ARTHUR COLEY LIVES

Not Dead, as Many of his Friends thought he would be.

SWAN LAKE, MAN., Jan. 28.—A young man is living here today whom many people in and about Somerset, Man., no doubt think to be in the grave. His name is Arthur Corey, and when he left Somerset in 1894 he was in the last stages of Bright's Disease and Diabetes. "Many will be surprised, I am sure, to find that I am alive," says Mr. Corey, "for I was utterly prostrate with Bright's Disease and Diabetes. I did not expect to live. Now I am able thankfully to say that the pain and weakness are unknown to me. I am a farmer, and can now do as hard a day's work as anyone, whereas being using Dodd's Kidney Pills I was given up to die with Bright's Disease and Diabetes. This was in 1894. I am well to-day. Dodd's Kidney Pills saved my life. They cure to stay cured."

No Trifling With the Nerves.

When you can't sleep at nights and toss in misery longing for daybreak to come, do not yield to the temptation to use morphine, cocaine or other opiates. They only hasten decay.

Let reason rule. Get right down to the foundation of the trouble and build up the system by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

This great restorative is in pill form and contains the very elements of nature, which go to form new red corpuscles in the blood and create new nerve cells.

It is worth while to remember that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is not a patent medicine, but the greatest prescription of Dr. A. W. Chase, author of the famous receipt book.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is an up-to-date, scientific preparation which has proven itself to be specific for all nervous diseases. It cannot fail, if used persistently, because it actually rebuilds and revitalizes the wasted nerves. It is especially recommended for its peculiar to women, because they almost invariably arise from exhausted nerves. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box at all dealers, or by mail.

ELECTION TRIAL OF MARTIN VS MCKINNON

Dr. Pugsley Applies to Have Mr. Martin Produce in Books.

THE EXAMINATION HIS RESPONDENT ENDED.

Interest Still Intense and Court Room Crowded—$25 Wanted for a Vote but not Obtained—One Voter Had a Drink and a Half—Bruce Leitch Now on the Stand—The Full Day's Proceedings.

WEDNESDAY, 30TH.

Court resumed at 10.30. Dr. Pugsley called the attention of the Court that Mr. Martin had not yet produced his books in compliance with subpoena duces tecum served upon him.

Master Longworth appointed the evening of 31st at 8 o'clock as the time when Mr. Martin would be required to have his books before him for his examination.

Examination of Mr. D. A. McKinnon was then resumed by Mr. A. A. McLean. He was at Glen William poll on election day and found Deputy Returning Officer there when he arrived. He was elected to the Legislature in 1893. He was not in the Legislature when present election law was passed. On the morning of the late Dominion election after arrival at the Glen William poll he sent for the ballot box. He supposed that he had read the election law. Mr. McKinnon then produced to the Court conditions of sale of Graham and McPherson lands upon which he claimed right to vote. He also submitted the deed of another piece of land on which he claimed he also had the right to vote. He refused to qualify at the local election of 1897 at Murray Harbor poll because he would not submit to the prejudice of the agent. He voted, however, at Montague Bridge at same election. Mr. McLean questioned Mr. McKinnon upon the instructions given to Liberal agents relative to qualifications and asked him (McKinnon) to identify a copy of instructions which he submitted.

Mr. McKinnon said the instructions submitted looked like the ones in his office. He had not compared them and could not say they were the same.

The different conditions regarding title to property were then entered into at length. Upon suggestion of Mr. McKinnon witness left the Court and returned with his ledger and receipt book containing stub and read an account relating to a third piece of land in possession of John and Hugh McDonald. He took a note of hand from Hugh and John McDonald for $50.40 to pay off land office. There is still due McKinnon about $27 and interest.

McLean—What land did you vote on at Dominion election? Dr. Pugsley objected to question. After argument by Mr. Stewart and Dr. Pugsley, the Court disallowed the objection. Mr. McKinnon said he intended to vote on the properties in Lot 61. The properties are not in Glen William poll. He did not have a certificate from the returning officer. He might have property in Lot 63, but would not swear until he looked into the matter.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Court resumed at 2 p. m.

The examination of Mr. D. A. McKinnon was resumed by Mr. McLean. He had looked through letter book but owing to the short time at his disposal he had handed the book to his clerk and came to Court to be ready to be examined. He did not know whether all letters to Mr. McMillan were in the letter book.

To Dr. Pugsley—He thought as a candidate he had a right to vote and with regard to the farms known as the Graham and McPherson properties he considered they were his. The Graham property was worth $100. Annual revenue $30 or $40. He sold it to McKinnon and received $100 on account. He considered McKinnon a tenant at will. The McPherson property is worth $300. The annual revenue $40 or $50. He supposed that he had a deed or he would not have voted.

Mr. McLean then tendered the condi-clerk. He had carried barrels of flour, cornmeal, etc. He did not carry any liquor of any kind between months of October and November. He did not carry liquors for Mr. Haszard or on his order. He did not get any liquors from Angus McDonald. There was no parcels landed for him (McMillan) by any other schooner or conveyance.

To Mr. Peters.—He ran the regular government packet and carried all the freight he could get.

John McSwain (sworn) examined by Mr. Stewart. He lived at Flat River and voted at Belle Creek.

He knew John R. McRae and saw him almost every day before the election. He had talked with him about the election at his own house about two days before the election. McRae had a bottle of whiskey with him. McRae asked him if he thought McKinnon would have more of a show than Martin. McRae spoke to him several times before the election. He did not know whether McRae canvassed his son or not. He never saw McRae driving McKinnon. He did not think McRae gave him liquor on more than one occasion. He got a drink from Dick McRae on day of election. No liquor was left at his house. He did not know where John McRae went to.

William Fitzsimmons (sworn) examined by Mr. McKinnon. He lived at Johnson's road and voted at Monaghan poll. He knew Capt. Wisener and saw him the night before election, and talked about election affairs. Wisener asked him if he was going to vote for McKinnon and he said he wanted $25. He came down in price and offered to take $10. Wisener told his daughter to treat witness and himself. He did not see Wisener or send anyone to see him. It was rumored that Wisener was connected with headquarters. He saw Wisener going around with some parties. Mr. Wisener is captain of the ferry boat.

To Dr. Pugsley.—Mr. Wisener's father keeps a mill and he was at his place with a grist. He knew Messrs. James and Francis Trainor, Martin's agents. He attended a committee meeting of the Conservative party and in addition to committee, Mr. Martin was present. At that meeting parties to come to town in connection with nomination were selected. He was asked to look after some votes supposed to be purchasable. Lived at Drumore, about three miles from the poll. He had suggested $25 as a sum for which he might support McKinnon. Wisener said it was too much. Ten dollars was then suggested by witness. Was not offered any money. Was surprised at the charge made.

By Mr. Stewart.—There was a hint that witness might receive an envelope.

By Dr. Pugsley.—Wisener did not promise to send an envelope. He made no promises.

George Singleton sworn and examined by Mr. McLean. Lived at Flat River and voted at Belle Creek last election. Saw Finlay McRae at the poll. Had no liquor from him. Saw him after voting. Can't say whether McRae treated. Supposed he had a drink but only one—it tasted good. Cook's place is a short distance from the poll. Walked there alone. Frank Wood, Finlay McRae and others were there. McRae told witness to go there. Might have had two drinks or one and a half. (Laughter) Thought Johnny McRae drove him to the poll. Walked home. McRae is next neighbor to witness. Got no whiskey or money from John McRae or Finlay McRae.

By Dr. Pugsley.—McRae as a neighbor called for witness and took him to the poll. Finlay McRae asked him into Cook's to rest. That was all that took place.

James McMillan sworn and examined by Mr. Stewart.—Had a conversation with Bruce Leitch before the election about his vote. Was asked to drive voters to the poll. Witness' brother is lighthouse keeper. Went to see Mr. McKinnon about a letter. Witness promised to vote for McKinnon. Could not say whether the conversation about lighthouse was before or after he promised to vote.

Cross-examined by Mr. Peters. Leitch came and asked witness to vote for Mr. McKinnon. Witness said he would vote but would not drive voters.

Mr. McLean—Lives in Stanhope; was deputy returning officer. Was a delegate to the convention and took part in the nomination. McKinnon was at witness place during the election. Drove around Stanhope to see the friends. Did not commend him. Witness introduced and he spoke for himself. Probably asked some people to vote for McKinnon. Was at James and Donald McMillan's. Was with him two hours. Went no other place but Stanhope but did what he could for McKinnon. Had no whiskey money and treated no one. No liquor money was sent to witness' house by any other person. Is director of the local Liberal Association. It had only one meeting, which was to appoint delegates. Probably received letters. Does not remember reading a letter to the McMillans. Might have done so. Probably told them the contents. It was not about a lighthouse. In all likelihood it was about the election.

Witness was still on the stand when the Court adjourned at 5.15 o'clock.
