

COAL

Customers should order to take delivery of their coal before the season gets late.

We are receiving daily cargoes of Sydney and Pictou coal.

C. Lyons & Co

BIRTHS

WALSH—At the P. E. I. Hospital, Sunday, Nov. 19th to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Walsh, a daughter.

MARRIAGES

EMERY-McMILLAN—At the Presbyterian Manse, Wood Islands, Wednesday, Nov. 14th by the Rev. J. C. Martin, Miss Marion Julia Emery to Neil P. McMillan, both of Wood Islands.

CARR-MARSHAL—At Grace Church Parsonage on Nov. 19, 1917 by Rev. F. H. Littlejohns, George P. Carr of Charlottetown to Clara Belle Marshall of Cove Head, P. E. I. (Boston papers please copy)

DIED

SELLER—At Calgary Nov. 8, 1917, Leslie E. Sellar, aged 35, son of the late Isaac Sellar, Union Road.

128,000 SQUARE MILES HAVE BEEN TAKEN BY THE BRITISH.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—In the House of Commons today during a speech Henry William Foster, Financial Secretary of War, said that since July 1, 1916, the British had captured from the Turks 30,197 prisoners and 186 guns; and from the Germans on the Western front 101,534 prisoners and 519 guns. The approximate square mileage in territory conquered or reconquered by the British in the same time, said Mr. Foster, was 128,000. The total number of prisoners captured on all fronts since the beginning of the war was 166,000, while the captured guns numbered eight hundred.

An official statement issued by the British War Office, Aug. 24, said that the number of prisoners captured by the British in all war theaters since the beginning of the war exclusive of African natives, at that time aggregated 181,776.

NOTICE

The Annual Meeting of the Oyster Bed Silver Black Fox Co., will be held in Wheatley School house on Saturday evening Nov. 24th, 1917 at 7 o'clock p. m.

ANDREW GALLANT, Secretary.

1279-11-20M31.

MAIL CONTRACT

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the Postmaster General, will be received at Ottawa until noon, on Friday the 28th December 1917 for the conveyance of His Majesty's Mails, on a proposed Contract for four years, six times per week over Rural Mail route No. 2 from New Wiltshire, P. E. Island from the Postmaster General's pleasure.

Printed notices containing further information as to conditions of proposed Contract may be seen and blank forms of Tender may be obtained at the Post Office of New Wiltshire, Kelly's Cross and at the office of the Post Office Inspector.

JOHN F. WHEAR, Post Office Inspector, Charlottetown 16th, Nov. 1917. 1278-11-20Mt35.

ANNUAL MEETING

Souris Silver Black Fox Company. The annual general meeting of the Souris Black Fox Co., will be held in the Town Hall, Souris on TUESDAY, NOV. 27, 1917 at 8 o'clock in the evening for the transaction of general business as laid down in the regulations of the Company.

C. D. MCKINNON, Secretary. 1164-11-13Mt61.

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders of "The Dominion Fox Breeding Company of Murray Harbour Limited" will be held in the Public Hall, Murray Harbour on Tuesday the 4th day of December next at 7.30 p. m., for general business. Shareholders than can not be present kindly send their proxies.

By Order, W. H. PROWSE, Secretary, Murray Harbour, November 15th, 1917.

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS TO THE CHRISTMAS PARCELS FOR THE EIGHTH CANADIAN SIEGE BATTERY.

Cash, Mrs. W. H. Hogan and others, Hope River (proceeds of entertainment); Mrs. J. McDonald, Murray River; Progress Club of the Alberton High School; Mrs. P. Daley, Summerside; Mrs. E. Campbell, North Wiltshire; Mrs. Margaret Myers, Mt. Allison; Mrs. Hickey Darnley; Mrs. A. McCallum, Lower Bedouque; Mrs. Ed. Albert Gallant, Urbainville; Miss M. J. Hogan, Summerside; Mrs. Austin Murphy, Kensington; Mrs. Geo. F. Beaulieu, Malbecque; Mrs. John Webb Howlan; Mrs. Geo. Leslie, Souris, R. I.; Mrs. F. Stillman, Red Point; Mr. John McEllan, Red Point; Mrs. E. J. Christie, North Sydney, N. S.; Mrs. D. G. McKenzie, North Shore, N. S.; Mrs. J. A. Hearzt, Cornwall; Miss Leah B. Whidden, Antigonish, N. S.; Mrs. M. J. Bell, Belle River; I. O. E., Charlottetown; Mrs. Newton McLeod, French River; Mrs. Jas. McKenna, Tracadie; Mrs. Norman McLean, Cardigan; Mrs. G. W. McKenzie, French River; Mrs. Jas. H. Robinson, Clements Vale, N. S.; Miss Margaret J. McDonald, James River, N. S.; Mrs. C. Mallett, Union Road; Mrs. McEachern, City; Mrs. F. C. Major, Margaret; Mrs. J. W. McDonald, Jr., Grand Tracadie; Mrs. Wm. Campbell, Cape Traverse; Mrs. H. F. Connors, City; Mrs. Chas. Bell, Cape Traverse; Miss Pansy Bell, Cape Traverse; Mrs. C. Gillespie, Cape Traverse; Mr. R. Carruthers, Cape Traverse; Mrs. Thos. Doucet, Belle Cote, N. S.; Mrs. S. F. McKaracher, Pictou, N. S.; Mrs. Capt. D. A. McDonald, Souris; Mrs. J. D. McDonald, Dundas; Mrs. Bertha West, Belfast; Mrs. (Dr.) Fleming, Stanley Bridge; Miss Annie Boisner, West Royalty; Mrs. C. Boyer, City; Mrs. E. H. Bear, City; Mrs. Bertha Clark, City; Mrs. Ed. Crosby, Cape Traverse; Miss Helen Clark, Cape Traverse; Mrs. John G. Campbell, Cape Traverse; Miss DeBlois, City; Mrs. Henry Dunn, Gasperaux; Mrs. C. Doull, Cape Traverse; Mrs. Chas. Hines, City; Mrs. A. Henry, City; Miss Jeanetta Howatt, Cape Traverse; Mrs. Philip Howatt, Cape Traverse; Miss B. Haviland, City; R. H. Jenkins, City; Mrs. M. A. Keeping, Murray Harbor; Mrs. D. S. Miller, Alberton; Mrs. R. F. Lord, Cape Traverse; Mrs. H. Lord, Cape Traverse; Mrs. W. Lord, Cape Traverse; Mrs. Harry Muttart, Cape Traverse; Mrs. E. McPherson, Cape Traverse; Mrs. Jas. Peake, City; Mrs. John Proffitt, Wilnot Valley; Miss Annie Pidgeon, Wheatley River; Mrs. B. C. Prowse, City; Mrs. E. D. Sterns, Mrs. W. W. Wright, Mrs. J. S. Bagnall, Miss Beatrice McKinnon, Mrs. Edwin Aitken, Mrs. John Meserve, Mrs. David McInnis, Mrs. J. T. McKenzie, Mrs. John McKenna, Maurice Weeks, City; Eileen Longworth, Mrs. Richard Stead, Wheatley River; Miss Helen McKay, Miss Nellie Duncan, Mr. Jas. Stevenson, Miss Pearl Mitchell, Mrs. Ling, Mrs. Alice Scott, Cornwall; Mrs. John Bell, City; Mrs. Edgar East, Hampshire; Mrs. Ethel Walsh, City; Mrs. Chas. Ross, Miss Wynne, Miss Rose Stanway, Mrs. S. E. Craig, Mrs. Chester Acorn, Mrs. A. Bonnell, Mrs. A. C. McLeod, Park County, H. J. S. City; Mrs. E. Stegins, City; Mrs. John J. McDonald, Pownal St.

BOY'S CONFERENCE

The Boys' Conference just held in this city has been splendidly successful except that the number of delegates from outside the city was not as large as hoped for.

Just as the Allies on the Western Front confer and plan their work together, then separately carry out the plans agreed to, so the allied Canadian forces that make for Righteousness, are banded together on a great programme for Canadian Boys, and are working hard as individual units to carry it through.

Twenty-three older Boys Conferences are being held in Canada this fall to enable the young fellows in their later teens to get the vision of the four-fold life—physical, mental, social and religious—which this fine programme outlines.

The Charlottetown Conference is one of the series.

But who are these Allies? The impression has probably been created by some Press references to this conference that it was being carried on by the Y. M. C. A. This is not correct. At the core of the movement are the Sunday School Boards of the Protestant Churches.

These are flanked on either side by the Young Men's Christian Association and the Sunday School Association.

These great allied forces are out to do better for the Boyhood of Canada in a mighty effort that will mean much for our beloved land in creating the new leadership for the days of reconstruction.

The opening meeting on Friday evening has already been reported to the press.

On Saturday morning after a bright Devotional Service conducted by Rev. Lou Buckley, Y. M. C. A. Maritime Boys Secretary, the course or programme of Training known as the Canadian Standard Efficiency Tests was fully explained by Mr. H. Vaughan Toronto, Associate Y. M. C. A. National Boys Work Secretary for Canada.

By means of charts and chalk talks he showed the purpose of the programme was to increase the area of their lives. He defined "area" as the space in the world they were filling. As a business man he had learned that four factors entered into success—ability, reliability, endurance and action. These qualities are developed by the C. S. E. T. program which provides the conditions of healthy, mental, physical, religious and social life blended in a harmonious whole.

The instrument or organization by means of which the C. S. E. T. programme is being carried out in the organized Bible Class. This class meets twice a week, once on Sunday as a regular class of the Sunday School and once on a week night. The way these two sessions of the class are conducted and how the programme is carried out was made clear to the Conference by means of demonstrations. The demonstration of the Sunday Session was in charge of Rev. J. W. Williamson, General Secretary of the United Baptist S. S. Board, with the assistance of volunteer class of Boys from the conference. The order of business was as follows:

Reading Minutes of the last Week Day Session.

Reports of various Committees, membership visitation etc.

Arrangements were made for a talk for recent weeks meeting.

Roll call.

Offering.

Announcements.

Lesson Study Period.

Next follows a conference or discussion of this demonstration led by Rev. W. A. Ross, General Secretary of the N. B. and P. E. I. Sunday School Association, where points were made clear as to the organization and registration of classes and class names, mottoes and usual lines.

The Week Day Session demonstration was in charge of Mr. R. Bethune as mentor, assisted by six boys. This mid-week session is usually divided into three parts, (1) A Twenty Minute period of Bible Study, (2) A Practical Talk on some one of the Standing Efficiency Test Subjects, (3) A Test based on some previous study or talk.

The first part was omitted by lack of time, but a Practical talk on Public Speaking was given in an intensely interesting and helpful way by Mr. Nash, Editor of the Patriot, Charlottetown. Some of the suggestions brought out to help cultivate the art of Public Speaking were:

(1) A story makes a good introduction.

(2) Know your subject, hear great men, read study until you master it.

(3) Conciseness—Terseness.

(4) Speak the truth, and feel it.

WHO WANTED AN ELECTION.

Did Sir Robert Borden suggest the general election proposal in connection with the conscription bill, or was that suggestion a compromise to meet the expressed wishes of Sir Wilfrid Laurier? The answer is to be found in the published correspondence. The Telegraph in discussing the correspondence today, challenges the statement of the Globe that the Prime Minister's aim was first to get conscription, and say:

"Sir Robert Borden's proposal was that the military service bill should be passed by a coalition government, but that a pledge should be given not to enforce it until after a general election; that Parliament should be dissolved, and the coalition government should seek a mandate from the people—before an attempt was made to enforce conscription."

This was undoubtedly Sir Robert Borden's proposal contained in the document prepared by Sir Robert at Sir Wilfrid's request for presentation to Sir Lomer Gouin but it was a proposal made after a conference between the two leaders, of which Sir Robert Borden says:

"At our first interview you had expressed the opinion that compulsory service should not be enforced until it had been approved by a referendum or at a general election. It was for this reason that I submitted the further proposal on the 30th of May, which is described in the fourth paragraph of your letter."

This sentence furnishes proof, as absolute and convincing, that the referendum and election suggestions came not from Sir Robert Borden, but from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, after conscription had been carried through Parliament by the coalition, was made as the request of Sir Wilfrid and in the hope that it would induce him to join the government.

The correspondence fully justifies the Globe's statement that "the Prime Minister's desire and purpose was first to get conscription." It does not justify the Telegraph's contention that "the very essence of the proposal was that the people should vote on conscription, for or against." That was the Laurier demand, to which Borden assented in the vain hope of unity. It is well to keep the record clear.

Formation of Union Government has strengthened Canada's financial position at home and abroad. The announcement that the strong men of the Conservative party and the Liberal party had decided to bury their differences and unite their efforts for the period of the war, had an immensely improving effect upon the standing of Canadian credit in New York, which has become the great money centre. And throughout Canada the effect has been the same. There are indications that the Victory loan will have many times the number of subscribers that took bonds in the two domestic war loans.

The return of the Union Government in the coming election will still further strengthen the financial standing of Canada. The defeat of Union Government in the coming election would unquestionably have a depressing effect upon the financial standing of the country.

At the present time there is as great a need for dollars as there is for men. It is as much the duty of the good Canadian to vote for the

WHO WANTED AN ELECTION.

Did Sir Robert Borden suggest the general election proposal in connection with the conscription bill, or was that suggestion a compromise to meet the expressed wishes of Sir Wilfrid Laurier? The answer is to be found in the published correspondence. The Telegraph in discussing the correspondence today, challenges the statement of the Globe that the Prime Minister's aim was first to get conscription, and say:

"Sir Robert Borden's proposal was that the military service bill should be passed by a coalition government, but that a pledge should be given not to enforce it until after a general election; that Parliament should be dissolved, and the coalition government should seek a mandate from the people—before an attempt was made to enforce conscription."

This was undoubtedly Sir Robert Borden's proposal contained in the document prepared by Sir Robert at Sir Wilfrid's request for presentation to Sir Lomer Gouin but it was a proposal made after a conference between the two leaders, of which Sir Robert Borden says:

"At our first interview you had expressed the opinion that compulsory service should not be enforced until it had been approved by a referendum or at a general election. It was for this reason that I submitted the further proposal on the 30th of May, which is described in the fourth paragraph of your letter."

This sentence furnishes proof, as absolute and convincing, that the referendum and election suggestions came not from Sir Robert Borden, but from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, after conscription had been carried through Parliament by the coalition, was made as the request of Sir Wilfrid and in the hope that it would induce him to join the government.

The correspondence fully justifies the Globe's statement that "the Prime Minister's desire and purpose was first to get conscription." It does not justify the Telegraph's contention that "the very essence of the proposal was that the people should vote on conscription, for or against." That was the Laurier demand, to which Borden assented in the vain hope of unity. It is well to keep the record clear.

Formation of Union Government has strengthened Canada's financial position at home and abroad. The announcement that the strong men of the Conservative party and the Liberal party had decided to bury their differences and unite their efforts for the period of the war, had an immensely improving effect upon the standing of Canadian credit in New York, which has become the great money centre. And throughout Canada the effect has been the same. There are indications that the Victory loan will have many times the number of subscribers that took bonds in the two domestic war loans.

The return of the Union Government in the coming election will still further strengthen the financial standing of Canada. The defeat of Union Government in the coming election would unquestionably have a depressing effect upon the financial standing of the country.

At the present time there is as great a need for dollars as there is for men. It is as much the duty of the good Canadian to vote for the

THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTIONS WERE ADOPTED AT HIS CLOSING SESSION.

The Conference Committee wish to present the following resolutions.

(1) We express our appreciation to the people of Charlottetown for their kindness in entertaining the delegates.

(2) We desire to thank the pastor and people of the Methodist Church for the use of their beautiful Hall and Church for our meetings, and also the Caretaker for cautious service and doing everything possible for comfort of delegates.

(3) Our thanks are due the ladies for their hospitality and banquet so well provided.

(4) We wish to thank the Ladies of the Conference for their addresses and the help they have given us to become better fellows.

(5) We also desire to thank the Press for giving us space in the newspapers for news.

Also Resolutions from the Denominational and District delegates a brief message from the leaders, and the singing of the conference closing Hymn "Bless be the tie that binds," and the National Anthem brought the fourth Annual gathering of boys to a close.

REGISTRATION.

The total registration for the Fourth P. E. Island Order Boys Conference is 116.

Anglicans 10.
Baptists 26.
Christian 10.
Methodist 33.
Presbyterian 37.

There are twenty different localities represented in the conference.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no yawning, snuffing, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

The Charlottetown Guardian
Automobile Xmas Prize Campaign

This Coupon Good for
ONE VOTE

For District No.

Name of Candidate

If deposited in the ballot box at the Campaign Department within ten days.
Trim neatly along border. Not good after Nov. 30

WHO WANTED AN ELECTION.

Did Sir Robert Borden suggest the general election proposal in connection with the conscription bill, or was that suggestion a compromise to meet the expressed wishes of Sir Wilfrid Laurier? The answer is to be found in the published correspondence. The Telegraph in discussing the correspondence today, challenges the statement of the Globe that the Prime Minister's aim was first to get conscription, and say:

"Sir Robert Borden's proposal was that the military service bill should be passed by a coalition government, but that a pledge should be given not to enforce it until after a general election; that Parliament should be dissolved, and the coalition government should seek a mandate from the people—before an attempt was made to enforce conscription."

This was undoubtedly Sir Robert Borden's proposal contained in the document prepared by Sir Robert at Sir Wilfrid's request for presentation to Sir Lomer Gouin but it was a proposal made after a conference between the two leaders, of which Sir Robert Borden says:

"At our first interview you had expressed the opinion that compulsory service should not be enforced until it had been approved by a referendum or at a general election. It was for this reason that I submitted the further proposal on the 30th of May, which is described in the fourth paragraph of your letter."

This sentence furnishes proof, as absolute and convincing, that the referendum and election suggestions came not from Sir Robert Borden, but from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, after conscription had been carried through Parliament by the coalition, was made as the request of Sir Wilfrid and in the hope that it would induce him to join the government.

The correspondence fully justifies the Globe's statement that "the Prime Minister's desire and purpose was first to get conscription." It does not justify the Telegraph's contention that "the very essence of the proposal was that the people should vote on conscription, for or against." That was the Laurier demand, to which Borden assented in the vain hope of unity. It is well to keep the record clear.

Formation of Union Government has strengthened Canada's financial position at home and abroad. The announcement that the strong men of the Conservative party and the Liberal party had decided to bury their differences and unite their efforts for the period of the war, had an immensely improving effect upon the standing of Canadian credit in New York, which has become the great money centre. And throughout Canada the effect has been the same. There are indications that the Victory loan will have many times the number of subscribers that took bonds in the two domestic war loans.

The return of the Union Government in the coming election will still further strengthen the financial standing of Canada. The defeat of Union Government in the coming election would unquestionably have a depressing effect upon the financial standing of the country.

At the present time there is as great a need for dollars as there is for men. It is as much the duty of the good Canadian to vote for the

WHO WANTED AN ELECTION.

Did Sir Robert Borden suggest the general election proposal in connection with the conscription bill, or was that suggestion a compromise to meet the expressed wishes of Sir Wilfrid Laurier? The answer is to be found in the published correspondence. The Telegraph in discussing the correspondence today, challenges the statement of the Globe that the Prime Minister's aim was first to get conscription, and say:

"Sir Robert Borden's proposal was that the military service bill should be passed by a coalition government, but that a pledge should be given not to enforce it until after a general election; that Parliament should be dissolved, and the coalition government should seek a mandate from the people—before an attempt was made to enforce conscription."

This was undoubtedly Sir Robert Borden's proposal contained in the document prepared by Sir Robert at Sir Wilfrid's request for presentation to Sir Lomer Gouin but it was a proposal made after a conference between the two leaders, of which Sir Robert Borden says:

"At our first interview you had expressed the opinion that compulsory service should not be enforced until it had been approved by a referendum or at a general election. It was for this reason that I submitted the further proposal on the 30th of May, which is described in the fourth paragraph of your letter."

This sentence furnishes proof, as absolute and convincing, that the referendum and election suggestions came not from Sir Robert Borden, but from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, after conscription had been carried through Parliament by the coalition, was made as the request of Sir Wilfrid and in the hope that it would induce him to join the government.

The correspondence fully justifies the Globe's statement that "the Prime Minister's desire and purpose was first to get conscription." It does not justify the Telegraph's contention that "the very essence of the proposal was that the people should vote on conscription, for or against." That was the Laurier demand, to which Borden assented in the vain hope of unity. It is well to keep the record clear.

Formation of Union Government has strengthened Canada's financial position at home and abroad. The announcement that the strong men of the Conservative party and the Liberal party had decided to bury their differences and unite their efforts for the period of the war, had an immensely improving effect upon the standing of Canadian credit in New York, which has become the great money centre. And throughout Canada the effect has been the same. There are indications that the Victory loan will have many times the number of subscribers that took bonds in the two domestic war loans.

The return of the Union Government in the coming election will still further strengthen the financial standing of Canada. The defeat of Union Government in the coming election would unquestionably have a depressing effect upon the financial standing of the country.

At the present time there is as great a need for dollars as there is for men. It is as much the duty of the good Canadian to vote for the

SOLDIERS IN CAMP

The abrupt change from home comforts to camp life may be trying on your boy's health, but if he will only take the rich liquid-food in

SCOTT'S EMULSION

It will create richer blood to establish body-warmth and fortify his lungs and throat. Thousands of soldiers all over the world take Scott's Emulsion. It is exactly what they need.

Scott & Bowne, Toronto, Ont. 17-30

turn of Union Government as it is his duty to subscribe, to the extent of his financial ability, to the next domestic war loan.

The New York financier will think less of the security of Canadian investments, if the people of Canada vote into office the elements that are opposing the Union Government in the coming contest.

The man who has a stake in the land should apply the principle of Unionism and co-operation to his political pledges, before he casts his next vote.

IN FAIRYLAND.

"That Chinese sprite is raising Cain with the entertainment committee."

"Yes. He bought a ticket for the hop and now he wants his money back because he says he was swindled."—Cartoons Magazine.

New December Numbers of

Columbia Records

When Lazo sings "Laugh, laugh, Pagliaccio!"

It is more than words or song or acting. His "Vesti la Giubba" is the breaking of a heart in music. Sorrow beyond words, hidden beneath a smiling mask to face the call of duty—what one of us has not sometimes laughed with Pagliaccio? Lazo, Metropolitan Opera tenor, in this appealing record has made his singing live. 49020—$3.00.

THE records individually mentioned are only a few of the splendid Christmas list of Columbia Records. It includes many other operatic numbers, 22 new popular song hits, 14 whirlwind dance numbers, patriotic songs, fairy stories for the children, and a number of beautiful Christmas carols and hymns.

Stracciaris song of love and hate.

Love struggling with hate in dramatic melody—that is the theme of "Eritu" from Verdi's "Masked Ball." A song that requires much of the artist, and in this record Stracciaris, leading baritone of the Chicago Opera, has given of his art in full measure. 49221—$1.50.

Barrientos, crystal clear in Lakme's "Bell Song"

Soaring joyously through the bell-like notes of Delibes' lyric, Barrientos makes music more musical by the matchless cadence of her voice. A record in which the great soprano of the Metropolitan Opera surpasses herself. 49151—$3.00.

Patriotic Numbers

"It's a Long Way to Berlin, But We'll Get There" coupled with "So Long Mother" (A2383) 85c; are typical songs for "Our Boys," but they are no better than "When We Wind Up the Watch on the Rhine" and "The Old Grey Mare" (A2382) 85c.

The list also includes many striking, popular melodies such as "The Best Things in Life are Free," and "For You a Rose", (A2391), 85c; also two selections from "Cheer Up" the New York Hippodrome's latest production, "Cheer Up Liza" and "Melody Land" (A2394) 85c.

Columbia Grafonola Price $145

Columbia Grafonola Price $270.00

New Columbia Records on Sale the 20th of Each Month

FOR SALE BY

A. E. TOOMBS

177 Queen Street
Charlottetown, P. E. I.