Hunt For Open And Amateur Titles Gets Underway Today

(By The Canadian Press) RIVERSIDE GOLF CLUB, N.B., Aug. 20.—The Maritime open and the Maritime amateur golf championships go on the block here tomorrow morning and 78 amateur linksmen, somewhat overshadowed by their professional brethren, were tonight preparing to be the lowest bidder.

Though winner of the Maritime open will likely be a C.P.C.A. hand, the fun-loving boys here will be in force from three classifications to brighten up their shadowy corner. They consider their chance of winning the amateur title, if nothing else, pretty bright.

The Maritimers will play the first 36 holes tomorrow and Friday, but only the 20 lowest scores will be there in force from three classifications to brighten up their shadowy corner. They consider their chance of winning the amateur title, if nothing else, pretty bright.

Two Unearned Runs In Sixth Accounts For Winners Margin

Freddie McCabe's West End Anchors yesterday drew first blood in the City Baseball League semi-finals when they blanked Had McCleer's Legionnaires 2-0 in a nip and tuck battle that saw surprise starting hurler for the Anchors returned the winner in a brilliant pitching duel with the losers ace southpaw "Lefty" McCleer.

For the entire nine innings the two hurlers held the spotlight as McCleer struck out a total of 16 batters while granting but five safe batters. Ryan striking out ten and being fanned for seven hits but the payoff came for the Anchors in the top half of the sixth as three errors by the losers, the last one coming with the sacks crammed at every corner let in the two runs that decided the encounter.

But up to that time and after it, a total of 17 runners stood on the base paths with the brand of ball they were dishing out with the hurlers beaming down in the pitches to halt the incoming rallies and leave a total of three runners stranded on the sacks with nine of them being Legionnaires. But even after Anchors' scoring uprising, Legion still had a kick left in the last of the eighth as a single, a hit batter and an error loaded the sacks with none out. Here Ryan showed his pitching courage. He struck out "Baldy" Williams, courageous power hitter, Perry went out on a pop fly to the infield and the fire was put out as Joey LeClair grabbed Jay's third base grounder to force McCleer, tearing down from second base.

In the opening inning, both pitchers were found for a couple of hits each only to be left stranded. The two teams went out in order in the second; LeClair hit safely with two out in the third only to be left at the initial sack as Legion were again retired in order. The two teams went out in order for the Anchors in the fourth and in the bottom half of the same inning Legion threw away a scoring chance. The first hitter went out on strike, McCleer's double for his second hit of the game but was picked off first base; Williams doubled but the blow went beaming as Perry was called out on strikes.
