The latest news first of all.

James Smith, City, left last night on a trip to Nova Scotia.

Frederick Conroy, City, left last night for the mainland.

Finder of English Collie dog should look up classified column.

W. F. Tidmarsh, City, left last night on a trip to the mainland.

Everyone should follow the crew and skate at the big Arena tonight.

Perfect ice, sweet music, congenial company, all to be had by skating in the big Arena tonight.

James Paton has received a cable stating that his daughter, Miss Belle, had arrived in Liverpool, all safe.

Miss E. Livingstone, City, was a passenger by the mail special to Georgetown last night en route to Boston.

Any girl desiring to learn ad and news setting should apply at this office at once. A good chance for the right girl.

Melbourne Laird, Kensington, and Turner Glydon, Margate, left this City last night to attend the Truro Agricultural College.

Mrs. W. K. Rogers and family returned on Saturday morning from visiting her parents, Neil and Mrs. Sinclair, Summerside.

W. H. Davison, left last night on return to Ontario. He came home recently to attend the funeral of his father the late J. M. Davison.

Among the soloists taking part in the entertainment at St. Peter's Schoolroom, Tuesday next, will be Messrs. Clarkon, Mitchell and Bremner. The program will appear in tomorrow's issue.

Dr. J. H. Ayers addressed the Boys meeting in the Y. M. C. A. yesterday on New Years Resolutions. There were a number present all of whom enjoyed the Doctors remarks very much.

The Guardian should have stated Saturday that the marriage of Miss Rose to Mr. Wheatley and the Charlottetown Hospital Concert reports were set in type Wednesday night and would have appeared Thursday had not an accident occurred in the mechanical department.

Miss Katie Wilson, teacher of Nine Mile Creek School, was agreeably surprised on New Year's evening when she was presented with ten dollars by her pupils as a token of respect and esteem. Such an act goes far to prove the friendship and harmony existing between teacher and pupils and helps to brighten the New Year.

The following registered at the Queen Hotel, City, on Saturday last: W. F. McGibbon, Toronto, Fred B. Armour and Miss Jessa Armour, Alton; Alex. Martin, Valleyfield; Miss Mary Robertson, Red Point; W. E. Edwards, North Wilshire; Cyrus Pointer, Henry Gallant and John C. Arsenault of Mt. Carmel and Miss M.

The Xmas music repeated last evening in the First Methodist Church was very much appreciated. The choir deserves great credit for their rendering of the anthems. Miss Bremner's solo held the congregation almost breathless. The beautiful words of the solo were enlivened by her rendition.

Benjamin Carter's, Killbuck, was the scene of a very auspicious event on the evening of the first inst, when the marriage of Miss May, the Lavinia Richards Carter, young sister of the late John T. Richards of this City, a young lady highly esteemed in the circle of her acquaintances, to J. Wendell McMillan, an enterprising and intelligent young man was solemnized in the presence of many friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. Harrison, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, City. The bride looked handsome in a suit of pearl grey silk with trimmings to match. The bridesmaids were Miss Millicent Carter, daughter of Isaac Carter, manager of the firm of Carter & Co., Ltd., and Miss Hazel Carter, daughter of James Carter of Prowse Bros, Ltd. The former was prettily attired in a gown of Point d'esplay over cream silk, and the latter in cream taffeta. G. M. Richards, brother of the bride supported the groom. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Emma Gay, City. After hearty felicitations to the newly married couple the party sat down to a supper, which would please the most fastidious. The evening passed pleasantly but all too swiftly for rarely does an occasion of the kind afford such enjoyment. The guests returned to their homes delighted and satisfied that they had been entertained in a manner which reflects much credit on Mr. and Mrs. Carter. The bride and groom were the recipients of many pretty and useful presents which bore testimony of the high esteem in which they are held by their many friends. Showered with congratulations the happy couple drove to their home, Woodburn, Cove Head, where they will in future reside. The many friends and acquaintances, near and abroad join in wishing them a long and happy united life.

Snaps—We have some nice packages of chocolates and perfumes still on hand, which will be cleared out regardless of cost. We never carry this stock over if low prices will sell it. Take advantage of this—A. W. Reddin Pharm.B., Sunnyside.
