Crowd Of 12,000 Witness Old Home Week Night Program

A crowd estimated in the vicinity of 12,000 witnessed the night racing program and vaudeville show staged in connection with the Old Home Week program last night and again, as was the case in the afternoon when an estimated 10,000 were on hand, keen racing was forthcoming in all nine heats as Dick Budlong, Lee's Nightmare and Molly Bars were returned the winners.

Biggest pay on the pari-mutuel in a good many years occurred when Dick Budlong captured the second heat of the DeBlols Bros. Pace, second division, a $2.00 ticket paying the holders $155.70. In the last heat of the night the long shot pickers also reaped a harvest as Buster C. returned $67.20 for every two dollars wagered.

DeBlols Bros. 2:25 Pace (1st Div.)

First Heat: The tremendous crowd saw a great finish as Prodigal Vic and Billy P. C. Parker staged a duel of their own, the latter corraling the leader just as the wire in a driving finish with the remainder of the field well-strung out.

Second Heat: Dick Budlong furnished an upset when he took the lead at the three quarters pole from Prodigal Vic to win the heat well within himself. Strung out on the backstretch the first trip, the field was bunched as they hit the half and in the rest of the mile positions changed rapidly, with Lee's Nightmare moving up to cop second from a tightly packed field. The winner paid $155.70 for a two-dollar ticket.

Third Heat: Dick Budlong completed his upset win as he came fast in the last quarter to head the field to the wire, with Bee Budlong moving up from fifth to be contending horse.

Perfection Ice Cream 2:19 Pace (2nd Division)

First Heat: Lee's Nightmare, snapping the rail on the first turn led all the way but the fans saw a great race in every part of the mile with the winner staving off the challenge of Single Streak and pacing away in the stretch to win by a length. The remainder of the field was closely bunched a couple of lengths back.

Second Heat: Pacing beautifully, the Nightmare made every post a winning one. On the second trip around they all went to drives with Single Streak moving up fast but not fast enough to catch the flying leader.

Third Heat: Lee's Nightmare with a terrific burst of speed from the seven eighths pole beat out Single Streak to make her summary read 1-1-1. The field-

Babe Ruth Of Baseball Fame Critically Ill

By Joe Hall
NEW YORK, Aug. 11 (AP)—Babe Ruth, baseball's home run king, lay critically ill in a hospital today.

Sick and under constant treatment for two years, Ruth took sudden turn for the worse from complications growing out of a cold.

The cold first was reported Monday. This morning the Memorial Hospital Centre for Cancer and Allied Diseases said Ruth's temperature had risen and added: "There are pulmonary complications. Condition is critical."

At 3:30 p.m. ADT the hospital said his condition was unchanged. The exact nature of the Bamdino's illness never has been divulged.

The Babe's wife, Claire; his adopted daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Sullivan; and a sister, Mrs. Wilbur Moberley, were at his bedside.

The Memorial Hospital switchboard was jammed with calls from the great slugger's well-wishers. Twenty children, their faces sad, brought a bouquet to the hospital and a nurse promised to put it in his room if possible.

Ruth, now 53, underwent a delicate neck operation at French Hospital two years ago. Since then he has divided his time between hospital rooms and his Riverside Drive apartment, always under a doctor's care.

But he was able to take a Florida vacation last winter and he took part in various activities of the Babe Ruth Foundation.

In June he appeared with his 1923 New York Yankee teammates at the silver anniversary celebration of the Yankee Stadium, "the house that Ruth built."

The big No. 3 which he wore as a Yankee was retired by the club at this ceremony.

Ruth was last seen in public on July 26 when he went briefly to the premiere of the film, "The Babe Ruth Story." He was supported on both sides as he entered the theatre and appeared too tired to manage more than a bare smile. He left when it was half over.

In the doubles, Cain and B. Logie, Toronto, eliminated Coyle and J.D. Schofield, Rotheray, 6-1, 6-2. The Quin brothers had an even easier time with I. Scott and R. Conley, Belmont, N.B., 6-0, 6-2.

Upsets Feature Great Racing Card On Second Day Of Big Meeting

Handled expertly by Joe Hennessey, Fast Train, owned by B.H. Irvine of Shediac, N.B., yesterday carried off the Free For All Trot featured event on the card of the second afternoon's Old Home Week racing program. Beaten by an eyelash by the favored Nell Kalmuck in the opening heat, the winner came back strong to take the next heat and have winning the final mile in another stretch battle with the Kalmuck mare, after the latter had dropped back to fifth in the second mile due to a disastrous break.

The above event held the spotlight but in the other three classes the crowd that packed the stands and overflowed into the centrefield saw sensational duels of speed all afternoon with photo finishes being needed to decide the winners in at least half a dozen events.

Upsets again featured the program, with the favorites taking a licking in the three events that were finished. One event, the DeBlols Bros. 2:25 Pace will be completed this afternoon with Professor Clegg and Quick Lick meeting in an extra heat to develop into a three-horse battle with Lady Worthy 2nd, second and Miss Comandante third. The remaining four were bunched closely a couple of lengths back. Lady Worthy 2nd, however, was placed seventh when judges declared her the cause of the accident at the first turn.

Third Heat: Starting in last position, Shy Ann gave a great display of speed in pacing around the field to complete her straight heat victory. There were five horses all bunched halfway down the stretch but Shy Ann had a little too much foot for them, winning by a length with the next four horses finishing closely bunched together.

Corney Bros. 2:27 Pace

First Heat: The overflow crowd were brought to their feet as three horses finished practically abreast with Shy Ann 2nd, second choice among the bettors, having a nose to the good over the favored Iris Abbe, with Donna Clegg just a stride behind in third place. The remainder of the nine-horse field were pretty well strung out.

Second Heat: With a spill occurring on the first turn as the field fought for the rail, Lady Worthy 2nd went to the front. At the half Shy Ann had taken over the lead and from there on made it a parade as the race developed into a three-horse battle with Lady Worthy 2nd, second and Miss Comandante third. The remaining four were bunched closely a couple of lengths back. Lady Worthy 2nd, however, was placed seventh when judges declared her the cause of the accident at the first turn.

It's Just Like Old Times For American Air Crews in England

These look like scenes from World War II, but they're really Cold War I pictures. American airmen are back in England, and the English are once again welcoming the GIs to the British Isles. Some of the B-29's, which flew over on a "training flight", are based at Scampton Airport, near Lincoln. The town is going all out for the Americans—dances, teas, as well as such unorganized activities as the local pub. (Photos by NEA-Acme staff correspondent Max Winter).
