Ralston, Howe Return Home From Visit To Britain

Sherbrooke, Saint John Lead Drive

OTTAWA, Oct. 20—(CP)—Victory Loan national headquarters announced tonight that Sherbrooke, Que., and Saint John, N.B., are in the forefront of larger municipalities reporting progress in meeting their quotas for $750,000,000 in three weeks.

Sherbrooke had reached 23 per cent of its quota and Saint John 19 per cent.

Sydney, N.S., and Moncton, N.B., were next, each with 14 per cent, Calgary had 11 per cent and Edmonton, nine per cent.

Earlier the Third Victory Loan headquarters announced that total subscriptions at the close of the first day of the campaign, Monday were $52,614,000, almost $11,000,000 above the average subscriptions of $41,700,000 needed daily in the 18 working days of the drive if the objective is to be won.

The first day of the Second Victory Loan last February yielded $51,334,000

The response from factory workers resulted in five Ontario plants exceeding their quota within less than 24 hours after the opening of the canvass. All five sent in requisitions for plant honor certificates under the payroll savings plan.

A subscription of $3,000,000 from the Steel Company of Canada, Ltd., was received from Hamilton, Ont., and $750,000 from Beatty Bros., at Fergus, Ont.

Loan Total Is $119,650 For Two Days

Prince Edward Island is beginning to get into its "Investment for Victory" stride.

Monday's total of signed applications for Canada's Third Victory Loan which had been checked and filed at Loan Headquarters amounted to $36,500. Yesterday's total applications on the same basis ran up to $83,150. Making the total for the two days $119,650.

But this does not represent by any means all the applications that have been completed throughout the Island. As soon as one subscriber signs on the dotted line the appointed salesman goes along to another prospect and keeps at it frequently till late into the evening before taking or mailing the results of his day's work to Headquarters.

With one mail a day from most rural areas there is necessarily considerable delay between the mailing of the applications before they get to Headquarters, and after that each form must necessarily be very carefully checked and cross checked to prevent the possibility of any error in the totals before the amount is reported to Ottawa.

So that explains how the results reported in the early days do not by any means fully represent the extent of the response being made all over the Province in the loan campaign. There is every assurance of rapidly ascending totals.

Reports from all points agree that there is a more widespread interest in the present loan than ever before and the fact that the number of applications finalized in the first two days is much greater than ever before shows clearly that the selling organization is on its toes and that very many persons are going to buy a bond of the Third Victory Loan who never bought a bond before.

Also it seems to be apparent from the outset that the very attractive installment terms of the present loan will be an incentive which will enable many to participate who have heretofore been unable to even consider the purchase of a bond.

N. B. DOES WELL

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Oct. 20 —(CP)— New Brunswick's Victory Loan total for two days was announced tonight as $1,203,500. Subscriptions today amounted to $555,800. Minimum objective of the province is $12,500,000.

N. S. RETURNS INCOMPLETE

HALIFAX, Oct. 20 —(CP)—Victory Loan official for Nova Scotia tonight announced an incomplete tabulation of Monday's subscriptions showed $681,000 for the opening day. They pointed out these were not the day's full total, but only the amount reported to headquarters here.

Dieppe Units 'Rarin' To Go Again

Back In Ottawa After 23-hour Flight From A British Airport.

OTTAWA, Oct. 20 —((CP) — Every unit that fought at Dieppe is up to strength again or practically so, Defence Minister Ralston said tonight on his return from what he described as "a periodic visit" to the troops in Britain.

"And," he added, "they are all 'rarin' to get back at them."

Away Three Weeks

The six men were absent from Ottawa just under three weeks. Mr. Howe and his officials conferred with British Supply officials and heads of the Canadian Army on equipment and supply problems while Col. Ralston and his military aides went around seeing the forces and conferred with officials of the war department.

War Situation Last Night

(By Kirke L. Simpson, Associated Press War Analyst)

The British Admiralty revelation that 530 Axis submarines have been sunk or damaged by British and "some American" action since the outbreak of the war is a startling figure, although its significance is not measurable without a time breakdown to show the current rate of sinkings.

Just why it was decided to break British silence on U-boat sinkings at this time is not indicated. That information has been closely guarded on both sides of the Atlantic—and it was to the Atlantic-Mediterranean theatre the First Lord, A. V. Alexander, referred.

* * * * * *

He excluded results of Russian anti-submarine efforts and those of the French navy before the fall of France. Presumably he also excluded figures for the Pacific. Japan's U-boats do not figure in the European second-front problem except as they help pin in the Pacific American forces that otherwise could share in the submarine hunt in the Atlantic.

What Alexander stressed was that Anglo-American second-front operations in Europe must depend upon "the degree of control we exercise at sea as well as in the air." His remarks were clearly designed in part to still public clamor in Britain for a premature second-front attack, or at least to impress his hearers with the scope of the problem.

* * * * * *

That would not have required a break in official silence as to the aggregate "actual" toll taken of Axis submarines, however. Some additional reason must have dictated the announcement.

Such figures have been withheld up to now in London and Washington as a result of experience in the First Great War. The progressive demoralization among German U-boat crews in that war was a major factor in the final German home-front collapse. They saw comrades put out increasingly never to be heard of again. There was no mention of the actions in which they died or were captured in British announcements. The gnawing effect of that upon the morale of German undersea personnel led to mutiny.

* * * * * *

Whether the progressive toll of U-boats lost in action is sapping Nazi underseas personnel morale seriously is a matter of pure conjecture. There can be no question, however, that a morale collapse on that limited sector of his home front could wreck Hitler today as it did the Kaiser in 1918.

Anson And Howe Already At Sea

Commanders engaged in friendly Rivalry to be first to meet Nazi Tirpitz.

(By Alfred E. Wall, Associated Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, Oct. 21—(AP)—Two new 35,000-ton battleships, the Anson and the Howe, are at sea with the fleet, the Admiralty disclosed today, and the Anson already has been in action with her high-angle guns against German aircraft in the Arctic convoy route to Russia.

It is this route that the German battleship Tirpitz occasionally threatens by venturing from her Norwegian berth, and it was understood that the commanders of both the Anson and Howe are engaged in friendly rivalry to see which first can engage this pride of the Germany navy.

The disclosure that Britain has thus finally restored the fleet to its original pre-war strength of 15 battleships and battle cruisers with completion of the five great battleships of the King George V class came at a time when it is vital for the Allies to maintain their convoys and control the sea if they are to open a second front.

A few hours earlier A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty, mentioned both these phases when he announced that at least 530 Axis submarines—German, Italian and Japanese—have been destroyed or damaged by British and American forces since the war began.

Canadians In Crew

The commanders of the new battleships are Capt. H. R. G. Kinahan of the Anson and Capt. C. H. L. Woodhouse of the Howe. There are Canadians and Newfoundlanders among the Anson's crew.

Woodhouse already has a feather in his cap from one contact with

Laval Renews Plea For Men To Aid Nazis

By Mel Most
Associated Press Staff Writer

VICHY, Oct. 20—(AP)—Pierre Laval renewed his appeal for Frenchmen to go to work for Hitler in a radio speech tonight in which he announced an agreement for a levy upon each factory "which will be obliged to furnish a certain number of workmen."

The Vichy Chief of State said this new levy was agreed upon by his government "out of apprehension lest measures of constraint be applied to France."

(Although Laval left open the technical question of whether he would order forced labor conscription, seasoned French observers in Berne, Switzerland, considered his speech as preparation for conscription since it is not expected to yield the 150,000 volunteer workers demanded by Hitler.)

Laval told his listeners that his government is "resolved not to tolerate resistance" to his appeal that workers go Germany despite their "love of liberty and of independence."

"The government must be obeyed," he said.

"The highest interests of France demand that we undertake a policy of entente with Germany," he said. "I am directing the policy in France in such a way that France shall not be the victim of a German victory." He added that such a victory was inevitable.

Nevertheless he said at one point in his speech: "The Germans have suffered heavy losses."

Nazi Prisoners To Broadcast

LONDON, Oct. 20 —(CP)—A new international radio program on which Germans in Canadian prisoners-of-war camps can broadcast to the folks at home will be started Thursday night it was announced today.

A daily "America calling Europe" shortwave broadcast from New York announced that the prisoners' messages will be broadcast from American stations and relayed by the BBC at 11 p.m. German summer time on four wavelengths, 973, 285, 41 and 49 metres.

It advised Germans to "listen carefully" and relay the prisoners words to "anyone who might be interested."

Speaker Discusses Economic Controls

Mr. George Hougham of Toronto gives interesting Talk at Dinner Meeting.

"The war on the economic front involves issues just as vital and far-reaching in their consequences to our way of life as did the war in the more spectacular and dramatic theatres of armed conflict," declared Mr. George Hougham, Toronto, addressing a large and representative group of wholesalers, retailers, and other interested persons in The Charlottetown Hotel last night at a dinner meeting sponsored by the Charlottetown Board of Trade.

Mr. Hougham, who combines the functions of secretary of the Canadian Retail Federation and the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada, is in the Maritimes making a tour on behalf of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

President V. A. Ainsworth presided at last night's meeting.

"This war on the economic front might conceivably continue after the guns were silenced because there would be problems calling for clear thinking and intelligent leadership," Mr. Hougham added. Meanwhile it was just as necessary that business should accept the discipline involved by economic control as it was that the rank and file of an army should accept discipline in the achievement of a common objective, he asserted.

On a number of occasions within the past few years, the speaker said, he had stated to groups of

Gov't To Restrict Consumption of Alcoholic Liquor

OTTAWA, Oct. 20 —(CP)—Steps to reduce the consumption of alcoholic beverages have been agreed upon in consultations among Dominion and Provincial Government officials and are to be announced before the end of this week, The Canadian Press was told today.

While the exact extent of the planned restrictions was not known, it was believed direct control will be exercised through reduction in the hours beverage rooms and liquor stores may remain open, and indirect control through reducing the output of breweries and possibly wineries and regulating the release of spirits from bond.

Wine production has already been curtailed through reduction in the amount of sugar available to all industrial users. This may be regarded by Dominion authorities as sufficient restriction on the wine manufacturers.

It is expected the restrictive orders will be issued by the War-time Prices and Trade Board and the Liquor Control Boards of the Provinces, one informant said. These orders may subsequently be augmented as a result of any suggestions arising from study of the Temperance question by a Cabinet Committee under Maj.-Gen. L. R. LaFleche, Minister of National War Services.

The restrictions now definitely planned have in view economy of manpower as well as Temperance. Distillery employees will be automatically converted to war work Nov. 1 when these plants switch entirely to the production of industrial alcohol.

DeGaulle Says French In Revolt

LONDON, Oct. 20— (CP)—Gen. Charles De Gaulle, head of the French national committee in London, in an address broadcast tonight said the French nation is proving to the world that "our people are engaged in a revolt against the treasonable leaders of Vichy."

De Gaulle spoke from Britain little more than an hour after Pierre Laval, chief of the Vichy Government, broadcast an appeal for support of his pro-German policies.

The French people's resistance to Laval's demand that skilled workers be sent to Germany "restores France to its rightful place among nations at war with infamous Germany, insolent Italy and barbaric Japan," the General said.

In a spirited exhortation, he called for still greater resistance.

His broadcast apparently was planned as a reply to Laval.

10,000-ton Liberty Ship Is Torpedoed

TWO ENEMY PLANES DOWNED

VALETTA, Malta, Oct. 20 —(CP) —Two enemy bombers were destroyed in a series of R A F interceptions after dusk yesterday, it was announced today.

Step Up Air Drive On Axis In Africa

CAIRO, Oct. 20 —(AP)—British and American planes, in day and night aerial partnership against the Axis, have struck heavy blows ashore asea and aloft in a new stepped-up offensive, communiques from the R.A.F. and the U.S.A.F. disclosed today.

Two Axis ships were sunk and at least two others hit Sunday night and yesterday in these combined attacks in which the Allied forces brought into action the whole range of their flying fleets, including fighter-bombers and torpedo planes.

At least two enemy merchantmen were hit by heavy United States bombers in an attack on Tobruk. British torpedo planes left another sinking with hits on her stern off the Italian island of Pantellaria. Long-range British fighter-bombers left a fourth vessel, a two-masted schooner, aflame and sinking off the enemy-held Greek Isle of Crete.

Homeward bound from this attack, the same planes encountered a large formation of fighter-escorted JU-52 transport planes some of them towing gliders over the eastern Mediterranean about 25 miles southwest of Gavdos, a small island off the south coast of Crete.

One of the junkers was downed, the R.A.F. communique said.

(The Germans are known to have been using Crete as a way station for supplying the Axis army in north Africa, both by sea and air. The point where the sky-trains were met indicated that the Nazis were flying men to Egypt by plane and glider, a device they have used before to avoid the perils of sea transport.)

Says U. S. Gov't. Freezing Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 —(AP) — Dean Carl W. Ackerman of Columbia University said tonight that newspapers of the United States are being subjected to a "freezing process" by the Government and that the Justice Department's recent lawsuit against the Associated Press is simply a further move to "freeze the press into a new mold."

The head of Columbia's Graduate School of Journalism and former War Correspondent told the fourth accounting institute banquet in a prepared speech that "under the cloak of war emergency, the American way of life is being profoundly changed by law and directives" which strike directly at a free press and the Bill of Rights.

Urges That Every Hog Possible Be Marketed Soon

SASKATOON, Oct. 20 —(CP)— Hon. J.G. Taggart, chairman of the Bacon Board and Feeds Co-ordinator, said here that it is imperative that every hog be marketed as soon as possible.

Speaking at a dinner meeting of regional bacon inspection officials last night, Mr. Taggart said that shipments to Britain had been stepped up. Between 100,000 and 110,000 hogs were being marketed a week at the present time against 130,000 to 140,000 at the same time in 1941, he said.

Mr. Taggart said there are many pigs fit for marketing that are not coming in because the farmers are too busy with delayed harvesting operations. He asked that these be marketed within a week or two as more hogs are needed now than during the same period a year ago.

Southwest Pacific Outlook Better

GUELPH, Ont., Oct. 20 —(CP)— The war outlook in the southwest Pacific now is brighter than seemed possible a few months ago but Australians will not be content until they achieve ultimate victory, Sir William Glasgow, Australian High Commissioner to Canada, said in an address prepared for delivery tonight to the Women's Canadian Club.

Reviewing the general war picture, Sir William said the improvement in the last two years was due to Britain's stout-hearted defence in the aerial offensives of late 1940, the determined blockade of the continent by the Royal Navy, aid from the United States, and the blunder of Hitler in attacking Russia before he had accounted for Britain.

The inspiring resistance of the Russians had relieved the pressure on other fronts and provided a breathing space of which Canada had been quick to take advantage in expanding war industry on a firm foundation, rather than providing more hurried and limited production.

Sir William dealt in more detail with Australia's part in the war. By far the majority of troops and airmen now serving in the Commonwealth were Australians, he said. In addition the country was providing 90 per cent of the food for the American expeditionary forces in Australia. Large supplies of foodstuffs were being supplied to Great Britain.

"With regard to our confidence", he continued, "I may say that the outlook in the southwest Pacific is much brighter now than seemed possible a few months ago, and this is due not only to the help that has been received from the United States and our own industrial and military efforts but also in many respects to aid from Britain.

"But we are definitely not satisfied with our present position, nor are we likely to be, even if we know we have definitely stopped the Japanese advance. We will not be satisfied until we have driven back and decisively defeated the enemy.

"We would of course, like much more assistance both in men and material to remove the very real threat at our doorstep, but we realize that the Australian theatre of war is only part of a world theatre of war and must be treated accordingly."

To Aid Provinces In A. R. P. Activities

OTTAWA, Oct. 20—(CP)—Hon. R. J. Manion, director of civil air raid precautions, said today agreements are being entered into with the provinces which have been declared subject to air attack, under which financial assistance will be given to them by the Dominion for A .R. P. activities.

Dr. Manion said no details of the amounts involved can be announced here yet, but that the provinces affected have indicated willingness to enter into agreements by which the Dominion will bear a part of their A. R. P. expenditures.

Dr. Manion said the assistance is being worked out on a per capita basis, with the numbers of people in the areas considered liable to enemy attacks taken into account.

These areas are in the Maritime Provinces, Quebec and British Columbia.

Apart from this financial assistance, the Dominion will continue to provide A. R. P. equipment as in the past, with fire-fighting and other supplies made available as rapidly as possible in areas of greater risk, Dr. Manion said.

Following the outbreak of war with Japan, large supplies of fire-fighting equipment, loaned by the Province of Ontario, were shipped to British Columbia by federal authorities. The Dominion has also assisted by instructional work and the distribution of booklets, Dr. Manion said.

The federal assistance will not relieve provinces and municipalities of responsibility for carrying a share of the cost of A. R. P. work.
