

FAVORITE HYMNS

AND THEIR WRITERS
By Rev. Archer Wallace

NO. 24

"SHALL WE GATHER AT THE RIVER"

The author of this hymn, Rev. Robert Lowry, D. D., is very much better known as a composer of music than as a hymn-writer. He was the editor of ten or twelve of the most popular Sunday School song-books ever published, and these he contributed a large number of tunes and several hymns.

Sunday Sermonette

"As the days so shall thy strength be"—Deut. 33:35.

It is well that at the beginning of the New Year we keep in mind that the blessing of God with all its help and comfort is promised each one.

THE THREE GREAT FAITHS OF LIFE

A NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE

By Rev. John P. MacPhie.

Best wishes for the New Year. May it bring to you and yours the fullest measure of health and happiness and success. A new year is a new chance to give things and to do things. It will have its burdens and duties. To make it a victorious year let me suggest that you do three things, first:

Have Faith in Yourself.

You must believe in yourself, if not, no one else will. The world will take you at your own valuation. Don't make yourself too cheap, or put yourself on the bargain counter. You are in the world for a purpose. You are here to do a good honest day's work for God and man. Now go ahead and do it. Play your own game, but your own job is done. This is the challenge to men and women everywhere.

Have Faith in God

This is the third great faith and the greatest of them all. Faith in God ties us to him, ties our weakness to his strength. It is vital and essential. We can't please God or man without it. Faith in God is a great life power, a life holder and keeper. It was faith in God that took you through the storms and the death of 4000 years because he made all that time. It was the mummy of Ramses the great in the Museum in Egypt. My friend, God wants you. He has faith in you. You have only a short time to do your work. Find your work and do it with all your might and show the world that you are a man.

Have Faith in Others.

This is the second great faith of life. Do your very best yourself and help the other fellow to do better. You can't live a full life without others. You need your fellow men to make a success of life. Faith in others will give you strength and courage. Put it down in your book right now, that there are good people everywhere. Have faith in the power of God on go and that there is a road to every man's heart, as sure as the sun shines, there is a road through every woman's heart, and the road is not half as crooked as the road to a man's heart.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Mr. A. S. MacKay, Summerside, had the misfortune to get his hand badly scalded on Christmas Eve. In order to facilitate delivery of purchases to the customers of Brace McKay & Co., and enable the help to get through their work as early as possible he put his personal car into service. The radiator was filled with a non-freezing solution and showing signs of overheating, Mr. MacKay removed the cap. Live steam and liquid flew out with the regrettable result stated.

ISLANDER DEAD

The death of Ernest Kerr of Winborne, Alberta, took place at his home December 14th. Mr. Kerr is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Helen White of Alberton, and two children, Gordon and Helen. Mr. Kerr and his two brothers came to this district and settled twenty-one years ago—where for a time he ranched—but later devoted his energies to wheat. During these days, and was respected and beloved by all. For the past two years he had not been in good health, and this fall went to the hospital for treatment, and underwent an operation, which for a time gave some relief, but he gradually grew worse till the end came. During Mr. Kerr's sickness, the community as a whole has been very kind and sympathetic, and at the funeral, though a severe storm was raging at the time, every home was represented. The services were conducted by Rev. H. G. Hartz. The many friends of Mrs. Kerr in Charlottetown and Alberton extend their sympathy and kind regards in their sad bereavement.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY

The funeral of the late Honourable James A. MacNeill which took place at Summerside yesterday morning was one of the largest ever seen in that part of the Island, people coming from the mainland and different parts of the province to pay their last tributes of respect. Services were held in St. Paul's Church which was crowded to capacity. A list of a number of people were unable to obtain admission. The members of the Town Council, the C. M. B. A., Knights of Columbus, the Workmen's Association and the Firemen marched in a body. A High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Monsignor J. C. MacLean, V. G., with Rev. J. J.
