THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

...IT PAYS to buy in this Province

...THE MORNING DAILY Guardian can be obtained at W. A. Johnston's, Montague.

...T. GORDON IVES is Guardian agent in Montague. His office phone is 18 and residence phone 20.

...THE MORNING DAILY Guardian can be obtained at H. J. Maibon's Drugstore, Souris.

...RENOVATIONS. — Mr. A. O. Cogswell, Georgetown, is having his residence painted. The work is being done by Mr. John King.—G.

...SUBSCRIBERS should renew a week or two before the time they have paid for has expired and thus not miss an issue, as all papers are discontinued promptly on expired date.

...THE JANET A., Belle River, P. E. I., arrived in Souris on Thursday last and sailed for Charlottetown on Monday. The only thing she had in the shape of a cargo was a donkey engine from Souris breakwater.—G.

...THE DICTATOR arrived in port from Wallace, N. S., on Friday night. She had on board a cargo of stone for the "Rip-Rap" work on Souris breakwater. She was unloading her cargo on Saturday and Monday.—G.

...RENOVATIONS. — Mr. James Batchelder, Georgetown, is making extensive repairs to the exterior of his house on Water Street, completely changing the appearance. The interior is being thoroughly renovated, also. The work is being done by Mr. William Batchelder.—G.

...THE BREAKWATER—The work on Souris breakwater is progressing rapidly. A large number of men are employed and the work is well laid off by the contractor, Mr. Beazley, who certainly understands his business. The third form has been completed and will be placed in a position at the first favorable opportunity. The work on the fourth form is also well underway. There is a fifth form to construct which in all probability will not be attempted until next spring.—G.

...THE "ABANA" which has been discharging coal for the past few days attempted to sail out of Souris harbor on Saturday. A very heavy head wind was blowing and she had no ballast. After making several attempts, in which she narrowly escaped running into the breakwater, she found it was impossible to tack. After a great deal of labor and trouble she succeeded in anchoring safely at Matthew & McLean's wharf.

(From Yesterday's Evening Guardian)
...ENJOYABLE TIME—A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Miss Mary McDonald, Head of Montague, on August twenty-sixth when a number of her friends gathered together to celebrate her twentieth birthday, also to bid farewell to her brother, Mr. N. A. McDonald and Miss MacKenzie who were both leaving the following morning for Quinsey, Mass. Instrumental and vocal music was beautifully rendered by Messrs. Murdoch McLeod and Hugh MacLean, games were also part of the evening's enjoyment. Refreshments were served by the charming hostess after which the many friends departed for their homes wishing Miss MacDonald many happy returns of the day and Mr. MacDonald and Miss MacKenzie a very pleasant voyage.
