"SUCCESSFUL TEA"—The annual Halloween tea and sale of fancy work put on by the ladies of the Summerside Presbyterian Church on Thursday was a great success. The hall and teatables were appropriately decorated in Halloween colors. 450 people patronized the tea and enjoyed the many dainties provided by the ladies. The sale of fancy work and candy helped to add to the proceeds which amounted to a tidy sum.—S.

"NARROW ESCAPE"—On Sunday evening, about eleven o'clock, Leonard E. Fitzsimmons and Hugh Bridges, returning home from Summerside, had the steering wheel of their car fall and the car turned over on the right side, smashing all the glass and dislocating parts of the engine. Mr. Fitzsimmons was practically uninjured, but Mr. Bridges suffered injury to the arm. Neither was incapacitated from working. To be rescued from their uncomfortable predicament, they had to summon from his bed Mr. William Johnson, Margate, who immediately came to the rescue. He conveyed both men to their respective homes, where they were congratulated on their fortunate escape from a more serious catastrophe.—Y.

Airman's Error Causes Wreck

PETERBORO, Ont., Oct. 29—(By the Canadian Press)—At the inquest here into the crash of a Royal Air Force cabin plane last Saturday in which Flight Lieut. Gordon Mason-Apps and Sergeant Hand lost their lives, the coroner's jury returned a verdict that the mishap was caused "by a slight error in judgment." Flight Lieut. F. J. Mawdesley, who was chief navigational officer of a R. C. A. F. detachment about

Happenings of the Week

Among the pretty bridge parties this week was that given Thursday evening by Mrs. Wm. Gillis for her guest, Mrs. Wood of Summerside.

Mrs. A. E. Ings, entertained at a small but delightful bridge of two tables Thursday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Jardine who is visiting with friends in the City and being widely entertained.

Miss Irene and Iena Horne have gone on a visit to Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wright of Quebec, who have been visiting Mr and Mrs. Walter Allison, at their home in Rothesay, left by motor for Halifax and will later visit Prince Edward Island.

An honorary doctorate of civil law has been bestowed on the Duchess of York, wife of the King's second son, by Oxford University.

On Thursday night Mrs. Harry Miller entertained very pleasantly at four tables of bridge and last evening was again hostess for a similar happy social gathering.

Adele Astaire, American dancer, confirmed in a trans-Atlantic telephone conversation with the London Evening Standard that she had become engaged to marry Lord Charles Cavendish, son of the Duke of Devonshire. They will be married in England as soon as her engagement in "The Band Wagon" finishes in New York, probably in January or February. Miss Astaire said she would abandon stage life entirely and live in Ireland. Lord Charles is the second son of the Duke of Devonshire. His chances of succeeding to the dual title are slight, as his elder brother, the Marquess of Hartington, has two sons. The family is very old and distinguished. The duke owns about 175,000 acres of land.

Mrs. LeBaron Tait was hostess at a novel entertainment on Tuesday to land here when the mishap occurred, technically described the tragic event.

He testified that Lieutenant Mason-Apps had approached the field at too great a rate of speed, overshot the centre of the landing area and then tried to lift the plane over a row of trees. It struck a tree and was wrecked.

Failure to land on the north side of the field was an error in judgment on the part of the pilot, Lieut. Mawdesley declared.

Pilot Sergeants George Gillespie and Claude Keating, who were in the wrecked plane and escaped with minor injuries, both gave it as their opinion that the pilot came down too fast in an attempted landing.
