

NOTHING AS GOOD

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Everywhere are Curing where Other Means Have Failed.

Every day the fact grows more apparent that there is no substitute for Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. Nothing else is a good whether for Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Distress after Eating, Pain in the Stomach, Biliousness, Indigestion, or any other sign of disorder of the digestive system.

Every day letters come telling how other medicines and treatments were tried but everything failed, until a cure seemed beyond possibility, and despair stared hope in the face. Such a case was that of Mr. William Bogie, proprietor of the well-known Waverley House, Montreal.

Mr. Bogie was afflicted with dyspepsia for many years as so many hotel proprietors are. Now it is not to be supposed that a man in his position would try everything in medicine to be had for money to get cured? Mr. Bogie did try everything—everything but Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, and everything failed.

A FABLE IN SLANG

Story of the Youth Who Started in Dead Wrong.

By M. A. N. H.

Once Upon a Time a Boy left the Meadows to Seek his Fortune in the Big City.

His Parents who were Rich but Refined had Nothing to Spend but Money and Nothing to Eat except Food.

Boy rolled into the G. C. Depot in a Parlor Car and Every Day out had taken Three Meals in the Buffet at One Fifty Per. Moreover he complained that the Conveniences on the Central were Sloppy. The Ordinary Reader will see that Everything was Dead Wrong about this Youth's mode of entry into the Big City.

If he hadn't been a Hopeless Imbecile he should have known that the Only Way is to Trudge in Barefoot with Forty Cents in your Ragged Trousers.

Only a Perfect Idiot, one who was Shy on the Sunday School Books would ever dream of Blowing into Town in a Parlor Car with Bundles of the Green Parcel in Every Pocket. To do so would be to Court Disaster.

All the successful Men of To-day will are Rung In on the pages of the Northern Messenger and Youth's Companion ditto that way. Not only did it Mascot them all into Bloated Capitalists, but only for their Pictorial Style of Entry they could never have Got Next to their Employer's Beautiful Daughter who gave all her other sisters the Metallic Laugh and Refrigerated Gaze so that she might Wed the little Ootsy-Wootsey who at this time sold cigars in her Pa-pahs store and who once Trudged in Barefoot from the Country.

The Ordinary Reader will Observe what a Dismal Handicap the Youth mentioned in the Set-Out of this Modest Tale was Up Against.

But ten years later He had a House on the Avenue and was Spoken of as a Successful Ice man.

Readers who know anything of the New York Ice man will find a Wink as Good as a Nod.

GENTLEMEN,—I fell from a bridge leading from a platform to a loaded car while assisting my men in unloading a load of grain. The bridge went down as well as the load on my back, and I struck on the ends of the sleepers, causing a serious injury to my leg. Only for its being very fleshy, would have broken it. In an hour I could not walk a step. Commenced using MINARD'S LINIMENT, and the third day went to Montreal on business, and got about well by the use of a cane. In ten days was nearly well. I can sincerely recommend it as the best Liniment I know of in use.

Yours truly, C. H. GORDON.
