CHARLOTTETOWN and QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.

Rev. Canon Simpson enters upon the 25th year of his work at St. Peter's Church tomorrow.

All interested in The Guardian contest should read the Tour Article and standing of candidates on page 9.

There will be Holy Communion at the close of the evening service in St. Paul's Church tomorrow. Rev. T. W. Murphy will conduct the services.

Any person who is open for a position as ad. writer with a large retail establishment in this Province should apply at The Guardian office at once.

The Arena Bowling Alleys are being taxed to their utmost capacity and everybody is well pleased with these splendid alleys and bright, clean hall.

Rev. J. F. Floyd's second anniversary will be celebrated in the Central Christian Church tomorrow. In the evening the pastor will preach an appropriate sermon, and there will be special singing at both services.

Two prettily dressed windows and a handsome interior show unmistakable evidence that the McKinnon Drug Co., are alive to the possibilities of the Xmas season. The display of Chocolates is very attractive and profuse and an equally good variety of perfumes are on show. All the stock of this firm is entirely new this being their first Xmas season in business.

The Big Arena promises this year more than ever to be the centre of the winter's amusements. On Thursday evening the rink opened with an absolutely perfect sheet of ice and over two hundred and fifty skaters enjoyed a delightful skate to the beautiful strains of the 4th Regiment Band. In the annex the bowling alleys were kept busy all evening and many large scores were put on. The alleys are open every day from 2 o'clock until 11 o'clock.

During the last few days the inter-class hockey captains have been elected at Mt. Allison University, Sackville, the Freshmen captain is Charles Thompson, of Montague. "Spuds" seem to be taking a leading part in sports in Freshman class. As every captain of teams this year were from Prince Edward Island. Carl Milford, Charlottetown, was captain of the football and has been elected captain of basketball team, while Charlie Thompson is captain of hockey. The class prospects were never brighter.

An exchange says: "Judging from the reports from the different curling clubs in the Maritime Provinces, the 'Roarin' Game' is experiencing a boom this winter. Not only are many old curlers who dropped out of the game for a year or two, returning, but there are many new members taking up the popular and recreative pastime. It will be remembered that last year an attempt was made in this city to revive curling among its numerous adherents here. Arrangements were made for an open air rink east of the Railway Wharf, and a man was engaged to look after the rink and the club property, but the weather man showed every evidence of hostility to the scheme and developments were nil. Because of a failure last year the idea should not be dropped in 1910-11. There are some good curlers here and matches with mainland towns could be easily arranged. But, if anything is to be done, now is the time to organize."

It was a bright program that greeted the visitors to Keith and Proctor's theatre, New York, last week. There was lots of fun from beginning to end while each and every performer belonged to the highest class vaudeville procurable. The comedy acrobats Kremka Brothers produced a laugh at every turn, while Sharkey, Geisler and Lewis have some of the newest and brightest songs and specialties produced--this season. James F. Kelly and Anna M. Kent also offered something vivacious in the dancing and singing act. An offering that was a revelation to theatre goers was the premier piano-accompanist Deino, a regular musical sensation. The short comedy was carefully chosen in Raymond and Caverly in their witty sketch, "A Booming Town." Gertrude Hoffman entertained charmingly in her rendition of Gertrude Hoffman's Revue and acted and sang in what was certainly one of the most brilliant acts of the season. The motion pictures were most attractive and with the orchestral selections finished the program.

Are we right? You are thinking about your Xmas shopping--wondering what gifts to select, and perhaps wishing for a little assistance. We want to help you, and cordially invite you to our store, where we are certain we can be of real service to you. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

Mrs. Wallace Leitch, City, left yesterday morning for Boston.

Everyone should see the great Indian picture at the Bijou Theatre tonight. There will also be two comic pictures and Miss Vivian King will sing the illustrated song.

Rev. T. F. Fullerton will take both services in St. James' Church tomorrow. In the morning he will deliver a discourse on "Christ teaching to the spirits in prison" and in the evening his subject will be "The moral influence of women."

The cold weather has made the demand for smelts and eels on the American market steady at the present time, while the prices are high. Provincial shippers should send their orders at once to I. Goodman Co., Fulton Fish Market, New York, who will give their personal attention to all consignments and make prompt daily returns.

The meeting of the Fenian Raid Veterans held in the Board of Trade rooms Tuesday night, was large and representative. The main discussion was as to the action to be taken in proposed union of veterans in Quebec, Ontario, P. E. I., New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. It is expected that action will be taken to place the matter before the Legislature at their next session.--Halifax Chronicle.

The ladies of the W. A. of St. John's Episcopal Church, Crapaud, held their annual bazaar or fancy sale in the Crapaud Hall on Wednesday afternoon last. In the evening a fine program was carried out followed by a sale of baskets. The hall money was realized. One of the features of the evening was the auctioning of an autograph quilt containing four hundred and sixty names, which had been made by the W. A. during the summer. Altogether a very pleasant evening was spent.

Sam Anderson, the well known wrestler who was in this city recently, is being kept pretty busy around Attleboro, Mass., his headquarters. Recently he accepted a challenge from one Joe Strang, an English mat artist, and won from him in two straight falls. The match lasted one hour. Speaking of the event, Strang told a reporter: "Anderson is the greatest general in the game today. It isn't often that I go up against a world's champion and considering his knowledge of the game it isn't much of a reflection on me to lose. He is really a wonder, don'tcher know." Writing from Attleboro, Anderson says he is ready at any time to meet Dan McDonald again if the latter thinks he is a better man. McDonald, however, must either make 158 pounds middleweight limit or both will be catch-weight.
