THERE IS HOPE FOR THE ISLAND

HALIFAX, May 25.—The Halifax Chronicle says: "The inauguration of the Simplon tunnel, completed months ago, should give heart to Burke and the other enthusiasts for a tunnel under the Straits."

The tunnel is almost double the length of the proposed cut between the Cape and the view of the fact that the tunnel would be constructed through a granite formation, the estimate of ten million dollars for the work is a less sum.

There is a good deal to be said in favor of the tunnel. By the inauguration of the tunnel, which the Islander has been reluctant to accept, some of the most serious difficulties between the Island and the mainland by the Federal Government. This has certainly not been carried out, and cannot be carried out, and cannot be carried out, and cannot be carried out.

OMINOUS AND CERTAIN SIGNS OF REVOLUTION

Unless Attention is Paid to the Voice of the Russian People—The Duma Indignantly Refuse the Government's Policy—The Bureaucracy Must Choose Surrender or War—The Struggle May Be Started Today by a General Strike—Government Hesitating What to Do.

St. PETERSBURG, May 27.—(Special)—At the end of a memorable seven hours session on Saturday the Duma indignantly rejected the government's policy as presented by Premier Goremykin's speech, and with only seven dissenting voices voted lack of confidence in the ministry, practically throwing down the challenge to the bureaucracy, with a demand for the retirement of the Cabinet, and its supersession by a ministry approved by a majority of the House. The spirit of absolute revolution is in the air, and a conflict between the Crown and nation seems inevitable. While Parliament avoided an appearance of delivering an ultimatum the government have no alternative except surrender or war.

The gloomiest forebodings prevail everywhere. Despatches received from the interior indicate that the struggle may be inaugurated on Monday with a general strike when the people learn that amnesty has been refused. The scene in the Parliament when the defiant note was passed was dramatic in the extreme. The Constitutional Democratic leaders for the first time gave free rein to their passions and with flaming words orator after orator condemned the ministry and demanding a responsible government. Even Count Copeland the leader of the Conservatives deserted the government side, saying that since it had refused to redeem its promises he would vote for the censure. The ministry must either resign or dismiss the Parliament and it is hesitating which to do.

SAD DROWNING AT ST JOHN N. B.

FUTURE OF ISLE OF ST. PIERRE

St. JOHN, May 25.—According to the Paris Temps, the French President has just signed a decree abolishing the office of Governor of the Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, which in future will be under the authority of an administrator of lower rank. This step, it is stated, has been rendered possible by the solution of the Newfoundland difficulty between England and France and the consequent removal of any likelihood of diplomatic incidents. It has been taken with a view to economy and, in conjunction with other administrative changes, is expected to place the finances of the islands on a more satisfactory footing than at present. Visitors from St. Pierre recently say that times in the French colony are somewhat better than prevailed there last winter. Then there was some six thousand inhabitants on the whole island, but owing to the existing distress in the fishing and other industries the number has been reduced to nearly four thousand. Prospects for the coming year are not of the brightest, as business in the fishing industry promises to be far from what will relieve the present straitened circumstances of the people, and unless the unforeseen happens the summer of 1907 will see great stress among the inhabitants and an immense falling off in population. An idea of the failure of the fisheries of St. Pierre may be secured from the fact that in 1904 there were 235 local vessels engaged. This present year only 105 vessels will constitute the St. Pierre fishing fleet. A great many of the people have left and others are preparing to go to Anticosti, where the French chocolate king, Menier, is endeavoring to populate that island with people of French extraction.

ADVENTUROUS SHIP'S VOYAGE

NEW YORK, May 25.—Under jury rig from Kobe, Japan, to New York harbor, the noted clipper ship A. G. Ropes arrived here, completing the first attempt to take the dismantled hull of a great full rigged ship across two seas. The voyage began last December, following a typhoon experience last summer near Hong Kong, when practically everything above the ship's decks went overboard. The course of the Ropes has been filled with adventure. For four days after the typhoon the ship drifted, her crew in despair and below decks. Finally a German steamer offered for $3,000 to tow the Ropes to port. Captain Rivers refused. He held out until his ship was taken into port by a steamer for $500. This was not paid, however, until he had sailed for five days more with a sail rigged on the iron stump of the foremast. At Kobe the ship was sold at auction to A. G. Lukenback, of New York, and the nearly six months' voyage home under a makeshift rigging began.

INDIANS DRANK FLORIDA WATER

DUKE LAKE, Sask., May 25.—Following is the verdict rendered by a jury in the death of the Indians on the reserve last week:—"That the Indians who died in Duke Lake Agency came to their death from drinking poison improperly labelled 'Florida water'; that the compound was manufactured by the Dalley Company of Hamilton, Ont., and contained wood alcohol instead of purified spirits; that in the opinion of the jury all the bottles of the same poison should be confiscated and destroyed; that a brand manufactured in Winnipeg has been found also to contain poison, and should be similarly destroyed; that no patent medicine or liquor containing more than 10 per cent. of alcohol be sold to Indians without the order of a physician."
