In Memoriam

NORMAN SMITH

The death occurred in Charlottetown early Sunday morning, Jan. 15, 1939, under unusually sad circumstances, of Norman Smith, youngest son of Mrs. Grace Smith, Richmond St.

Norman, who was but 19 years of age, spent most of his time in Milton with an aunt, Mrs. Blanch Moore and his aged grandmother, Mrs. McIntyre, but came frequently to his home in the city to visit his mother and the other members of his family.

Saturday evening he was at his mother's home spending several hours pleasantly and apparently in his usual good health and cheerful spirits. Though urged to remain in town all night, Norman left at a late hour presumably to return to Milton desiring to be there to attend to the usual duties of the farm.

In some unknown way he wandered onto the ice at the water front where the ice was unsafe and was drowned. His calls for help were heard but before assistance could reach him he succumbed to the icy waters of the harbor.

His body, being recovered, was brought to the home of his grief-stricken mother, where the hosts of friends who knew Norman in life, called to pay their last sad tribute of respect to the boy so lately one of their number, active and happy, now called so suddenly to his heavenly home.

The funeral services were held in Zion Presbyterian Church and was very largely attended. Rev. Carlyle Webster officiated and spoke most feelingly and consolingly to the mourners and friends present. The following hymns were sung by the congregation: "Lead Kindly Light," "Safe In The Arms of Jesus" and "Nearer My God To Thee" after which the funeral cortege proceeded to the People's Cemetery where the burial took place, Rev. Mr. Webster conducting the burial service.

Many beautiful floral tributes were received from relatives and friends commemorating their affectionate regard for Norman. Numerous letters of sympathy and remembrance cards were received by the family from relatives and friends throughout the province and abroad.

Norman is survived by his heart-broken mother Mrs. Grace Smith, a brother Douglas Aretus and two sisters, Muriel and Margaret, the latter his twin sister, his grandmother, Mrs. J. McIntyre, three aunts, Mrs. Hugh McKinnon, Mrs. Blanch Moore and Mrs. Edw. Donnolly and an uncle Alfred McIntyre of East Boston, to whom the sincere sympathy of the entire community is extended in their tragic loss. The pall bearers were Arthur LeClair, Jas. Roach, Richard Quinn, Jr., John McKinnon, Lloyd McIntyre and Kenneth Platts.

"FAIRVIEW" MAKES LAST TRIP—The Ferry "Fairview" plying between Charlottetown and Rocky Point was believed to have made her last crossing over harbor waters for the season on Thursday evening. Yesterday an attempt was made to get the ferry through the channel which has been kept open but it was found the first sub-zero weather for the season had formed ice too heavy for the wooden-walled ferry boat to break through. This year's service exceeded by exactly two weeks the record set in 1938 when the last crossing was on January 12. It fell short of the all time record for late crossing on the route, however, set by the "Fairview" in 1937 when the service was discontinued the first week in February.

FIRST SUB-ZERO WEATHER —Prince Edward Islanders had their first taste of sub-zero weather yesterday, it was learned from Mr. Warren Burns, meteorologist at the Charlottetown Experimental Station. Three degrees below zero was reached at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. The mercury started a slow upward climb from then until 3 o'clock in the afternoon when it stood at 10 degrees above zero. With sunset the temperature again went down and at 8 o'clock last night, when last official reading for the day is taken at the Experimental Station, it was 6 above zero and still going down slowly. A light wind was blowing from the west.

FOUR PASSENGERS AND MAILS CARRIED—Three passengers and 1400 pounds of mail were carried on two outward flights of a Canadian Airways plane from Upton Airport to the Magdalen Islands yesterday while one passenger and 200 pounds of mail were aboard the twin-motored Dragon on return trips. Flying conditions were good. Pilot H. S. Jones said. The Gulf of St. Lawrence between this Province and the Gulf Islands was pretty well filled with "slob" ice, the airman said on his return, but there was no heavy ice in sight. Passengers making the outward trip included a Mr. Hume and a Mr. Clark, the latter fishery inspector at Grand Entry and a Mrs. Richards, returning to her home at Gros Isle. A Mr. Arsenault enroute to Montreal was the passenger up He arrived here in time to catch the regular plane for Moncton at noon.

Mrs. Vera Michahellas and daughter, Barbara are arriving home in Charlottetown tonight from Germany.

Mr. George McLeod of Bridgewater, N. S. arrived in the city Thursday night, to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Jessie McLeod.

Ontario Police Seize Japanese Shaving Brushes

TORONTO, Jan. 24—Ontario police and health department authorities today seized more than 200 Japanese shaving brushes of the type suspected of being infected with dreaded anthrax germs. They were confiscated from the stock of an unnamed Toronto jobber and taken to the provincial laboratories for scientific examination.

The 18 dozen brushes are believed to have formed part of a shipment the jobber imported from United States distributors two years ago. Investigators now are trying to discover how many—if any—of the original shipment have reached the public.

The jobber was reported to have informed police the brushes were of inferior quality and their sale was slow. Police are investigating the belief that some of the brushes are in the hands of rural peddlars. Warning was sounded to country residents to be on their guard.

To Four Towns

OTTAWA, Jan. 24—Japanese shaving brushes possibly infected with anthrax germs have been traced to four Western Canada towns from their St. Paul, Minn., distributor, Dr. J. J. Heagerty, chief executive assistant in the health branch of the department of pensions and national health, announced today.

An intense check-up of other centres in Western Canada as well as possible distributors in Eastern Canada is being pushed by public health authorities across the country in an effort to prevent any outbreak of deadly anthrax from the shaving brush source, already responsible for one death in North Dakota.

It was believed the St. Paul agency obtained their supplies from a New York merchandising firm which imported the brushes from Japan. The New York company is being checked as to whether any of its distributors might have sold some of the brushes in Eastern Canada or elsewhere in the West.

ROADS OPEN EAST AND SOUTH —The light snow fall, resulting from squalls for two days this week and blown about by high winds apparently did not close roads to motor traffic between Charlottetown, Montague and Murray Harbor. A truck made the trip from Murray Harbor yesterday returning with a load of freight.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Jessie MacLeod was held from the residence of Mrs. John MacLeod, Upper Queen Street, yesterday morning. Service at the house was conducted by Rev. Carlyle Webster. The pall bearers were Messrs. James Coyle, Sr., J. J. Storey, Harry MacDougall, Murdock Ross, Fred Shaw and George Berrigan. Interment was in Belfast Cemetery. Rev. Wallace Wadland conducted the service at the grave

LAID TO REST—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Carragher took place from her late residence, 17 Douglas Street yesterday morning at 8:45 to the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer. The pall bearers were Messrs. Stephen Malone, Leo Malone, Frank Malone, Russell Flood and Emmett Flood. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father O'Sullivan, C. SS. R. Service at the grave was conducted by Very Rev. Father Fleming, C. SS. R.

HOME FOR BURIAL—The body of Mrs. Mary Byrne of Rumford, Maine, who died in a Portland hospital on Monday morning, arrived in Charlottetown Tuesday night and was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louise Clarkin, Peakes Road, yesterday afternoon where funeral services will be conducted and interment made in the St. Teresa's Parish cemetery Accompanying the body of Mrs. Byrne were her two sons, Robert of Boston and Anthony of Rumford, Maine.

ANNUAL L. P. U. BALL—The annual ball under the auspices of the Laborers' Protective Union was held last night at the Charlottetown Sporting Club on Grafton Street. Always looked forward to as one of the City's highlights at this time of the year the function last night again provided a great deal of enjoyment for many patrons. For the first time in a number of years the ball was not held at the Union Hall on Water Street. Change in place was made when unusually large advance sale of tickets indicated to sponsors that a larger floor space was necessary. Proceeds of the ball go into the Union's Sick Benefit Fund.

MORELL CREDIT UNION — Morell Credit Union, Ltd. held its first annual meeting on January 16th with Jerome O'Brien presiding. Mr. O'Brien in his address traced the rise of the credit union from a few study clubs organized in 1937. This year there are 14 study clubs in active operation. The success of the credit union is leading to new forms of cooperative effort in the community. The treasurer's report revealed assets of more than $2000 and a loan total during 1938 of $4500. The credit union opened for business in March 1938. W. F. Rose of Mt. Stewart, the guest speaker spoke of possibilities of a cooperative creamery in Morell and touched upon the subject of cooperative buying and selling. A full program of entertainment followed the business meeting. Daniel Sinnott, A.B. McAdam and Lenonard Ryan served on the nominating committee. Officers for 1939: Directors, Jerome O'Brien, John Cunningham, John O'Neil, Duncan McDougall, T. Anderson, A. B. McDonald, Frank Dunn; Credit committee: J. Walsh, F. McCarthy, W. Byrne, W. C. Connolly, A. B. McAdam; Supervisory, W. L. McGuire, J. Donovan, P. Sinnott.

PLAN CELEBRATION—Preliminary arrangements for the proposed celebration here this summer of the 75th anniversary of the first meeting of the Fathers of Confederation in Charlottetown were discussed yesterday afternoon at a meeting of a general committee headed by Premier, the Hon. T. A. Campbell. No definite arrangements were made, Premier Campbell said last night. Subcommittee chairmen were appointed and would meet with the general committee next Thursday, Composing the general committee, named by Premier Campbell yesterday morning include the Premier, who is chairman, Hon. Mark R. McGuigan, Minister of Health and Education, Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault, Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, Russell C. Chandler, His Honour Judge H. L. Palmer, Neil D. MacLean, Stipendiary Magistrate George J. Tweedy, K. C., William Bradley, Secretary and Lieut. Col. P. S. Fielding, Controller. Yesterday's meeting of the committee took place in historic Confederation Chamber of the Province Building where 75 years ago this summer the Fathers of Confederation first conceived the idea of a confederation of all the Provinces. The celebration is planned for mid July, it was understood.

We extend the left hand of fellowship to Hon. H. L. Palmer, and congratulate him on his appointment to the office of Provincial President. We believe that Judge Palmer will prove to be the right man in the right place.

Although it is winter at present, it is not too early to begin thinking about Camp. It often happens that we put off the subject of Camp until we find that Camp time has arrived and we are not prepared. Start NOW to give the matter some thought. I suggest that each Troop start a Camp Fund Account, details being worked out by the Scout Master and the Group Committee. Keep the OUT in Scouting.

Mr. Ralph Johnson is conducting a Scout Master's Course at Summerside for the benefit of Scouters in that vicinity A similar course was recently held in Charlottetown.

Scouts in uniform are not allowed to appear on the stages of theatres or music halls in commercial entertainment enterprises. They may take part, in uniform, in programmes put on by the church, school or institution with which their group is connected.

What event, of importance to Candian Scouts, took place in 1908?

Mr. Patrol Leader. have you a book containing the names and addresses of every Scout in your patrol? If a member of your patrol misses one or more meetings, what do you do about it?

Keep the OUT in Scouting. Plan your programmes, as far as possible, with a view to working out of doors. Scouting is an out of doors game, and camping and hiking form its high spots.

During the coming summer, and "it won't be long now," we are to have the great pleasure of seeing His Majesty King George VI. This will be the first time such an event has accured in this Province. I have no doubt that every Scout and Scouter will be "on his toes." Don't forget that His Majesty is a Scout and knows how Scouts should act and look. Let us "be prepared" to give His Majesty a real Scout's welcome.

Don't wait for an opportunity to do your daily Good Turn, make it. This applies to troops as well as to individuals.

Major J. R. Paton, President of the newly formed District Council for Queen's County, is not losing any time in starting on his new job. He has already had a conference with the Officers of the Council. Plans were laid for calling a meeting of the Council as soon as possible. Good work Major Paton.
Be prepared.

It has been noticed that, on certain rallies, troops are not equipped with staves. The Staff is a part of the Boy Scout's equipment and a Scout is not complete without it.

A word to Group Committee men. You have been selected for an important job. Give it of your best. Do NOT leave it all to the scoutmaster. He may need your help. Offer it

The Game of Scouting for Boys, by means of carefully prepared programmes, encourages the boy to become self-reliant, useful, trustworthy and helpful.

"Questions of a College Student"

This is the general theme of a series of four sermons to be delivered Sunday evenings in the Charlottetown Baptist Church—dealing with certain problems that seem to be in the mind of youth — as evidenced by the findings in a questionnaire circulated by the S. C. M. of the Prince of Wales College and the Y. M. C. A. of this city, at a student's song service during 1938.

January 29—This Matter of a Personal Religion.

February 5—The problem of what is Right and what is Wrong.

February 12—Some questions that perplex every generation.

February 19—The place of the old Church in a New World.

Students, young people, all who are interested, cordially invited to hear these sermons at

THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Youth Training Social Evening Held Last Night

Youth Training students held another enjoyable social evening last night at Prince of Wales College Hall, W. R. Shaw Minister of Agriculture presided.

W. R. Shaw welcomed the students and introduced the various numbers on the programme. The highlight of the evening's entertainment was an old time fiddlers' contest, in which the audience lustily cheered their class favorites. Ray Bernard of St. Louis, a member of the agricultural course won first prize. Prizes were also won by Pat Flood, Harold Dorkendorf and Eddie Arsenault. Other numbers on the programme: Step dance by Miss Gertrude Rice, Souris Line Road; Song by Wendell Ellis; Sing-Song led by Sgt. Major Irlam; Song, "Swiss Moonlight Lullaby" by Francis MacCormack, Ken Fraser, Miss Margaret MacLean and Miss Ferne MacKay; Step Dance, Francis MacCormack; Song, Vernon Bulger; Highland Fling, Mary Mulligan; Song, "The Old Apple Tree," Evelyn Boulter and Helen Sabene. Several orchestra selections were given during the programme.

Mr. Shaw in a brief address told of his trip to the first Youth Training Conference held in Ottawa. The work in Prince Edward Island is one of the finest projects in the Dominion, according to the opinion of many of the delegates, stated Mr. Shaw. The continuance of this project for a period of at least three years has been assured. What eventually will come out of Youth Training is hard to forsee, but its possibilities in Canada are great. "We are living in an age of opportunity" continued Mr. Shaw, "And whether one works with his hands or mind, let him make the most of his opportunities."

The entertainment features of the Youth Training Courses are in charge of the following committee: General Chairman, Roland MacDougall, Blacksmithing course, Charles Bartlett, Edward Arsenault, Gordon McLean, Agriculture, Ken Fraser, Pat Flood, Ely Crooks, Cliff Peters, Wesley McLean, Irving Nicholson, Carpentry, Wendell Ellis, Oswald Yeo, John McIntyre, Domestic Science, Mary Murphy, Kathleen Phillips, Gertrude Rice, Rita Currie, Enid Henderson and Elfie Ellis, General Secretary.

STANCHEL

The farmers of this vicinity are busily engaged in putting up their winter supply of ice.

Miss Irene Reeves, Freetown, is at present the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Buchanan.

Miss Lulu MacDonald, Baltic, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Miss Iona Dixon, Mrs. Mae Lord and Miss Lulu MacDonald spend the week end in Glen Valley.

The many friends of Mrs. Leslie MacLean are pleased to know that she is improving after her serious illness in the P. E. I. Hospital.

The sympathy of the whole community goes out to Mr. Boulter and family in their recent and sad bereavement.

The school is progressing under the skilful management of Miss

In Memoriam

MR. ALFRED J. HOLL

On January 25, 1939, at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Mr. Alfred J. Holl passed away after an illness of about two months in his 71st. year. He leaves to mourn his passing, one daughter, Queenie, of Long Island, New York, and a brother, Herbert, of this city, the last surviving member of the family. Three brothers and two sisters predeceased him.

Since the death of his beloved wife, formerly Ann (Doll) Godkin, his health began to fail. Her death occurred last April after a long and painful illness, which she bore with great courage and patience.

Mr. Holl was the fourth son of the late Henry A. Holl and Frances Day of Kenwith, Milton, where he was born. When he was nine years of age the family moved to Charlottetown. He was a grandson of the late Hon. John Myrie Holl, second Premier of Prince Edward Island. He with his family came to the Province from Bideford, Devonshire, in 1836, taking up his residence at Kenwith, Milton, during which time he was active in Provincial Government affairs. He later returned to England leaving one son Henry, father of the deceased on his estate at Milton.

Mr. Holl was a veteran of the South African War and was known throughout the Province as a keen sportsman and a lover of the outdoors.

His funeral was held on Dec. 26th from his brother's home at 85 Upper Prince St. The services at the home and People's Cemetery were conducted by Dr. H. D. Raymond, rector of St. Paul's Anglican Church.

The pall bearers were Messrs. H. H. Shaw, Hon. B. W. LePage, Messrs G. F. Hutcheson, R. P. Forsythe, Lloyd Wonnacott, and Parker Moore.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the late Mr Holl's relatives and friends.
