MARY PICKFORD'S
"POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL"

NEW YORK TELEGRAPH said:

"The production is a genuine credit to Mary Pickford, Maurice Tourneur and its authors, and the work of a well-chosen cast also deserves comment. The lavish settings, fine photography, lighting and tinting effects, combined with a story that is novel, full of humor and pathos and subtly instructive, make it one of Mary Pickford's best—perhaps the most satisfactory picture, ever detail considered, in which she has ever appeared."

NEW YORK HERALD said:

"... Needless to say, Gwen is a typical 'Little Mary' role, giving every opportunity for the Pickford point, smiles, curls and cute mannerism. Miss Pickford's playing of the appealing role has much charm, and the Art-craft Film Corporation evidently spared no pains to give it an artistic production."

NEW YORK EVENING SUN said:

"'Little Mary' Pickford is pre-eminently qualified to interpret sympathetically the woes of 'A Poor Little Rich Girl,' and she did so to the entire satisfaction of her most ardent admirers yesterday at the Strand."

"The settings for the photoplay are elaborate. There are many amusing moments of real comedy in the picture. There seems to be no limit to the illusion of extreme youth which Miss Pickford is capable of producing and the 'Poor Little Rich Girl' will be better liked than any of Mary Pickford's recent pictures."

"A Poor Little Rich Girl"

From the Play, by Eleanor Gates

This is the Long Awaited Picture that Every Parent Will Take Their Children to See.

She was rich—yet poor; she lived in a mansion—yet she was lonely; her playmates!—she had none at all; and then—across the sweet mind of youth came the vision of happiness of the other kind of child. A story that no other than Mary Pickford can tell in pictures.

NEW YORK TIMES said:
"The fact that Mary Pickford acted the title role in the 'Poor Little Rich Girl' added to the interest of the translation into movie form of one of the most imaginative plays the American stage has produced."

REDUCING EXPENSES.—The Railway management some time ago ordered a reduction of the hands on the Car ferry to 47 instead of the full complement of 79 men employed when the steamer was first put in commission as an icebreaker. Since going on her present route she has been worked by 59 hands all told; this means that twelve men must be removed and the cutting down took place last week. Five others went out in sympathy with these but their places were soon filled and the ship is again fully manned.

My Limbs Would Twitch

And Waken Me—Unable to Rest or Sleep. I Walked in Nervous State When Specialists Failed. I Found a Cure.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 31.—This is the kind of cure that has set Windsor people thinking and talking about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The action of this food cure is so radically different to the usual treatments for the nerves that everybody wants to try it. Gradually and certainly it nourishes the starved nerves back to health and vigor and the benefits obtained are both thorough and lasting.

Mrs. M. Smith, 27 Arthur street, Windsor, Ont., writes: "I was suffering from nervous breakdown, which was caused by a shock when fire broke out in the adjoining house. My nerves were in such a state that, after going to bed I could not get my nerves quieted down sufficiently to go to sleep. I used to get up and walk around the room, or go downstairs. Even when I would be dropping off to sleep my limbs would twitch and waken me. I used to have a cold, nervous, night sweats, sometimes would become unconscious and lie that way for quite a little while. It was always cold and it seemed impossible for me to get warm or keep warm. When on the street I would see two or three objects at once, and did not want any person to speak to me or bother me. Any little noise irritated and annoyed me very much. I had consulted specialists and tried many remedies during this time, but could not gain relief. At last I tried Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and before long could see that this treatment was proving of benefit. I am now feeling so much better than I can go on the street without any difficulty, can go across the river and go about the farm as usual. I sleep well at night, and am feeling more like myself every day. I am pleased to be able to write you to tell you how much good the Nerve Food has done me. It has strengthened and built up my whole system. I am recommending it to everybody I find suffering from nervousness of any kind."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.75, all dealers, or Edmansop Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

HALLOWEEN TEA AND BAZAAR.—The Halloween Tea and Bazaar opened by the Ladies Auxiliary of St. Dunstan's Cathedral last night was very largely attended and a complete success. An excellent tea was provided, while the bazaar was very generously patronized. Both tea and Bazaar will be continued this evening.

QUEEN MARY'S NEEDLEWORK GUILD.—An appeal was made some time ago for donations to the Queen Mary's Needlework Guild and there has been a somewhat generous response. As these donations are to be forwarded by November 9th the Guild respectfully asks that those who purpose contributing do so at their earliest convenience. Clothing for children, soap, toothbrushes, tooth paste, towels etc. will be gratefully received on behalf of the Guild by Miss Haviland, Upper Prince St.

SUCCESSFUL TEA.—The Halloween Tea in St. James Church last evening was another of the successes for which the ladies of St. James Guild are famous. There was a large attendance and the viands provided were generous and "good to eat" while the gentle lady waiters performed their arduous duties most acceptably. The Guardian understands that the funds, which were for patriotic purposes, were fully up to expectations.
