OTTAWA, May 15—Continued improvement was noted in the condition of Hon.
W. D. Herridge, Canadian Minister to the United States over the weekend. He is recovering from an operation for appendicitis performed the cause of some concern.

PRIME MINISTER
of their abilities the training they had acquired, in the service of their country.
"We are passing through a period of great stress," the Prime Minister said. "Many of the yardsticks of material values have been discarded. True, there is much confusion but the difficulties, the trials, even poverty, have been ennobled by the determination of our people to see through the darkness, the gleaming light of hope."
Refers to Conferences
"I have recently attended a meeting in Washington of representatives of other countries," Mr.
Bennett continued, "with a view to making some appraisal of the world's monetary and economic problems. We believe that the world conference about to be convened in London will agree on adjustments which will correct the great anomalies in our social and economic structure which find men hungry in the midst of plenty, and idle when there is work to be done.
"It is a mistake, however, to believe the economic millenium can come by any trick of economic adjustment. The minds of those who are trained should be dedicated in faithful service to the uplifting and improvement of their fellows who are less fortunate. I do not believe we can safely rely even on our own capacities to make these adjustments. I repeat that the mind is the instrument by which the whole physical universe is appraised. It stands behind all physical manifestations, but it suffers its greatest delusion when it attempts to regard itself as its own master and

"The prettiest rag rugs
I ever saw"
"A wealthy lady from the City of Quebec who was visiting here happened to see the rag rugs I had just finished," writes a Three Rivers woman. "She said she had never seen such artistic ones and asked if I bought new materials to get such beautiful color effects. When I told her I had dyed my old scraps with Diamond Dyes, she simply couldn't believe it. Besides being beautiful colors, they are fast and washable." In the popular art of rag making women prove again the real value of Diamond Dyes for permanent dark colors by boiling. No other dyes make old materials look so new and rich in color. For light dainty shades without boiling for lingerie, summer blouses and dresses, use the wonderful new Diamond Tints. All drug stores have both Diamond Dyes and Diamond Tints.

preciated organ recital was given in the Central Christian Church Sunday evening at 8.30 by Mrs.
V. L. Dingwell, organist of the church.
The recital which was sponsored by the Central Christian choir was attended by a large number of music lovers. Several vocal and instrumental selections were given in addition to the organ numbers.
Following was the program:

FRENCH VIEW
The whole German question will be discussed by the French Cabinet tomorrow. Later Mr. Davis will confer with Premier Daladier and then he will go to Geneva where he will publicly express the views of the United States—an expression which will depend on Chancellor Hitler's Reichstag announcement.
British, French and American diplomatic channels are counseling moderation to the Hitler Government.
The French Government, a spokesman said, feels that Germany is determined to rearm and is distrustful of Chancellor Hitler unless soft words are followed by peaceful acts.
A spokesman at the United States Embassy asserted that diplomatic officials of the United Kingdom, France and the United States are endeavoring to make it possible that "a skillful bridge may be constructed from the Isle of Elba, where Hitler has placed himself, back to the mainland." He said emphatically that Mr.
Davis and the French Foreign Minister in their conference today did not touch on the subject of sanctions which might be invoked to coerce Germany.
Although French concern about the Hitler message to be delivered to the Reichstag remained unabated, a government spokesman said that France "does not expect Hitler to declare openly that the Treaty of Versailles is another scrap of paper."
French sources explained that, instead, they believed Germany intends to "rearm quietly" and to announce only that France's failure to disarm has violated the treaty, thereby making Germany a free agent.
Already the Germans have started their quiet rearming, a French spokesman said, by building tanks, big guns and military aeroplanes in their factories. (Such weapons of offense are forbidden the Berlin Government by the Treaty of Versailles.)

GOAT HAS QUADRUPLETS ABLENE, Tex., May 15.—Here's something new in the goat raising industry.
A milk goat belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Leverett, of Abilene, has given birth to quadruplets. The four kids constitute the goat's first family.
Although twins are occasionally born to goats, the arrival of the quartet was something of a sensation among goat raisers here.

TOURIST TRAFFIC
THIS YEAR
(Special to The Guardian) MONCTON, N. B., May 15—We expect that we will have a greater number of tourists visiting P. E. I., this season than formerly, a large number of inquiries already having been received at Tourist Headquarters in Charlottetown. P. E. I., stated Judge A. E. Arsenault, of the Supreme Court of P. E. I. and who is chairman of the P. E. I.
Tourist Association, when passing through Moncton this afternoon on the Ocean Limited of the Canadian National Railways enroute from Charlottetown to Quebec City, where he will deliver an address before the Junior Bar of that city on Thursday.
Judge Arsenault, who is an Aca-dian and a native of P. E. Island, has always taken a great interest in the tourist development of his native province and is a former president of the Associated Tourist and Publicity Bureau, of Canada, which is a body representing the tourist associations of all Canada.
"Prince Edward Island," Judge Arsenault continued, "has much to offer the tourists, beautiful scenery; the finest of salt water bathing there being many excellent beaches located all along the shoreline, good fishing, golf and all types of accommodation from the deluxe Canadian National Hotel in Charlottetown all the way down to farm homes.
Whatever the accommodation desired it will be found to be among the best of its kind. The Island province, known as the Garden of the Gulf is noted for its pastoral scenery and the attractions the Province has to offer tourists draw many from far and near. Among the province's historical associations is the Legislative Building in Charlottetown where the famous meeting of 1864 was held out of which arose the confederation of Canada three years later. The public library in Charlottetown contains many splendid works of one of Canada's noted artists, Robert Harris, who painted the famous pictures "The Fathers of Confederation."
His brushes and honors he achieved form a unique collection all on display along with his works.
The original sketch from which the famous painting was made hangs on the wall and it afforded the material for a reproduction of the painting when the original was destroyed in the fire which consumed the parliament buildings at Ottawa during the Great War."

ANGLO-TIGNISH INSTITUTE
Anglo-Tignish Institute was held at the home of Mrs. James McInnis on April 19th. There were ten members and about twenty visitors present. The Secretary being absent, Mrs. Frank Ready read the minutes, which were moved by Miss Margaret Christopher, seconded by Mrs. James McInnis. The reports of the Sick and School Committees were then taken and new ones appointed as follows: Sick, Mrs. Joseph Shea and Mrs. Harold Shea; School, Mrs. Pat
Hogan and Miss Margaret Christopher. The roll call for next month to be answered by "pinning the tail on donkey." Mrs. Joseph Shea kindly invited the members to her home for the May meeting.
After the business of the meeting, all joined in playing whist or forty-five. The whist prizes were won by Mr. Frank Ready and Mrs. Harold
Shea; Consolation, by Mrs. Thomas McInnis, and Master Frank Hogan.
Refreshments were then served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Clara McInnis, during which all were entertained by splendid radio music. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

HE SINGS HIS SONGS
IN SEVEN LANGUAGES
PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., May 15.
—Entertainer, interpreter and religious adviser of 1,200 men, Ensign W.
Hranic of the Salvation Army is perhaps the most versatile man in the Prince Albert National Park relief camps. He conducts at least one meeting a day, some of them religious, others solely for entertainment purposes.
Ensign Hranic reads, writes and speaks English, German, Ukrainian,
Polish, Rumanian, French and Czechoslovakian and is the official

This Year

(Special to The Guardian)
MONCTON, N. B., May 15—We
number of tourists visiting P. E. I.,
quarters in Charlottetown. P. E. I.,
stated Judge A. E. Arsenault, of
who is chairman of the P. E. I.
through Moncton this afternoon on
National Railways enroute from
where he will deliver an address
before the Junior Bar of that city
on Thursday.
Judge Arsenault, who is an Aca-
dian and a native of P. E. Island,
president of the Associated Tourist
tourist associations of all Canada.
offer the tourists, beautiful scen-
of accommodation from the de-
farm homes.
desired it will be found to be
pastoral scenery and the attrac-
works of one of Canada's noted artists, Robert Harris, who painted
the famous pictures "The Fathers
of Confederation."
achieved form a unique collection
all on display along with his works.
sumed the parliament buildings at

Anglo-Tignish Institute was held
at the home of Mrs. James McInnis
on April 19th. There were ten members and about twenty visitors present. The Secretary being absent,
Mrs. Frank Ready read the minutes,
which were moved by Miss Margaret
and School Committees were then
follows: Sick, Mrs. Joseph Shea and
Mrs. Harold Shea; School, Mrs. Pat
Hogan and Miss Margaret Christopher. The roll call for next month
home for the May meeting.
After the business of the meeting,
five. The whist prizes were won by
Mr. Frank Ready and Mrs. Harold
Shea; Consolation, by Mrs. Thomas
McInnis, and Master Frank Hogan.
Refreshments were then served by
ter, Miss Clara McInnis, during
National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., May 15.
—Entertainer, interpreter and religious adviser of 1,200 men, Ensign W.
Hranic of the Salvation Army is
perhaps the most versatile man in
the Prince Albert National Park re-
meeting a day, some of them religious, others solely for entertainment
purposes.
Ensign Hranic reads, writes and
speaks English, German, Ukrainian,
letter-writer of the men in the ten camps. When entertainment is required he sings in these languages

industry.
A milk goat belonging to Mr. and
Mrs. Ray Leverett, of Abilene, has
ily.
Although twins are occasionally
tion among goat raisers here.

their country.
"We are passing through a per-

ister said. "Many of the yardsticks
of material values have been discarded. True, there is much con-
people to see through the darkness,
the gleaming light of hope."
"I have recently attended a meeting in Washington of representatives of other countries," Mr.

ments. I repeat that the mind is

HOLY YEAR PASTORAL

Conditions For Plenary Jubilee Indulgence Outlined By His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan.
The Holy Year Pastoral of His Excellency Right Rev. Jos. A. O'- Sullivan, D.D., Bishop of Charlot-tewtown was read in all the Catholic Churches of the diocese on Sunday.
In St. Dunstan's Basilica the pastoral was read at all Masses.
After explaining the blessings and indulgences extended by the Sovereign Pontiff of this Extraordinary Holy Year, commemorating the 19th Centenary of the Redemption a list of classes was given of those who, unable to visit Rome, could gain the indulgence here with the conditions, among which are:
(a) In the City of Charlottetown three visits must be made to the Basilica together with three visits to Holy Redeemer Church.
(b) In all other parts of the diocese, four visits to any parish church as long as the Blessed Sacrament is present.
His Excellency concludes the pas-
