A quiet wedding was solemnized in St. John's Anglican Church, Moosejaw, Sask., on Thursday, Aug. 15th, 1912, when Miss Mary Myrtle Shaw, daughter of Daniel Shaw, West Perth, P. E. I., became the wife of Roderick C. Agar, formerly of Norwich, Ont. The Rev. J. W. Johnson performed the ceremony. After the ceremony Mrs. Collins Yates of Stadacona, West served the wedding breakfast. Mr. and Mrs. Agar took the Vancouver express for Calgary, Vancouver and other points of interest. On their return they will reside in Duval, Sask.

The death of Sophia, beloved wife of George Irving, took place at Beach Point on the night of August 15th. The deceased had been an invalid for many years but bore up bravely under her infirmities and sufferings. She was a woman of a kind and affectionate nature and strong Christian character who won and held the esteem of acquaintances and neighbors. She was seventy one years old. Her funeral took place on the 18th from the Presbyterian Church, Murray Harbor South to the cemetery at Murray Harbour North. The sorrowing husband and relatives have the deep sympathy of their large circle of friends in their sore bereavement.

On Saturday afternoon, Aug. 17th, the Women's Missionary Society and Mission Band of the Cornwall Methodist Church gathered at the home of Mrs. Pope Crosby, President of the W. M. S. After the devotional and business meeting were held the company dispersed over the beautiful grounds and in croquet and other innocent amusements the time passed very pleasantly. The pastor Rev. Geo Orman, with his wife two daughters and grand children was present. A most tempting repast was laid out of doors and all present did ample justice to the good things provided and it was a happy crowd that wended its way homeward just before the rain set in.

The Women's Auxiliary Methodist Missionary Society, Cornwall, held their anniversary services in the church Aug. 22. The reports read were most encouraging. The report for the conference of N. B. and P. E. I. which met at Woodstock, N.B., recently was most effectively read by Miss Myrtle Boyle and the report of the local auxiliary by Mrs. Frank Lowther, in the absence of Miss Charlotte Howard, with clearness and enunciation. Mrs. W. W. Crosby rendered in first class manner a thrilling recitation. The choir gave some appropriate pieces in excellent style. Mrs. Frank Howard presiding at the organ. The pastor, Rev. George Orman, conducted the proceedings and delivered an address. The president of the local auxiliary is Mrs. Pope Crosby.

T. R. Butt, the popular young representative for the famous Ridgway's teas, has returned to Charlottetown from his first trip through the western part of the province. Mr. Butt is highly pleased with the success he met, in placing an order with every business house he has called on from Tignish to Hunter River. As advertised Ridgway's Teas enjoy the largest sales of any high grade teas manufactured in the world and has won scores of medals and diplomas for its superior qualities. The most famous prize captured was a Gold Medal in London, England, in 1911. Ridgway's teas are put up in sealed air tight packages, pounds and half pounds. This morning Mr. Butt goes to Souris and will cover the eastern territory this week. This is the first opportunity the trade has had to purchase these goods direct, and present indications will no doubt warrant the permanency of a representative in Prince Edward Island. Mr. Butt is being recommended by Carvell Bros salesman.
