

Closing Of City Schools For Holidays

Amid the joyful shouts of children, free at last for the summer holidays, Charlottetown City schools closed their doors Thursday.

All schools were well attended by parents and visitors at the closing exercises. At Prince Street School, Mayor E. A. Foster, of the School Board, presided; at West Kent, Mr. J. W. Boulter; Queen Square, Dr. I. J. Yeo; and at Rochford Square, Mr. H. MacPhee and Mr. Reuben Macdonald.

Children heard addresses on many subjects at the closing exercises, but the main theme of most speakers was a sincere wish for a happy holiday.

Following was the program at Rochford Square School. Chorus—"The Year's Work"; Dialogue—"How we Play—Classmates"; Piano Duet—"On to Triumph—Spend the Day"; Folk Dancing; Recitation—"Vacation"; Song—"We'll Go Along Together"; Awarding of Diplomas and Prizes.

Class Song—"We'll Be True"; Valuedictory—Pauline Whelan. Programs of the schools appeared throughout the day in the Guardian. Following were the certificate, medal and prize winners at the various schools.
