

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

TUESDAY

The many friends of Mrs. William A. MacCallum regret to hear of her continued illness in the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

Mrs. Esther T. Webster, of Free-town is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, where she will undergo an operation.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. R. C. MacLean who celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Thursday of last week.

Dr. A. L. Purdy of Alberton has returned to his home after having spent a few weeks visiting friends and relatives in New York, Ontario and Halifax.

The first round of a 21-gun salute was fired at exactly twelve noon yesterday from Fort Edward in Victoria Park in honor of the birthday of His Majesty King George VI. The salute was fired by detachments of the 28th L.A.A. Regiment, R.C.A., under the command of Lt. Col. G. G. K. Peake, D.S.O., E.D.

SAD NEWS RECEIVED - Mrs. C. P. Stewart and Mrs. Perley Mutch, Southport, have received the sad news of the sudden death of their sister Elizabeth (Mrs. L. H. Wood), who passed away on Sunday, June 6, at her home at Palo Alto, California. Mrs. Wood, who was born on the homestead at Southport, had been absent from the island for about forty years. She is survived by her husband and one son, Joseph, as well as by another sister, Lillian, at Long Beach, Cal., and four brothers, William, in Port Arthur, and Fred, Bert and Harry in Vancouver.

FUNERAL HELD MONDAY - The funeral of the late Edward Holland, aged 92, who died in the City Hospital on June 5, took place from the Frank Henessey Funeral home on Monday morning to St. James Church, Georgetown, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Owen Kiggins, who also conducted the services at the grave. The pallbearers were Mrs. B. MacLaren, Phillip Morrison, George Keenan, W. A. MacDonald, Earl MacLaren, A. Corrigan, Interment church cemetery.

The Rev. Louis Dooley, son of Mr. Edward Dooley and the late Mrs. Dooley, Charlottetown, was ordained a priest of the Roman Catholic Church last Sunday by the Most Rev. James Boyce, Bishop of Charlottetown. His Excellency was assisted by the Rev. R. G. Ellsworth and the Rev. J. W. McCordie, Chancellor of the Diocese. The Rev. Patrick McMahon, Rector of the Basilica, was Master of Ceremonies. Father Dooley was assisted by Rev. P. F. MacDonald. Present in the Sanctuary were the Rev. Bernard Gillis, Rev. Dr. J. P. E. O'Hanley, Rev. Earl Dalton, and the Rev. David MacTague.

FUNERAL SATURDAY - The funeral of the late Arthur MacKay was held from his late residence, 288 Grafton St. on Saturday afternoon. Services at the home were conducted by Rev. T. E. MacLennan, assisted by Rev. Dr. H. C. Rice. The pallbearers were John Court, Gerald Murray, John Conway, John Gordon, Sinclair MacKay, Wallace Swan. Services at the grave in Tyne Valley were conducted by Rev. S. M. MacDowell. Pallbearers at Tyne Valley were John W. Palmer, Harry MacKay, John Miller, Arthur Smith, Hugh Smith, Edgar Henderson.

Bright sunshine, lovely spring flowers and soft music played by the organist Miss Lillian MacKenzie made a delightful setting for the marriage in St. James Presbyterian Church yesterday morning at ten o'clock of Miss Margaret Rebecca MacIntyre, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Heath MacIntyre, Charlottetown, and Staff Sergeant Rollin L. Bonham, United States Airforce, son of Mrs. Samuel S. Gibson and the late Mr. Albert V. Bonham of Cotter, Arkansas, U. S. A. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. E. MacLennan in the presence of a large number of invited guests and interested friends.

The pretty bride wore a graceful wedding dress of nylon sheer with yoke and bodice of violet eyelid embroidery and carried an exquisite bouquet of red roses and baby's breath. Mrs. Gordon Bell attended her sister as matron of honor, wearing turquoise corded taffeta. She carried a nosegay bouquet of mixed flowers. Mr. Donald MacIntyre, brother of the bride, acted as groomsmen, while Mr. Donald MacLeod and Mr. George Rogers ushered. The bride's mother chose for her gown silver grey crepe, with silver fox fur and chic hat. After the ceremony a delightful reception was held at the Charlottetown where warmest congratulations were extended. The toast to the bride was given by Mr. P. S. Cobb and nicely responded to by the groom.

In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Bonham left by car on a honeymoon visit to the groom's home in Cotter, Arkansas, the bride travelling in a lilac gaberdine suit with smart hat and dainty corsage. They will make their home in Mobile, Alabama. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. J. W. Murdoch, Mrs. J. W. Carruthers, Dr. and Mrs. Frewson MacIntyre all of St. John's, and Miss Emily Smith of Montreal. Delightful good wishes are extended by the Guardian.

Mrs. Donald Chisholm (nee Connie Denny) and son Brian left by plane yesterday on return to Toronto, after an enjoyable vacation with Mrs. Nicholson, Montague, and Mr. William Crockett and Mr. Walter MacQuarrie spent the holiday week end in Antigonish where they visited Mr. Stuart Curry, who is a member of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce there.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burns of Kensington and Mrs. Rose Hickey of Charlottetown, motored to Sackville on Tuesday to meet the latter's sister Miss Betty Abbott who arrived from England on the Aquilania.-K.

Mr. Sefton Dickson arrived back from Halifax last Wednesday after completing his training at the Canadian Vocational Training School. He has now taken up a position with his uncle, Mr. N. H. Richards.

An additional water supply of one million gallons daily for the citizens of Charlottetown will be complete as an accomplished fact, this being the laying of one and one-quarter miles of 14 inch pipe has been completed and a new pumping station has been constructed.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of the late Henry L. Mullett was held yesterday afternoon. A short service was held at his late residence, 263 Fitzroy St. The Rev. Dr. H. C. Rice officiated. The Rev. Horace MacEwen, Interment Birch Hill cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. James Rankine, Seymour MacInnis, Vernon Jenkins, Leo Haynes, William Jenkins, Harry A. MacDowell.

SUDDEN DEATH - Her family and friends were deeply shocked Sunday morning when a telegram to her mother, Mrs. R. B. Norton, announced the sudden death of her daughter, the wife of Mr. Murray MacKenzie of Pictou, N. S. Mrs. MacKenzie had not been in good health recently but her illness was not considered dangerous. She leaves to mourn besides her husband and family, her mother and sisters, Mrs. E. R. Boyer and Miss Rheta Norton of this City, to whom deepest sympathy goes out. Mrs. Boyer left yesterday to attend the funeral in Pictou today.

CHISHOLM - McKINNON - A pretty June wedding was solemnized at the Kensington United Church on Wednesday, June 3rd, at 6 P. M. when Reona Rebecca Jean Chisholm, daughter of Mrs. Mabel Chisholm and Harry Frances McKinnon of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McKinnon of Charlottetown were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Louis Murray. The church was decorated with a profusion of spruce flowers and potted plants. The bride's friends of the bride, the bride attended the church on the arm of her brother Mr. Robert Chisholm who gave her in marriage. She was charming and winsome in her wedding gown of white sheer georgette, white veil and arm bouquet of pink roses. Her sister Alfreda was bridesmaid and she was also given in white and carried an arm bouquet of red roses. Mr. Robert McKinnon was groomsmen for his brother.

The condition of Joseph Praught of Grand River, who is a patient in the Prince County Hospital following an accident near Grand River bridge on Sunday evening, was described last night as good. While painfully burned about the chest and arms by gasolene, he is not seriously injured. There was no fire, it was explained. Mr. Praught's clothes became saturated with gasolene, causing what was described as second degree burns. The accident occurred about 6:30 when a 1940 Ford truck driven by Arnold Praught, with Joseph Praught and James MacDonald as passengers, turned over, coming to a standstill upside down. The driver, Arnold Praught who was driving, was caught by the legs between the steering wheel post and the body of the cab and it was with great difficulty that he was removed. His body was quite badly bruised and he is receiving treatment at home. James MacDonald luckily escaped injury. The cab of the truck was badly smashed.

On Thursday morning June 3rd the chapel of St. Dunstan's College was the scene of a double ceremony of Religious Reception and Profession of the Sisters of St. Martha. His Excellency, Most Rev. Bishop Boyle, assisted by Rev. J. P. E. O'Hanley and Rev. F. L. Cass, officiated and gave the religious habit to five young ladies. At the Communion of the Mass which followed eight novices made their first profession of vows, later receiving from the hands of His Excellency, the Bishop, their crucifixes and black veils signifying their renunciation of the world and their admission as professed members of the Congregation. The young ladies who received the habit with their nemes in religion were: Wanda MacDonald, Sister Mary Gregory, Cliffland, Sister MacIsaac (Sister Isabelle Claire), Cherry Valley; Hilda Gordon (Sister Mary Leo), St. Charles; Bernadine Kelly, Sister Michael (Marie), Morell; Theresa MacKay (Sister Mary Gemma), Greenmount. The Sisters making profession were: Sister Mary Joanne McCarville, Kinkora; Sister Mary Ian MacLellan, Indian River; Sister Marie Monica Turner, Hope River; Sister Helen Justin Hughes, Bedford; Sister Helen Joseph Trainor, Kinkora; Sister Frances Chabini Schultz, Brighton, Mass.; Sister Mary Ambrose, Corcoran, Pluisville; Sister Mary Fidelis Gellant, Bloomfield Station.

Other officers elected were: Deputy Grand Knight, Louis Butler; Chancellor, Rev. Dr. R. G. Ellsworth; Recorder, J. Russell St. John; Treasurer, Gerald Morrison; Advocate, Walter Morrison; Warden, Fred DeCoste; Inside Guard, Wendell Mullins; Outside Guard, Claud Carr; and Trustee, Clarence MacGuigan. The report of the Council's activities for the past year was read by Grand Knight Dr. J. A. MacMillan.

Other officers elected were: Deputy Grand Knight, Louis Butler; Chancellor, Rev. Dr. R. G. Ellsworth; Recorder, J. Russell St. John; Treasurer, Gerald Morrison; Advocate, Walter Morrison; Warden, Fred DeCoste; Inside Guard, Wendell Mullins; Outside Guard, Claud Carr; and Trustee, Clarence MacGuigan. The report of the Council's activities for the past year was read by Grand Knight Dr. J. A. MacMillan.

Other officers elected were: Deputy Grand Knight, Louis Butler; Chancellor, Rev. Dr. R. G. Ellsworth; Recorder, J. Russell St. John; Treasurer, Gerald Morrison; Advocate, Walter Morrison; Warden, Fred DeCoste; Inside Guard, Wendell Mullins; Outside Guard, Claud Carr; and Trustee, Clarence MacGuigan. The report of the Council's activities for the past year was read by Grand Knight Dr. J. A. MacMillan.

Miss Muriel Richards, who for the past seven months has been interned at the Toronto General Hospital, arrived home last Monday to spend her three weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Richards.

RECEIVED MASTER'S DEGREE - Among those receiving a Master of Science degree, department of Composition, at the commencement exercises of the Julliard School of Music, New York City, last week was Mr. William Keith Rogers, Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wright left yesterday by motor for Chatham, Ont., to spend some time with their son Rev. H. K. Wright. Later on they will travel on to Cape Ann, Mass., where Mr. Wright is to join a summer school of painting for some weeks.

Mr. D.J. Boudreau of Montague was the winner of the 1948 Dodge car lotteried at the conclusion of the Kinsmen Spring Carnival at the Amorettes Saturday night. The winning ticket was picked from the big drum by 11-year-old Shirley Matheson of 39 Grafton Street.

FUNERAL SUNDAY - The funeral of Mrs. Keith Tomlinson was held on Sunday afternoon from Trinity United Church. Services were conducted by Rev. T. E. MacLennan. The pallbearers were, Ira Gey, Robert MacKinnon, George Newman, Austin Graham, William Warren, George MacDougall. Her remains were transferred on Monday morning to Harvey Station, N.B. for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace MacFarlane, Summerside, returned to their home on Beaver Street on Thursday evening after an enjoyable vacation with relatives and friends in Boston, Mass., and vicinity. They were accompanied by Mrs. MacFarlane's mother, Mrs. Colin Ramsay, Montague. En route they stopped over in Augusta, Maine, to visit Mr. MacFarlane's aunt, Mrs. Lulu Cunningham S.

MASONIC VISITATION - Illustrious Deputy Dr. Fred L. Wallace of Halifax, paid his official visitation to Albert Edward Lodge of Perfection, A.F. and A.M., Summerside on Friday evening. He was accompanied by Illustrious Brother Laurie Ellis, Halifax and Illustrious Brother L. M. MacKinnon of Montague. The meeting was held in the Lodge Rooms at eight o'clock with Thrice Puissant Grand Master Harry MacFarlane presiding. The meeting was addressed by Illustrious Deputy Wallace. Following the meeting dinner was served in the Baptist Church Hall followed by a social evening.

WEDNESDAY - Miss Sybil Nicholson, who has spent the winter months in Toronto is visiting in Montague, guest of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Nicholson.

The contract for the paving of the road between Summerfield and Fredericton was awarded yesterday to the Island Construction Company, Ltd.

IN HOSPITAL - Friends of Mr. W.W. Cox of St. Avaris and formerly of Morell will regret to learn he has entered the Prince Edward Island Hospital for treatment.

Other officers elected in addition to the president were: Vice-president, Sister Mary Irene; secretary, Miss Vera Darrach; treasurer, Sister Mary Magdalen, re-elected.

Mrs. Lois MacDonald was re-elected president of the Prince Edward Island Registered Nurses Association at the annual meeting held yesterday. Sessions opened at the Cuddell Home in the afternoon and concluded with dinner at the Charlottetown Hotel. Approximately 80 nurses attended.

Mr. Charles Gauthier passed to his eternal rest at North Rustico on May twenty-seventh, at the age of seventy-three. Mr. Gauthier was a life long resident of North Rustico and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him, and in his passing, the residents of North Rustico Harbor have lost a kind friend and neighbor, for he was always willing to lend a helping hand.

Mr. Charles Hogan was elected president of the Kinsmen Club of Summerside at the regular meeting of the club held last evening in Leo Coyle's Restaurant. The rest of the executive, which will take office on September 1st, is as follows: vice-president, Norman Hogg; secretary, George Olscamp; treasurer, David Carnegie.

Directors, Roy Johnson, Harry Dickie, Francis McNell. Past president, Elmer Murphy.

Lieut.-Col. Leo F. McDonald was elected Grand Knight of the local council of the Knights of Columbus at the annual meeting held last night and presided over by Grand Knight Dr. J. A. MacMillan. Other officers elected were: Deputy Grand Knight, Louis Butler; Chancellor, Rev. Dr. R. G. Ellsworth; Recorder, J. Russell St. John; Treasurer, Gerald Morrison; Advocate, Walter Morrison; Warden, Fred DeCoste; Inside Guard, Wendell Mullins; Outside Guard, Claud Carr; and Trustee, Clarence MacGuigan. The report of the Council's activities for the past year was read by Grand Knight Dr. J. A. MacMillan. The meeting closed with prayer by Rev. Father Simpson.

Friends of Mrs. Norman MacDonald, Whim Road, will regret to learn she has entered the King County Memorial Hospital where she will undergo treatment.

His many friends are glad to see that Mr. Sandy Reynolds has returned home following a few weeks spent in the Prince Edward Island Hospital where he underwent treatment.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of the late Mrs. Frederick Roberts was held yesterday afternoon from the Cutcliffe Funeral Home. The service was conducted by the Rev. T. E. MacLennan assisted by the Rev. H. C. Rice, D.D. The pallbearers were Leonard Roberts, Willard Roberts, Robert Ford, Ivan Ford, Vernon Ford, and John MacAleer. Interment was in Winsloe North Cemetery.

SAD NEWS RECEIVED - Mrs. C. P. Stewart and Mr. Perley Mutch, Southport, have received the sad news of the sudden death of their sister Elizabeth (Mrs. L. H. Wood), who passed away on Sunday, June 6, at her home at Palo Alto, California. Mrs. Wood, who was born on the homestead at Southport, had been absent from the island for about forty years. She is survived by her husband and one son, Joseph, as well as by another sister, Lillian, at Long Beach, Cal., and four brothers, William, in Port Arthur, and Fred, Bert and Harry in Vancouver.

The death of Mr. John Shea, Anglo-Tignish occurred at his home on Thursday evening, June 3rd after an illness of three weeks. Mr. Shea was a prominent farmer and a man very well liked by all who knew him and he will be greatly missed in the community. His wife pre-deceased him two years ago. Remaining to mourn his loss are three sons and three daughters, the sons are Harold and Guy, living in Anglo-Tignish and Howard who resided with his father, the daughters are Mrs. William Chloches, Nell Pond, Mrs. Emmett McCue, Albert and Mrs. Wallace Reedy, Christopher's Cross.

Six nurses, three from Falconwood Hospital and three from the Provincial Infirmary, last night received their diplomas at a well attended graduating ceremony held in the auditorium of Falconwood Hospital. The graduates who were addressed by Dr. P. A. Creelman, superintendent of the Provincial Sanatorium, were: Thelma Mary Veronica Arsenault, Cape Egmont; Mildred Eunice Griffin, Montreal, P. Q.; Olive Belle Wood, Cornwall.

Provincial Infirmary, Mary Pearl Folland, Bradshaw; Isabelle Beatrice Matheson, Hunter River; Reta Vernita Mutch, Cherry Valley.

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER - Mrs. Joseph Linkletter and Mrs. Gordon Comeau of Summerside were joint hostesses at a shower given in honor of Miss Elaine Gault (niece) to become a June bride. Little Miss Gerene Gallant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. LeRoy Gallant, and Master Louis Polier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Polier, dressed as bride and groom wheeled in a heavily laden carriage with lovely gifts. Miss Una Gallant opened the gifts and read the accompanying verses. Miss Gallant graciously thanked one and all for their lovely gifts. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and games. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses. -S

The death occurred in Somerville, Mass., on May 28th, of Mrs. Ralph Gaudet (nee Elizabeth McInnis) in her seventy-first year. She was the daughter of the late Angus and Rose McInnis of Southport. Her husband, Ralph Gaudet predeceased her over six years ago. She leaves to mourn one son Angus of Greenwood, Mass., and three daughters Mrs. John McKenna and Mrs. Manford Robertson both of Somerville, Mass., and Mrs. John Kelly of this City; also two brothers, Hugh McInnis of Iowa, U.S.A., and William McInnis of this City, and four sisters, Mrs. Michael Brennick with whom she made her home in Somerville, Mass., Mrs. Owen McGarry of Southport, and Sister Mary Casella of British Columbia.

At the P. E. Island Hospital, Charlottetown on Wednesday, June 2nd, there passed peacefully to his eternal rest Mr. Arthur MacKay in the 93rd year of his age. Mr. MacKay was born at Freeiland, Lot 11, on Dec. 14, 1855. His marriage to Eliza Ellen Henderson was on March 4, 1880. His wife predeceased him six years ago at the age of 86 years.

The burial was at Freeiland, where the service was conducted by Rev. S. M. MacDowell in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The choir sang Rock of Ages and The Christian's Goodnight. The pallbearers here were Messrs. Harry MacKay, Arthur Smith, H. D. Smith, Edna Henderson, John Miller, John Egimer.

There are left to mourn two daughters, Mrs. Reuben Rogerson of Summerside, Mrs. Austen Burns of Walkham, Mass., and five sons, James of Vancouver, B. C.; Rev. Alexander of New Mills, N. B.; Claude of Montague; Gordon of Charlottetown and Stirling of Albany. One son, Harold died some years ago. One brother Dr. Wilson MacKay resides in Vancouver, B. C. The floral tributes so kindly sent by organizations, friends, and relatives were many and beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor, Low-er Montague, have as their guest, Mr. Taylor's sister, Miss Mary Taylor, Jamaica Plains, Mass. On her return she will be accompanied by Mrs. Ida MacFarlane, who will remain in U. S. A. for six months.

Little Joan MacDonald, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. MacDonald of Unionville who has been a patient in the Children's Hospital in Montreal for the past seven or eight weeks and has had two operations on her throat is coming along splendidly and is able to return home in a very short time. Her mother was informed. Joan is a very popular girl and an active member of the O'Leary C.G.I.T. and Sunday School of the United Church.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of the late Mrs. Archibald MacEachern was held yesterday afternoon from her residence, Cornwall, where services were conducted by Rev. J. T. Ibbot and Rev. Mr. Charman. Interment was in St. Peter's Anglican Cemetery, Mr. Ibbot officiating at the grave. During the service at the home in Cornwall, Rev. J. T. Ibbot sang as a solo "Beyond the Sunset." The pallbearers were: E. J. Trainor, Fred Moore, W. P. Bruce, Hazen Howard, Richard Drake and Lorne MacPhail.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bagnall and family, Hunter River, motored to St. Peter's Bay Sunday where they were the busy guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McLeod and family.

Mr. J. Ernest Cousins met with a painful accident recently, while working in his work shop. His hand caught in an electric saw which he was using. The cut required several stitches.

WON MATRON'S PRIZE - Mrs. Sadie Garrick, matron at the Provincial Infirmary, donated the prize for the leading graduate student nurse, won by Miss Mary Pollard, of that institution, at the graduation exercises held at Falconwood Auditorium on Tuesday night.

FUNERAL SERVICE - The funeral of Matilda Ioliand took place yesterday morning from the Frank Henessey Funeral Home to St. James Church, Georgetown, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Owen Kiggins, who also conducted the service at the grave. The pall bearers were Messrs. E. B. Jenkins, John Leightner, A. W. McLaren, Colin MacDonald, Philip Morrison and A. Corrigan. Interment was in the Church cemetery.

BIRTHDAY PARTY - On Tuesday evening, June 8, a number of friends of Mr. Hugh F. Morrison, Summerside, gathered at his home on Green Street to extend to him greetings and best wishes on the anniversary of his birth. He was the recipient of several lovely gifts for which he thanked all in his usual genial manner. Contests were conducted and games played, honors going to Mrs. Thos. D. Carruthers, Mr. David Walker, Dr. L. M. Calbeck and the guest of honor. Refreshments, including the candlelight birthday cake, were served by the hostess, Miss Jean MacFadyen, assisted by Mrs. Ernest L. Walker. The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" with Mrs. L. M. Calbeck at the piano brought a delightful evening to a close. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Lowther, Carleton. -S

On Monday evening at 7:00 at Trinity United Church the marriage of Audrey Myrtle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Watts, Charlottetown, to Donald Lewis Brehaut, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Brehaut, Charlottetown, was solemnized by Rev. T. E. MacLennan. Mr. J. B. Lewis sang "O, Perfect Love" and the wedding music was played by Mr. A. Roy Kendall, organist. Tulips and pastel carnations were arranged in the church for the double wedding ceremony. Mr. Watts gave his daughter in marriage. She was attended by her sister, Miss Wilma Watts as bridesmaid, and Mrs. Freda MacDonald as matron of honor. The groomsmen were Mr. Blair Brehaut and the ushers were Mr. Gregory Lambros and Mr. Clarence Foster.

The bride wore a pearl-toned satin gown with train. The lace-edged bodice had a sweetheart neckline, and finger-tip sleeves. A crown of blue pearls held her shoulder-length veil in place. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a shower bouquet of American beauty roses. The matron of honor wore a gown of turquoise net. Her head dress was of matching flowers. The bridesmaid, the bride's sister, chose a gown of deep pink in Edwardian design with a full skirt sweeping back into a bustle. She wore a pink crown headdress embroidered with seed pearls. Both their bouquets were of white and pink carnations.

Mrs. Ira Lewis, the bride's eldest sister, chose a brown dress with green accessories and she wore a corsage of red carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Milton Brehaut, wore a tailored black suit and her corsage was of yellow roses. The reception was held at the Charlottetown Hotel, later Mr. and Mrs. Brehaut left on a motor trip through the Maritime Provinces. For travelling the bride chose a black and white checked dress, short black coat with pink hat and accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Brehaut will live in Charlottetown. Mrs. Elizabeth Matthews, widow of the late James Matthews passed away at the home of her daughter Mrs. Fulton Thompson, with whom she had been residing, May 6th at the age of 87 years. Except for a brief illness previous to her death, Mrs. Matthews had enjoyed a healthful and useful life. Her absence will be felt greatly by her numerous friends. Mrs. Matthews was born in Bideford, P.E.I., daughter of John Sage and Barbara Grant. Left to mourn are two daughters, Annie, Mrs. Fulton Thompson, of 361 Kent St., Charlottetown, and Lillian, Mrs. McLure of River, New Brunswick, also three sons, William, Howard and Clifford of River Hebert, N.S.

Mr. Daniel Matheson, who spent a few days at his home in Bristol, left on return Monday for Fairview, N. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMillan and son Charles of Fredericton, N. B., motored to Hunter River for the May 24th holiday. They visited Mr. McMillan's brother, Elmer and his sister, Mrs. Ivan Bowman, in Kensington they visited Mrs. McMillan's relatives.

BROTHER IN VANCOUVER - Dr. Wilson MacKay of Vancouver, is the only brother living of Mr. Arthur MacKay of Charlottetown whose obituary notice appeared yesterday. The Doctor's name was not given in the list of surviving relatives.

On Friday evening friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stead to honor their daughter, Mrs. Ken McDonald. Esther received lovely gifts and many good wishes. Dancing was enjoyed, music being furnished by the Dolron Bros. Lunch was served by Mrs. Stead assisted by several ladies.

The death occurred at the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Saturday, April 24th, of John Stetson of Marshfield, the eldest son of the late Thomas Stetson and Isabelle MacGregor in his ninety-first year. Mr. Stetson leaves to mourn two sons Gordon in Highfield; Leslie in Dunstaffnage; a brother Archibald residing in Edmonton, Alberta. His wife Mary Elizabeth Ferguson nee Cook, Mrs. McLeod has been staying with her son, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLeod.

NAMED MARITIME REGIONAL ADVISERS - The Canadian Welfare Council elected new members to its board of governors and regional advisers during meetings at Hamilton, Ont. The four Maritime regional advisers elected were Col. P. S. Fielding of Charlottetown and Mrs. E. A. Warnford and C. R. Wasson, Saint John. Others elected to the executive include: Col. P. S. Fielding, Charlottetown; L. B. McKinnon, Halifax; J. E. LeBlanc, Saint John.

Mr. J. Ernest H. Worth of Charlottetown was elected president of the Prince Edward Island Pharmaceutical Association at the annual meeting yesterday, held at Keppoch Beach Hotel. Pharmacists from all parts of the Province attended.

Other officers include, vice-president, Henry W. Wedge, Summerside; secretary-treasurer, R. H. Jenkins, Charlottetown; treasurer, R. E. Giegey, Charlottetown; auditors, C. G. Heechen, Kensington, and H. L. Bethune, Charlottetown; Canadian Pharmaceutical Association delegates, E. P. Foley, Summerside, and R. H. Jenkins, Charlottetown.

The annual banquet of the Benevolent Irish Society was held last night at the Whelan Memorial Hall. A large number of members and their friends attended. Among the distinguished guests were His Honor, Lieutenant, Governor J. A. Bernard and Miss Edith Bernard, Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan and Mrs. MacMillan. The president, J. J. Connolly presided.

Mrs. Foster Skerry placed her young daughter, Jean, in Western Hospital, Alberton, for treatment. Jean was suffering with a severe cold and developed an infection in the throat, but the trouble clearing. They are her removal to hospital as it will be but a short time before she will again be back to her studies in the Tignish convent.

Mr. A. E. Ascott, C.B.E., President, Mrs. James Stewart, C.B.E., General Manager and Mr. W. H. Blackstock, Superintendent of the Maritime and Newfoundland branches, Canadian Bank of Commerce, arrived in the City last evening. They are meeting a number of Charlottetown citizens at a luncheon in The Charlottetown hotel today.

At the annual meeting of the Prince County Hospital Ladies Aid, held in the nurses home, Summerside on Wednesday afternoon, the present slate of officers and the same representatives from the different churches were re-appointed. Officers are: president, Mrs. Heath Strong; vice-president at large, Mrs. C. H. Stewart; secretary, Mrs. Donald Lidstone; treasurer, Mrs. Keith Compton.

C. N. R. OFFICIALS HERE - Messrs. S. F. Dingle, chief of transportation, and S. W. Fiolotte, superintendent of export traffic, C. N. R., Montreal, were in the city yesterday on official business. This was Mr. Dingle's first visit to the Province, and he expressed keen interest in the Island's tourist attractions. Accompanied by Mr. L. J. MacDonald, division freight and district passenger agent, they called yesterday upon His Honour Lieutenant Governor Bernard and Premier J. Walter Jones and made numerous other personal contacts.

Mrs. Elizabeth Matthews, widow of the late James Matthews passed away at the home of her daughter Mrs. Fulton Thompson, with whom she had been residing, May 6th at the age of 87 years. Except for a brief illness previous to her death, Mrs. Matthews had enjoyed a healthful and useful life. Her absence will be felt greatly by her numerous friends. Mrs. Matthews was born in Bideford, P.E.I., daughter of John Sage and Barbara Grant. Left to mourn are two daughters, Annie, Mrs. Fulton Thompson, of 361 Kent St., Charlottetown, and Lillian, Mrs. McLure of River, New Brunswick, also three sons, William, Howard and Clifford of River Hebert, N.S.

BREAKS THUMB - It is regretted that Carl Delaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Delaney, Summerside, had the misfortune of breaking his thumb from which he is suffering much pain. -S

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McLean of N. S. came by motor to spend the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bellars.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Shea of Springhill, N. S., accompanied by Mrs. Shea's mother, Mrs. Earl Simpson of North Rustico were visiting in Hunter River on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Shea arrived on the Island by motor on Saturday.

Mr. Rod Ford of Wheatley River has purchased a house and lot from Mr. George Smith. After completing alterations to the house, Rod, Mrs. Ford and little daughter June will take up residence here. Rod is employed with G. E. Full.

ROTARY MEETING - The regular meeting of the Summerside Rotary Club was held on Tuesday at the Coyle's Restaurant with the president, Mr. J. H. Strong, presiding. Mr. Eddie of Toronto was a guest. It was decided to purchase Rotary signs to be placed at the entrances to town. -S

Friends of Mrs. Roderick McLeod will regret to learn that she is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital. It is pleasing to report that Mrs. McLeod is much better and it is hoped she will return home soon. Mrs. McLeod has been staying with her son, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLeod.

The annual banquet of the Benevolent Irish Society was held last night at the Whelan Memorial Hall. A large number of members and their friends attended. Among the distinguished guests were His Honor, Lieutenant, Governor J. A. Bernard and Miss Edith Bernard, Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan and Mrs. MacMillan. The president, J. J. Connolly presided.

Mrs. Foster Skerry placed her young daughter, Jean, in Western Hospital, Alberton, for treatment. Jean was suffering with a severe cold and developed an infection in the throat, but the trouble clearing. They are her removal to hospital as it will be but a short time before she will again be back to her studies in the Tignish convent.

Mr. A. E. Ascott, C.B.E., President, Mrs. James Stewart, C.B.E., General Manager and Mr. W. H. Blackstock, Superintendent of the Maritime and Newfoundland branches, Canadian Bank of Commerce, arrived in the City last evening. They are meeting a number of Charlottetown citizens at a luncheon in The Charlottetown hotel today.

At the annual meeting of the Prince County Hospital Ladies Aid, held in the nurses home, Summerside on Wednesday afternoon, the present slate of officers and the same representatives from the different churches were re-appointed. Officers are: president, Mrs. Heath Strong; vice-president at large, Mrs. C. H. Stewart; secretary, Mrs. Donald Lidstone; treasurer, Mrs. Keith Compton.

C. N. R. OFFICIALS HERE - Messrs. S. F. Dingle, chief of transportation, and S. W. Fiolotte, superintendent of export traffic, C. N. R., Montreal, were in the city yesterday on official business. This was Mr. Dingle's first visit to the Province, and he expressed keen interest in the Island's tourist attractions. Accompanied by Mr. L. J. MacDonald, division freight and district passenger agent, they called yesterday upon His Honour Lieutenant Governor Bernard and Premier J. Walter Jones and made numerous other personal contacts.

Mrs. Elizabeth Matthews, widow of the late James Matthews passed away at the home of her daughter Mrs. Fulton Thompson, with whom she had been residing, May 6th at the age of 87 years. Except for a brief illness previous to her death, Mrs. Matthews had enjoyed a healthful and useful life. Her absence will be felt greatly by her numerous friends. Mrs. Matthews was born in Bideford, P.E.I., daughter of John Sage and Barbara Grant. Left to mourn are two daughters, Annie, Mrs. Fulton Thompson, of 361 Kent St., Charlottetown, and Lillian, Mrs. McLure of River, New Brunswick, also three sons, William, Howard and Clifford of River Hebert, N.S.

Mrs. Elizabeth Matthews, widow of the late James Matthews passed away at the home of her daughter Mrs. Fulton Thompson, with whom she had been residing, May 6th at the age of 87 years. Except for a brief illness previous to her death, Mrs. Matthews had enjoyed a healthful and useful life. Her absence will be felt greatly by her numerous friends. Mrs. Matthews was born in Bideford, P.E.I., daughter of John Sage and Barbara Grant. Left to mourn are two daughters, Annie, Mrs. Fulton Thompson, of 361 Kent St., Charlottetown, and Lillian, Mrs. McLure of River, New Brunswick, also three sons, William, Howard and Clifford of River Hebert, N.S.

Mrs. Elizabeth Matthews, widow of the late James Matthews passed away at the home of her daughter Mrs. Fulton Thompson, with whom she had been residing, May 6th at the age of 87 years. Except for a brief illness previous to her death, Mrs. Matthews had enjoyed a healthful and useful life. Her absence will be felt greatly by her numerous friends. Mrs. Matthews was born in Bideford, P.E.I., daughter of John Sage and Barbara Grant. Left to mourn are two daughters, Annie, Mrs. Fulton Thompson, of 361 Kent St., Charlottetown, and Lillian, Mrs. McLure of River, New Brunswick, also three sons, William, Howard and Clifford of River Hebert, N.S.

Mrs. Elizabeth Matthews, widow of the late James Matthews passed away at the home of her daughter Mrs. Fulton Thompson, with whom she had been residing, May 6th at the age of 87 years. Except for a brief illness previous to her death, Mrs. Matthews had enjoyed a healthful and useful life. Her absence will be felt greatly by her numerous friends. Mrs. Matthews was born in Bideford, P.E.I., daughter of John Sage and Barbara Grant. Left to mourn are two daughters, Annie, Mrs. Fulton Thompson, of 361 Kent St., Charlottetown, and Lillian, Mrs. McLure of River, New Brunswick, also three sons, William, Howard and Clifford of River Hebert, N.S.

Miss Priscilla Gavin, a student at Mount Allison University, Sackville, N.B. has come from college to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard Gavin, Tignish Village.

Friends of Mrs. John Cameron, public health nurse at Tignish were sorry to hear of her illness which necessitated her entering Western Hospital, Alberton, for treatment, but will be pleased to know she is greatly improved.

Miss Marjorie Howlett, nurse-in-training at the St. John, N. B. Hospital is spending a short vacation at her home in O'Leary, the guest of her parents, Rev. C. O. and Mrs. Howlett. -O

Mr. and Mrs. Prosper Perry of Reading, Mass., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Fidele Perry, Summerside, on their way to Duvar where they will spend the summer at