In Memoriam

MR. JOHN G. TOWNSEND

The death of Mr. John G. Townsend occurred at his home in Kensington on Saturday evening, April 24th, 1948, after an illness of eleven weeks.

He had always enjoyed good health previous to his last illness. He was born at New Annan, the son of James Townsend and his wife, Eliza Walker.

He was a zealous and faithful member of Kensington Presbyterian Church, from which the funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon, April 27th.

The pallbearers were Jarvis Dalziel, Alexander Hiltz, James T. Profit and his three cousins, David L. Walker, William J. and John H. Walker.

Burial was in the family plot in Kensington Cemetery.

Mrs. J. G. Townsend wishes to publicly thank all friends and neighbours for their many acts of kindness during Mr. Townsend's illness and at the time of his death; also those who sent such beautiful expressions of sympathy.
