dissatisfaction throughout the length and breadth of this province. The fact that secession from the union is regarded favorably 'from many quarters,' shows the public indignation and fury that has been worked up as a result of the utter failure of the Dominion Government to fulfil its promises in regard to the most important need of the Province—a need which the government is legally, morally and in honor bound to supply."

SHILOH'S FREE DISTRIBUTION.

In another column announcement is made of a free distribution of Shilo's Consumption Cure, the Lung Tonic, to be held in Charlottetown on Tuesday January 22nd.

Readers of The Guardian are doubtless aware that Shilo's Cure has been on the market for over thirty-two years, and that nothing has ever been offered that takes its place as a family remedy for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, and all diseases of the air passages.

More Shilo's Cure is being sold today than ever before, which is perhaps the best evidence of the fact that it does all that is claimed for it.

Any reader of The Guardian who may for any reason be missed in the household distribution on Tuesday may see us free bottles by addressing S. C. Wells and Co., Toronto, Canada.

THE STORY IN A NUT SHELL. DAINTY FROCKS.

Christmas and New Year's now over sewing-time will soon be here. Mothers are anxiously looking about for dainty stuff for little wash-dresses for their little girls. We have hundreds of pretty patterns in wash goods and materials for warm school dresses—the odds and ends of slow sellers. Many of these are the best short lengths from the best sellers of 1906 goods. Others are the old-timers slow sellers—some are anything but pretty others two high in price for ordinary trade—all are cut up in suitable lengths and the price cut in two. Jas Paton & Co. 1-10dtf.
