All who wish to compete will please hand their names to W. K. Rogers just as soon as possible as those in charge wish to know early if the match is going to fill. Entrance fee $2 and competition on to all.

The news was received in this city yesterday of the death in Moosejaw, Sask, on Sunday, October 18th, of Cyril J. Ryan, son of D. D. Ryan, of the S. S. Express. A telegram was received on Friday stating that he was seriously ill of typhoid fever and another came early yesterday morning stating that he was very low. The last despatch received announced that he had passed away, his brother Daily and his wife being at his bedside. The body will be brought home for interment, leaving Moosejaw today, accompanied by his brother. Deceased was only 22 years of age and was a very popular young man. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

A meeting of the Moral and Social Reform League was held in the A. M. C. A. yesterday morning. President J. K. Ross occupied the chair and spoke of the necessity of pledging the workers of both parties. A. V. Sterns and L. B. Miller were appointed a committee to secure the names of those persons. The speakers to represent the Moral and Social Reform League at the different political meetings were appointed and are as follows:—Rev. T. F. Fullerford at Afton Hall tonight; Rev. D. McLean at Bonshaw tomorrow night; Rev. H. B. Thomas at Crapaud Thursday night and Rev. G. R. White at North River on Friday night. L. W. Archibald, Rev. G. R. White and L. B. Miller, were appointed a committee to arrange for a public meeting in the interest of good citizenship to be held Sunday next at three thirty in one of the public halls. Detectives are now on the work and will do their best to put down and stop all lawlessness.

The music lovers of Charlottetown and the Province will be interested to learn that S. W. Crabbe, Manager of the Opera House is in negotiation with the Boston Opera Company with a view to an engagement for four nights, October 27-30 inclusive in this city. This company is most widely and favorably known as one of the great opera companies in America. The company numbers 52 artists and those who have heard them are most enthusiastic in their praise. It is earnestly to be hoped that this splendid company may be brought here, not as it is a very large and necessarily an expensive company, their coming will depend upon a certain assurance of support in advance. It will be remembered that George S. Starling, the director of the Boston Opera Company brought to this city some years ago The Grust of Society, which then proved so great a musical attraction. The Company has recently had most successful seasons in Halifax, St. John, Truro, Moncton and Sydney.

W. S. Stewart, City, was a passenger west yesterday.
