In Memoriam

MISS HANNAH B. MacLEOD The death occurred in the City Hospital, Boston, Mass. on July 1st of Miss Hannah B. MacLeod, formerly of Melville, Lot 60, P. E. I. Though not in robust health for some time her sudden death came as a great shock to her family and many friends on Prince Edward Island and especially in Wood Islands Presbyterian Church where she was a faithful member for many years previous to her residing in Boston. There are left to mourn the loss of a loving sister the following: Effie A. MacLeod, Point Prim; Flora, Mrs. Dan MacKinnon, New York; Janie MacKinnon, Plymouth, Mass.; Daniel Everett, Mass.; William D. Charnsey, Alberta and M. Campbell on the old homestead in Melville. The remains were accompanied home by her sister Mrs. Morrison and Mr. Morrison and the funeral was held on July 5th from Belfast Presbyterian Church and was largely attended. Service was conducted by Rev. B. H. Staver, assisted by Rev. W. S. Woodland. The pallbearers were four cousins of the deceased: Messrs. William D. MacDonald, Hector M. MacDonald, Murdoch C. MacPhee, R. Cameron MacPhee, also Alex. K. MacKenzie and Hector Gillis. Interment was in Belfast Cemetery. (Patriot Please Copy)
