Help the Veterans

Which is the Best Poster?

16 of the most famous Bovril Posters have been printed in colors on a ticket-folder. To tell which are the 12 best, in order of merit, is the object of the Great Poster-Judging Competition now being carried on in Canada.

The net proceeds will be distributed among the Veterans' Associations which are all of them sorely in need of funds to carry on their work.

The game is one which proves most fascinating to young and old, and which gives many evenings of pleasurable exercise of artistic taste and skill. But to add even more interest to the game, a fine list of prizes is to be awarded.

BOVRIL LIMITED has donated £30,000, about $138,888.00, which is distributed in 2,003 prizes of varying amounts, the first three are approximately as follows :

1st Prize, $55,555.00
2nd Prize, $13,888.00 3rd Prize, $4,555.00

These very large amounts add zest and life to the competition of wits.

Send a Donation of $1.20

Every donor of $1.20 is presented with the Ticket-folder with the 16 poster reproductions in colors, and full rules of the competition.

Play the game at once. Send your donation to any of the following organizations or their branches which are actively interested and ask your help : 9

The W. S. Harkins Players At The Prince Edward Next Week

In order to guarantee the Theatre patrons of Charlottetown a fine opening performance Mr. Harkins has decided to bring his company direct from Moncton arriving here Monday night, Dec. 3rd and open their engagement Tuesday, Dec. 4th. Mr. Harkins says it is impossible for artists to do their best work after an all day ride ride on the train arriving in town late, and curtain going up at 9 or half past. After a good night's rest, they will be in perfect condition for the opening performance and all happy, instead of going around with a grouch. It means quite a loss to Mr. Harkins, as he has only equity actors in his company and he has to pay them whether they play or not. Mr. Harkins justly says, Charlottetown has always been so kind to him in the past, that they are deserving a little sacrifice on his part. He also states that as "Paid In Full" has already been presented here, he has decided for the closing performance, Saturday night the famous laugh maker of the world, "TWIN BEDS". Seat sale for the entire engagement opens Friday morning, November 30th at 9.30 a. m.

To Darken Hair Apply Sage Tea

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. 61

Russians Want U. S. to Return Their Money

(United Press)

MOSCOW, Nov. 27.—An important American commission has arrived here with the object of straightening out a business dispute which, if settled satisfactorily, is bound to do much towards promoting Russo-American business in general.

The dispute in question is the claim of Russia co-operative societies to property in the United States, worth several million dollars, which is held in escrow on account of Russia's repudiation of her national debts.

The co-operatives say that they are private organizations and independent of the Russian government, consequently their property should not be liable to seizure. The commission is here to investigate the real status of the societies, wherefore Col. Victor E. Ruehl, New York attorney, has been invested by the New York Federal Courts with full notarial powers for Russia.

Maj. J. A. Millis, attorney for the U. S. War Department, and Charles A. Marshall of New York, counsel for the Russian co-operatives, complete the commission, which is also accomplished by George Link, of the Russian Department of the National City Bank, which is the co-operatives depositary in the United States.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN DYSTANT

A deep gloom was cast over Ellerslie and the surrounding community on Monday Nov. 12th, when it became known that the angel of death had entered the home of John Dystant and claimed for its victim a beloved wife and mother. Although in failing health for the past six weeks her condition was not thought to be serious until Tuesday the 6th when she suddenly took a turn for the worse and all that loving hands and skilled nursing could do she gradually sank until she passed peacefully in to the great beyond on the above date.

The late Mrs. Dystant was the daughter of the late Thomas Cann of Halifax, N. S., where she was born on May 24th, 1847 and came to the Island at the age of seventeen years and settled in Ellerslie which was then almost a wilderness and by shrewd and careful management helped to build up one of the most comfortable homes in the settlement. She was noted for her kind hospitality, no one ever went from her door hungry. In sickness and trouble she was a friend to all who will ever cherish her memory and was, a faithful member and worker of the Methodist Church. There are left to mourn their sad loss a sorrowing husband, six sons Rev. John Dystant, Ferndale, Michigan William G. Meadville P. A. James T. Sommerville, Mass. L. E. Halifax Louis and Walter in Ellerslie, two daughters Mrs. Charles Boone, Sommerville Mass, and Mrs Dr. Wm. B. Turnbulll, Boston, also a brother and sister in Halifax. The funeral which was held on Wednesday afternoon to the Bideford Methodist Church was very largely attended and was conducted by her pastor Rev. C. N. Brown. The floral tributes were many and beautiful which bore silent evidence of the high esteem in which she was held. The following were the pall-bearers Melville Ellis, Thomas Phillips, William Burleigh, Anthony McCaull, William B. Hayes and John Gregg.

MRS. RICHARD W. CARSON

On the evening of Nov. 10th, 1923, death's shadow again cast a gloom over Bonshaw, when it was learned with deep regret that Elizabeth Seaman, wife of the late Richard W. Carson, has passed away. The deceased who had lived 67 years had been in comparatively good health until recently, when she was stricken with paralysis from which she never completely recovered, but sank rapidly during the last week of illness, death coming calmly and peacefully in the presence of her family. Mrs. Carson was a woman beloved, not only by her family, but by all who had the privilege of knowing her—kind sincere, and sympathetic; truly, a mother ideal. Early in life she gave her heart to her Heavenly Father and became a consistent member of St. John's Anglican Church, Milton.

The funeral services at the house and grave were conducted by the Rev. J. B. Daggett, pastor of the Bonshaw Baptist Church, where the deceased was a familiar figure

"One Sweetly Solemn Thought." There are left in sorrow two sisters in Roslindale, Mass., six daughters, Mrs. Ernest Stone and Mrs. Harry Hyde, Cornwall, Mrs. F. N. Brodie, St. John, N. B., Mrs. A. M. MacMillan, Wood Islands West, Mrs. Lawson Crosby, Lawrence, Mass., and Bessie at home; four sons, Wm. of Sask., who was called home when his mother's illness became serious, Havelock and Geo. at home, and Walter also of Bonshaw To the bereaved family the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

Sleep beloved, sleep, and take thy rest,
We loved thee well, but Jesus loved thee best.
Good night.

When the Ghost Walked

(By Dominion News Service)

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Stanley Lupino, the well-known comedian is one of the latest converts to Spiritualism. Sir Edward Marshall Hall, the famous criminal lawyer, is another.

Both confess themselves convinced of a life beyond by personal experiences of occult happenings.

Speaking at a Charity luncheon at Chatham, Mr. Lupino thrilled his audience with the story of his encounter with the spirit of Dan Leno, the inimitable comedian of other days.

Late one evening, while playing at Drury Lane, he decided to sleep in the dressing room. Instead of going home in his car. He locked the door of the room, turned out the light, and settled down to sleep on the couch. "Suddenly I became conscious of another presence in the room, and I heard the sound of a curtain which covered some clothes being drawn aside. "I distinctly saw a form flit across the dressing-room and pass through the door. I went out, but the night watchman said he had seen nothing, so, feeling puzzled, I reutrned to the room, and again lay on the couch.

"Soon afterwards" continued Mr. Lupino, "I was again startled, and looking up clearly saw the face of Dan Leno.

"Terrified, I rushed out of the Theatre and spent the rest of the night at the Globe Hotel.

"Next morning a friend of my wife's who knew nothing of my experience moved in the same room, and afterwards declared she had seen the ghost of Dan Leno."

Another experience related by Mr. Lupino was the he broke his arm shortly before the first performance of "Dover Street to Dixie."

A famous physician who X-rayed the injury, said he would not be able to work for six weeks.

"I had proof of the presence of my mother's spirit," said the comedian," and I prayed to her for help. That night I was awakened by a strong grip of my arm, and for two hours was massaged by unseen hands.

"When I revisited the physician he was amazed at the restoration of my arm. The X-ray photograph provided proof of my original injury."

Overhead in the drawing room of a profiteer's wife:—

"Jane, my love, just sing that song the French professor charged ten dollars an hour to teach you."
