In Memoriam

MR. THOMAS CAMPBELL The community of Middleton and surrounding districts were shocked to learn on December 23rd of the passing of Thomas Campbell in his seventy-sixth year. The deceased had been in ailing health for a number of years, however, his death came quite suddenly. He was administered the last rites of the Catholic Church by Father Patrick McMahon of which he was a devout member. He was born in Middleton where he lived all his life. A man of sterling character, always courteous and obliging, ready and willing to assist the sick or needy at any time. He was a devoted husband and father and in short a friend to all. He leaves to mourn two daughters and four sons, namely, Millie (Mrs. Michael Conway), North Wilshire; Katie, (Mrs. Leonard McDonald) Port Wallis, N. S.; Hugh John, Joseph Harold, Halifax, N. S.; George Louis, Portwallis, B. C.; Peter Cecil, Charlottetown. His wife predeceased him several years ago, also four daughters and three sons. His funeral which was largely attended was held on Friday morning to St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Francis McQuaid who also conducted the service at the grave. The pallbearers were: Redverse Hicemill, Thomas Hammill, James Hicemill, Raymond Johnston, John Mulligan and Peter McIvor. May his soul rest in peace.

Letters of Sympathy. Miss Ann Wedge, Halifax, N.S. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Taylor and family, Halifax. Mr. and Mrs. John Wedge and family, Halifax. Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Gillis. Mr. and Mrs. Porter, Boston, Mass. Mrs. May Scott, Boston, Mass.

MR. JAMES RUSSELL GORDON Silently, suddenly the angel of death opened his sable wings and proved the truth of the aged long saying, "In the midst of life we are in death."

There passed away on Saturday, Dec. 20, 1947 at Cardigan, James Russell Gordon at the age of 72. His death occasioned a sad shock and brought sincere regret to his many friends and relatives. Although he had been unwell for some time it was not thought that the end was so near.

When a young man he spent a number of years in the United States. He returned and spent the rest of his life on the farm. A kind and helpful neighbor, honest and upright in his dealings with his fellow man, he was always honest and honorable. He was one of a family of eleven, of which four sisters survive.

Mrs. George Matheson, St. Peter's Road; Mrs. Ernest Moor, New Perth; Mrs. Thomas Colter, Hazel, Sask.; Miss Melvina Gordon, Cardigan.

Funeral was held at his late residence, Cardigan, service being conducted by the Rev. R. D. MacLean, Montague. Pall bearers were, Messrs. Alex. Hamilton, James Gordon, Glen MacLaren, Samuel MacPherson, William Minch n, George Moor. He was laid to rest in the Brudenell cemetery.

WINSLOE NORTH W. I. The January meeting of the North Winsloe Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Arnett Shaw Jan. 13 with the president Presiding. The meeting opened by singing "O Canada" and repeating creed in unison. Roll call was answered by eleven members and two visitors and four members joined. Minutes of last meeting were read, approved and signed. The Secy. reported the donation sent to T. B. League and a receipt was received for same. Correspondence was presented and discussed. Sick committee reported that fruit and gift had been sent. Mrs. Nelson Stevenson thanked the members for gift and fruit. School committee reported that shovel had been purchased, but tumbler and scissors needed. Bills for same were presented and paid. The yarn and material received from Red Cross were distributed among the members. A contest was supplied by Mrs. Floyd Houston and won by Mrs. John Carter and Mrs. Wallace Smith. Next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Roberts with the programme in charge of Mrs. Ray Ford. Lunch committee Mrs. Nelson Stevenson, Mrs. Alton
