School picnics seem to be in order this year as several of the neighbouring schools held their closing in that way. On Wednesday afternoon, teacher, pupils, parents and friends of Greenmount School went to Haywood's shore and had a real enjoyable time. Races of different types were thoroughly enjoyed by the kiddies and adults alike. Supper was then spread after which the teacher, Mrs. Olive Nice, gave out prizes, certificates and grading cards to the different pupils after the singing of 'She's a Jolly Good Fellow' brought a real afternoon of fun and enjoyment to a close.

On Thursday evening July 1, ministers and members of Greenmount Christian Church gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rayner for a farewell party in honor of Mrs. Roscoe Nice, who with her two children, Rebecca and Billy, leave in the near future to take up residence near Charlottetown where Mr. Nice is employed. After a hymn sing, Mr. Leslie Jones, minister, explained the purpose of the gathering and told how Mrs. Nice will be missed, for she has been the means of keeping the Young Peoples going while we were without a minister and by her help in all Church work. A well filled purse was then presented to her by Mrs. Wallace Rayner to which Mrs. Nice thanked all for their kindness. Lunch was then served by the hostess assisted by several ladies present. A most enjoyable evening was then brought to a close with prayer by Mr. Jones followed by singing 'Blest Be The Tie That Binds'. Mrs. Nice was formerly Olive Rayner, daughter of Mrs. A.H. Rayner. - R.

Funeral Parlors Are Dedicated - At a beautiful and impressive service held yesterday afternoon, the Bowness Funeral Parlors, Central Street, Summerside were dedicated in the presence of a large number of citizens. His Worship Mayor J.F. Arnett addressed those congregated and said that it was 'a sacred and unique occasion when on this beautiful Sabbath we are gathered together for the purpose of dedicating this home and setting it apart for its appointed purpose.' Mayor Arnett expressed the earnest desire that the home would henceforth be a home of prayer, one of hope and comfort for all those who met there to pay their last respects to their departed ones.

The services were opened by the singing of the hymn 'O God Our Help In Ages Past' followed by the reading of psalm number 45 by Rev. William Bilson. The hymn 'Blest Be The Tie That Binds' was then sung. A beautifully rendered prayer by Rev. G. K. Sullivan was followed by a dedication quartette, Messrs. Arch Sharp, J. P. McInnis, Allison McLean and Alan Wedlock. Mr. Alex McInnis was the accompanist for the quartette. A dedication prayer said in unison led by Rev. E. J. Barr who also gave the benediction brought the impressive service to a close.

wishing Mr. and Mrs. Curtis many years of wedded happiness. Mrs. J. Harrison MacFarlane and son, Douglas, Fernwood, were recent visitors to Moncton, N.B. where they attended the funeral of Mrs. MacFarlane's aunt, Mrs. John C. Cook. Mrs. Cook had lived most of her life in Moncton, N.B., but in the early spring of this year, she came to Charlottetown to live with Mrs. Frank Johnson. Recently she had the misfortune of falling and fracturing her hip and was taken to the P. E. I. Hospital where she passed away on June 28th. At the advanced age of 94 years, her remains were accompanied to Moncton by Mrs. Johnson. The funeral service, which was held at Tuttle's Funeral Home, was conducted by Rev. George P. Forsey. Interment in Elwood Cemetery. Her husband predeceased her twenty-four years ago. Present at the funeral were her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson, Montreal, Quebec.

Holman's Big Sale Sets New Records

On Saturday evening the annual three-day Holman's anniversary sale concluded with a speech of appreciation to the public and the staff over the public address system in the Summerside store by Mr. J. Leroy Holman. The sale had astonished everyone by the immediacy of the response and many store records were broken. Clerks who have been with the firm many years state that they never, in their experience, saw anything like the crowd of people that thronged the store on Thursday morning. On that day, the first of the sale, a new sales record for one day was set up. There were many feature attractions and one of them was the giving of coupons to customers for every dollar's worth of purchases made. These coupons bore numbers and prizes will be given to the lucky winners that will be announced tomorrow in this paper. While it is safe to say that not all customers would ask for their coupons yet over $5,000 coupons were given out in the two stores (Summerside and Charlottetown) in the three days. To further celebrate the 91st birthday of the firm a staff picnic for the staff of both stores will be held this coming Wednesday at Cavendish.
