Mrs Bachelord, Chicago, arrived in the city last night on the mail train on a visit to her mother, Mrs C. Benoit, City.

Mrs Dr G. W. Smallwood, Somerville, Mass., arrived in the city last evening on the express on a visit with relatives in this province. While here she will be the guest of her sister Mrs Arthur Gates.

Mrs W. N. Riggs, City, returned last evening from Chatham, N. B., where she had been visiting her daughter Mrs Joseph Kennedy. On her return Mrs Riggs was accompanied by Mrs Kennedy and children who will spend some time with her parents.

E. C. Macleod, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia's local branch, Chatham, left on Saturday night for a two weeks' trip to Toronto. U. Schurman, of Prince Edward Island, one of the bank's relieving managers, will fill Mr Macleod's position during his absence.—St John Telegraph.

H. O. McInerny, St. John, accompanied by Mrs G. V. McInerny, Miss Nellie McInerny, Miss Josephine Lynch, and E. B. McInerny, came to the city last evening and registered at the Victoria. The party will go to Georgetown today where they will participate in an interesting event of which H. O. McInerny will be one of the principals.

S. S. Harland leaves this afternoon for Orwell at three o'clock returning at eight thirty p. m. Excursion rates at one fare are now on and no doubt the very low rate charged will attract a very large number to take advantage of this delightful sail. In no other way could you derive more benefit at anything like the small cost, than by taking in this trip.

C. M. MacRae, of the Live Stock Branch, Ottawa, will address Agricultural Meetings as follows: Bonshaw, today at 7 p. m., Crapaud, tomorrow at 7 p. m., Searstown, Thursday, June 30, 7 p. m. and Lower Freetown, Saturday, July 2nd, 2.30 p. m. All interested are invited to attend and take part in the discussions. It is hoped these meetings will be largely attended.

The Northumberland arrived in this port about eight p. m. She carried thirty-six passengers, and five cars of freight.

The outward cargo by the Northumberland from this city yesterday included two cars freight and two horses, also, there were nineteen passengers.

G. W. Hartley and Will Robb of New Glasgow who will have charge of the Y. M. C. A. tents at Camp Brighton came over on the Northumberland last night. Dr. Carmichael of Presbyterian Western Missions, also arrived on the boat last night and will address the meeting at the tents tonight.

This morning Brighton Camp will be organized by the city companies and the companies from the country will arrive by the trains this morning. They will come in full strength. Mrs. John Gorman and family desire to extend their heartfelt thanks to all those who in any way assisted them during their recent sad bereavement also for spiritual offerings and floral tributes received.

The Arena Bowling Alleys were auspiciously opened yesterday afternoon. Large attendances were present all afternoon and evening and expressions of approval respecting the appointments of the new alleys were heard from all sides. There is every indication that the Arena, as in the winter time, will prove a highly popular amusement resort.

The remains of the late Thomas Kenny who was killed in a railway collision on the Pacific coast, arrived by train last evening and will be forwarded to his former home in Hunter River today, where interment will take place.

A despatch from Moncton says: The I. C. R. officials, who accompanied Deputy Minister Campbell, who called in this city on his inspection trip, returned to Moncton on Saturday night. Mr. Campbell remained at Parrsboro over Sunday as the guest of J. W. Cowans, Manager of the Springhill Mines. He is expected in Moncton on Monday. On Saturday the inspection party went over the Joggins road and Parrsboro branch.

ST. YVES QUIT.

FALL RIVER, Mass., June 25.—Quitting in the 11th mile, Henry St. Yves, the French Marathon runner, was defeated in a 15-mile match race by Gus Ljunstrom, the Swede, who was leading by one mile. The latter continued and finished the race in 1 hour 27 minutes. The meeting was under the auspices of the Fall River Baseball Club, on whose grounds the contest was held. St. Yves stopped twice during the 11 miles he ran because, he said, his foot was injured.
