

MONTAGUE, SOURIS and KING'S COUNTY

Schr. Sir Louis, Blackmore, mas-tored 116 tons of coal and sailed for Souris, P. E. Island.—Sydney Record.

There were no changes in the Montague market prices yesterday.
The heavy snowstorm of Thursday left large drifts on the roads, making it very difficult to traverse, but when broken down the roads will be in perfect condition for sleighing.

The Guardian correspondent at Souris reports the roads around that vicinity to be in a very bad condition. The storm of Thursday night left high drifts of snow across the roads making travelling almost impossible. The storm continued all day yesterday and was unabated at the report in the afternoon. It will probably be a few days before the roads are fit for travelling.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 14, 1910, at seven o'clock, the residence of Alexander and Mrs. Hunter, Strathcona, was the scene of a double wedding when their only daughter, Leah Mary, was united in marriage to H. Gregor Guild, of Nova Scotia. Miss Ethel May Robertson, eldest daughter of James Robertson, of Mount Hope, became the bride of John M. Paterson, of Brookline, Mass. Rev. M. N. Mac-Leod officiated, both couples were unattended. The house was nicely decorated for the occasion, only the immediate friends being present.
Miss Hunter received a number of delightful gifts, among which was a nice rug from the Strathcona Sunday school where she was a teacher for a number of years. Both the young ladies were highly respected and will be much missed in the vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Guild left for Lottetown yesterday morning for Nova Scotia where they will reside while Mr. and Mrs. Paterson proceeded to Brookline, Mass., their future home. The Guardian offers the young couple heartiest congratulations.

OBITUARY.

On December 9th, 1910, George Murdoch of Murray River passed peacefully away to his eternal reward. Although his sufferings, during the last six months, were of the most severe kind, yet all was borne with Christian patience and entire resignation to the will of Him who doeth all things well. Having experienced the regenerating power of the Holy Spirit he was enabled through grace to say "Thy will be done." Besides a widow (nee Annie Livingstone) he has left to mourn four sons, David P. in Vancouver; Gavin Murray River; Laurie W. at Murray River; Sarah, in Providence, R.I., and Mrs. (Dr.) Brehaut of Can-but has been home for the last few months; James W., in the employ of Moore & McLeod, and one daughter, Mrs. Blue of Little Sands; one brother, David of Melville, and four sisters, Mrs. James Sanders and Mrs. George W. Livingstone, both of Murray River; Sarah, in Providence,

lais, Maine, besides a large circle of friends and neighbors, by whom he will be greatly missed. In the Kirk Church at Murray River he was always in his place, performing the sacred duties of an elder, to which office he was ordained some years ago.
The funeral services were performed by the Rev. D. McLean and a large number gathered on the 11th to show their respect for one who had lived among them from infancy. The remains were gently carried and laid in their last resting place by John Lowe, Angus McPhee, Jas. White, Norman White, Charles Dutney and George McKay. Mr. Murdoch was in the sixty-eighth year of his age at the time of his demise.—Com.
