"—laden with BREAD"

When young David came bringing rich gifts to Saul, chief among them were loaves of Bread.

Bread, a gift fit for a King.

Bread, the food the whole world shares with royalty.

Bread is the universal food, because there is a world wide need for the nourishment and the delicious flavor only Bread can supply Precious Vitamines were contained in this gift of David to Saul—though neither of them knew it. For the discovery of Vitamines is recent.

You know now why Bread is all nourishment and no waste. Why its food-value is greater than that of more expensive foods which do not contain these life-giving food-factors.

You have learned to seek delicious, wholesome flavor in Bread, not only as an indication of the nourishment supplied by pure ingredients, but because it tempts you to eat Bread three times a day and often between meals.

The contribution of Bread to the process of nutrition makes it a royal gift indeed is the loaf of Flavor, appealing to the appetite with its fragrance, its tempting brown crust; its rich, tender, white crumb.

LEADS ALL CANADA.—All honor to little Miss Mary Callaghan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malachias Callaghan, Richmond St., City, on having won the Sarah Maxwell Memorial Prize, given for the best essay submitted on "Heroism." Miss Callaghan, though only twelve years of age, won not only first place in the city, but also succeeded in leadng all Canada, and thus has brought great fame to her native province and her school. She is a student of Rochford square School and her accomplishment reflects much credit on her teachers We congratulate this brilliant young writer on her success and we hope that she will continue her endeavors along the literary line.

ASKING THE INSTITUTES—At a meeting of the executive of The Associated Boards of Trade of Prince Edward Island held Friday, the 3rd of July, in the Board of Trade Rooms, Charlottetown, it was decided to extend an invitation to the representatives of the various Farmers' Institutes throughout the Island to attend the annual meeting of the Board to be held in Summerside on Wednesday, August 26th. Those interested are desirous, if possible, of having all of the Farmers' Institutes represented, as they hope to make this a large "Get-together Meeting" between the Farmer and Business Man. The meeting last year held in Charlottetown was of this nature and was voted a wonderful success by all those who attended. Mr. J. O. Hyndman, the President of the Associated Boards of Trade, whose idea it was to make these meetings a joint one between the Business Man and the Farmer, was warmly congratulated on his success.

WOOD-MUTCH. — Miss Annie Isobel Mutch, daughter of Mrs. Mary Mutch, Cherry Valley, P.E.I., and Alexander Wood, son of Mrs. Alex. Only the immediate friends and relatives were present. The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Peterkin. The couple were married in the drawing room under an attractive arch of palms, ferns, potted plants and cut flowers, lilacs and sweet peas predominating. The bride was attended by little Jean A. Peterkin, her niece, and little Alice Blain, who acted as flower girl and ring bearer, frocked in white and carrying baskets of pink sweet peas. The bride wore an ensemble suit of checked charmeen with figured silk dress. Her hat was a smart New York model. Her costume was completed with a black fox fur and corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas. Miss Olive Pattison played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin and also played softly while the register was being signed. At the buffet luncheon which followed the ceremony, Mrs. Peterkin was assisted by Mrs. H. S. Brown and Mrs. H. J. Mutch, Bladworth. The table, centred with the wedding cake, was brightened with delicate pink carnations and sweet peas Mr. and Mrs. Wood left at noon for Edmonton, Calgary and Banff. On their return to Saskatoon they will reside at Parkview Apartments.

::The Oil for the Athlete—In rubbing down, the athlete will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil an excellent article. It renders the muscles and sinews pliable, takes the soreness out of them and strengthens them for strains that may be put upon them. It stands pre-eminent for this purpose, and athletes who for years, have been using it can testify to its value as a lubricant.

IN MEMORIAM

(Littleton Courer.)
(June 25 1925)

We believe that no higher tributes could be paid to the memory of Miss Margaret Nicholson than those offered by her associates.

I wish to say in respect to the memory of Miss Nicholson how much I have enjoyed her personality and her work in the hospital. We have lost a woman of the highest ideals and one we are going to fine it hard to replace.—Dr. R. L. Giles.

In the passing of Miss Nicholson, we doctors of Littleton and vicinity have lost a most able and efficent head of our hospital and a true and sincere friend. Her loss to this community is a real calamity. Her memory we shall cherist as an inspiration in our future. —Dr. A. T Downing.

Through the death of Miss Nicholson, the Littleton hospital has lost a capable executive, an impartial superintendent, one whose cheerful and friendly presence will long be missed by patients and physicians. —Dr. J. M. Page.

Miss Margaret Nicholson was a daughter of Mr. John Nicholson of Dundas and Superintendent of the Littleton Hospital.

HON. ALBERT P. PROWSE

The funeral of the late Hon. Albert P. Prowse was held from his late residence Monday afternoon June 22nd, 1925. It was one of the largest attended funerals held in the community for a number of years, and revealed the large number of friends which the deceased had in the community and other parts of the Province.

The service was in charge of the Rev. W. M. Ryan, of Charlottetown assisted by the Rev. M. D. McDonald of Murray River. The whole service was a splendid tribute to a fine citizen and a splendid type of manhood. The United Choirs of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, had charge of the music, and rendered very nicely the favorite hymns of the deceased, "There is a Land of Pure Delight." "Abide With Me," "Our Souls are in his Mighty Hand." After the service at the home, the remains were taken to the Murray Harbor, Cemetery, where Interment was made.

The pall bearers were Wallace White, Henry Sencabough, Wm. Richards, Fred C. LeLacheur, Hampen Hawkins, Henry Penny. The flower bearers were five boys from the Sunday School class of the deceased, of which school he was Superintendent, for a number of years. MRS. PERCY KEEFE.

The Angel of death entered the home of Mrs. Adolphus Turner, on June 10th 1925 and claimed as its victim her eldest and dearly beloved daughter Susan wife of Percy Keefe of Little River.

Deceased had been in failing that medical attendence and the loving care of a devoted mother and sister was done to prolong her life but God willed otherwise and on the above date her spirit took its flight to him who gave it she died as she lived trusting in her Saviour.

All through her illness she consoled her loved ones with the blessed assurance that she was going to her heavenly home where there is no pain or death.

Her death at the early age of twenty-four years is deeply regretted. She leaves to mourn besides her husband and baby six months old, her grief stricken mother and one sister Mary also two brothers namely Wallace and Homer at home.

The funeral was held on June the twelfth and was largely attended. Services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Vincent. Following were the pall bearers:—Lorne Keefe, Bobby Blackett. Harry Morrow, Wallace Down. Malcolm McLeod and Eveyln McPhee. When all that was mortal of a true friend was laid to rest in the Cemetry at Dundas beside those of her father who predeceased her by two years.

MRS. CATHERINE McGINN

On Sunday morning, June 14th there passed to her eternal reward one of Emyval's oldest and most highly esteemed citizens in the person of the late Mrs. Catherine McGinn. The deceased was born and lived the whole of her long life of seventy-one years in the district of Emyvale. For many years past she had been known by the familiar name of "Mother," and not without reason, for her tenderness to all fully merited for her the many good things that are contained in the sweet name of "Mother."

Her simple and loving disposition, her readiness to lend a helping hand, her devotedness to duty are a few of her many good qualities for which she will long be remembered. Although the end came sudden, yet it did find her unprepared.

During her last illness she was frequently visited, and spiritually attended by her pastor Rev. Joseph Gallant, and also by Rev. Fr. Callaghan, —a young priest to whom she had always been a true and faithful friend, and who was present at her bed-side when her soul returned to Him who had created it.

The chief mourners are her three sons:— Dr. W. J. of Kingspark Hospital N. Y., James B. of Roxbury, Mass., and Daniel on the homestead; and her two daughters Mrs. Aeneas Clarken, Emyvale, and Mary at home. Also two brothers, Michael Connolly of Ch'town, William Connolly of South Carolina; and two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Dougherty and Miss Mary Connolly, both of Emyvale.

Her funeral took place on Wednesday, June 17th, to St. Anns' Church, Lot 65 where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Fr. Callaghan.

The pall bearers were:—James Coady, Peter Callaghan, Frank Costello, F. W. Hagan, Tobias Coady, and Ephriam Costello.

Mass cards were received from —Mr. and Mrs. James B. McGinn; Mr. and Mrs. Aeneas Clarkin; Mary McGinn; Mrs. Mary E. McCloskey; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Fitzsimmons; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hagan and family; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Callaghan and family; Ada Griffin; Bertha Murray and Margaret Griffin.

Spiritual Offerings by:—Mr. and Mrs. Francis McQuaid; Mr. and Mrs. Michael McCaffrey; Mrs. Alice Griffin; Mrs. Susan Connolly; Jean Haughey; Mary McCaffrey; Mary Murray; and Mathias Callaghan.

Letters of sympthy from:—Mrs. Jane McRory and family; Tena McCloskey; Teresa Clarkin and Evelyn McGillivary.

May her soul rest in peace.

GRATTAN MURRAY

The death of little Grattan Murray, the seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murray, City which occurred on June 18, was the cause of great sorrow not only to his family and their immediate friends, but also to others who knew him and to whom he had become endeared.

He had just reached that interesting time in his childhood when it became necessary for him to mingle with other children of his age in a class for instruction, and in September of last year he was enrolled as a pupil in one of the primary grades of Queen Square School.

It was not long before Grattan had won the love of both teachers and pupils. His innocence and the charm of his sweet disposition elicited the affection of all who knew him; and ever in his first months in school he exhibited an intelligence that marked him as a most promising pupil.

In June Grattan was taken suddenly ill, and although hope was entertained for his recovery, he died two weeks later.

The great loss that his family have sustained is appreciated by those who grieve with them, though they must feel a less poignant sorrow. The loss of little Grattan Murray is also the loss of a sweet influence that a beautiful childhood unconsciously exerts. And although, for his family, the spiritual consolations are great, the sympathy of the community goes out to them in the great natural sorrow with which they have been afflicted.

The funeral which was held on Saturday, June 20th, was attended by the pupils of Queen Square School, the little classmates of the deceased following the hearse as mourners. The pall bearers were Joseph McMillan, Desmond O'Leary, Leo Corcoran, Charlie Praught, Arthur Hogan, and John McGuigan. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Maurice McDonald and Rev. P. McMahon conducted the service at the grave.

The following tributes were received.

Mass Cards:—Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mooney; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Monaghan; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hughes; Miss Mamie Trainor; Miss Gertrude McAulay; Mrs George McGuigan and family; Miss Rosenary McCardle; Desmond O'Leary and Leo Corcoran; Master Maurice McTague (2); Mrs. J. R. Hogan.

Spiritual Offerings:—Mary, Joseph, Benedict and Leo Callaghan; Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Mahar and family; Arthur J. Hogan; Dorothy and Gladys O'Brien; Thomas and Eddie Walsh; Joseph and Stephen McMillan; Mrs. H. Connors and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McKinnon and family; Miss Mary Mooney; Teacher and pupils of Dame; Teacher and pupils of Grade ten, Notre Dame.

Floral Offerings:—Crescent, The family; Cross, Master Edward Paquet; Wreaths, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; Mechanical Department, P. E. I.
