PULLED BREAD

Remove the crust from a new loaf. Take a fork and pull the bread into irregular pieces about a finger in length and about half an inch wide. Put them on a sheet of paper on a tin and dry off in a moderate oven with the door open. When dry to the centre, shut the door and bake till a golden brown.

In Memoriam

MR. JOHN MCQUAID

The death occurred at Souris on the morning of Sunday, May 14th, of John McQuaid in his 76th year, leaving the memory of a gentle spirit, an affectionate father and a worthy citizen.

Born in Charlottetown on September 5th, 1863, Mr. McQuaid moved to Souris while a boy where he learned his trade as a tailor. While still a young man he went to Western Canada and for upwards of twenty years, with the exception of short intermittent visits to his home, he worked as a tradesman in the city of Winnipeg. In 1911 he married the former Miss Annie Mullally who, with one son, Melvin, are left to mourn their loss. In 1921 he returned to Souris and from then until his death his life centred almost entirely around his home and family. An exemplary citizen in every way, the deceased was interested in everything which tended toward civic improvement and advancement. The largely attended funeral which was held from his late residence to St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Souris bore testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held throughout the community. Services at the Church and grave were conducted by Rev. H. Croken. The pall bearers were Messrs. Jas. Keay's (Sr.), Daniel McEachern, J. B. Matthew, H. D. MacLean and D. L. McCormack.

In Memoriam

It was with a deep feeling of sadness and regret that we learned of the death of Mrs. Bernard Callaghan, who passed peacefully away at the Provincial Sanatorium on Wednesday, May 10th, at the early age of thirty years. The deceased was formerly Catherine Hughes, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James M. Hughes of Sturgeon Parish, her father having predeceased her about seven years ago. Katie as she was familiarly known, possessed a pleasing disposition. Her gentle manner and keen sense of humor made her a great favorite with all who had the pleasure of making her acquaintance. Although in failing health for about one year, she bore her illness with great courage, and was never known to complain, and her death came as a great shock to her family and friends. She leaves to cherish her memory a sorrowing husband and three small children, Jackie age 7, Florence age 6 and Norbert age 4, also two sisters, Mrs. Arthur MacKenzie, City, Mrs. Bernard McGuigan, St. Mary's Road and seven brothers, Tommy, City, Bernard and Ray, St. Mary's Road, Stephen and James, Bear River and Patrick, Roxbury, Mass, and Joseph, Attleboro, Mass. Also her stepmother, Mrs. James Hughes, St. Mary's Road.

The funeral which was largely attended took place from her late residence 315 Grafton Street, Friday morning, May 12th, to St. Dunstans Basilica, where the Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Keefe, who also conducted the service at the grave.

The pall bearers were: B. H. Hughes, L. O. Kelly, Thomas McCabe, William Collins, Daniel Garnhum, Arthur McKenzie.

May the memory of a loving wife and mother be a beacon on life's journey, guiding them by the higher and nobler things to the great port of eternity, where we shall all know our own and be united to them forever more.

May her soul rest in peace.

It was decided to send a box of clothing in the near future to the needy in Labador and Newfoundland. Meeting closed by repeating the benediction in unison. Hymns suggested in the "Missionary Monthly" program are used at meetings.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Mrs. Bernard Callaghan, wish to express their sincere thanks to the doctor, nurses and staff of the Provincial Sanatorium, also the pastor Rev. Father Moreau and Rev. Louis Dougan, who were so kind during the illness of our late wife and mother. Also those who sent flowers, Mass Cards, Spiritual Bouquets and letters of sympathy. Also all the kind neighbors and friends who helped in any way during our recent sad bereavement.

Mr. Bernard Callaghan.
