REV. G. M. YOUNG'S FAREWELL

With his farewell sermon last evening Rev. G. M. Young severed his pastoral relations with the First Methodist Church in this city, preparatory to returning to his native Province of New Brunswick. We believe we express the feelings not only of the congregation immediately affected, but of other churches, the press and the entire community in saying that all would be glad to have him remain in our midst. It was something indeed of a venture when so young a man was sent to take pastoral charge of the largest Protestant congregation in this Province, but his four years ministry has abundantly proved that it was no mistake. His sermons have shown careful preparation, much originality of thought and spiritual insight. They have appealed alike to the high and the humble, ministering instruction, hope and comfort to old and young, to those of high intellectual capacity as well as to those of lesser mental attainments. He has filled his large church and kept it full.

It is due to Mr Young to say that he has grown while preaching in Charlottetown. He is today a greater power in the ministry and in every branch of the great uplifting work than when he came. He came to us bright with almost youthful promise, he leaves us a strong man. He has rendered good service in pastoral visitation, in the Sunday school and has done yeoman service for temperance and prohibition. He has been ready to every good word and work. Behind his work, as all have felt has been the genial kindly character of the courteous Christian gentleman. Very pleasant have been the relations with his brother ministers and with all who are working for the betterment of the community. In all he has been well seconded by Mrs. Young who as a greatly endeared herself in quiet Christian work and ways to all with whom she has been brought in contact. As they go to another field, this time in their native Province, they will be followed by the warm regard and best wishes of all who knew them here.

STUBBORN SKIN DISEASES.
Nothing is more discouraging than a case of eczema or salt rheum which refuses to heal. By using Dr. Chase's Ointment, however, you soon see that new skin is forming and the sore part is becoming smaller and smaller. The itching is entirely overcome after a few applications and you are given satisfactory evidence that a continuation of the treatment will bring a thorough cure.

July the seventh month of the year was so named by Mark Antony in honor of Julius Caesar, who was born in it. The jewel which typifies the month is the cornelian expressive of content. The water lily is the flower symbol for July.

The friendly assurances to the Summerside Tourist Association given by Mr Messervey as noted in our Summerside column this morning, will we believe be heartily echoed by the kindred Association here and by our citizens generally. As he has said the home coming will be a benefit to the entire Province. Among the "sons coming from afar" and the "homesick daughters" who will return there must be many from the eastern as well as the western part of the Island. Apart from this we believe there is a general desire here that the well-conceived and well executed scheme of our western friends shall meet with the success which it richly merits. The Guardian, it is perhaps needless to say will do all in its power to promote the success of the interesting movement which western enterprise has thus set in operation.

This is Independence Day in the United States, the anniversary of the famous declaration of one hundred and twenty-eight years ago. It is celebrated year by year with a great deal of enthusiasm and noise. Much to be regretted is the fact that the reading of the Declaration of Independence, with orations thereon which form a salient feature of the day in every town and village of the Republic, serve to keep alive false estimates of the British monarchy and people and feelings of hostility which should have long since died out. The British people, whether in their home islands or in the colonies, enjoy quite as much freedom, and quite as good a form of government as exists in the United States. We in Canada enjoy all the liberty we want and feel under no obligations to celebrate the anniversary of a freedom that has always been ours.
