-LOWER FREETOWN INSTITUTE—The Lower Freetown Women's Institute held their annual meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 19th, at the home of Mrs. Scott Jardine. The President presided and the meeting opened with the O.G. and Creed. Nine members answered to a call by "their mother's maiden name". The Secretary then gave her report of the year's work. No report from the School Committee. The Sick Committee reported three boxes of fruit sent to sick in the district. As there was no further business, the election of officers took place as follows: President, Mrs. Scott Jardine; Vice-President, Mrs. J. Elton Cairns; Secretary-Treasurer, Muriel Burns; Organist, Lois Cairns; Directors, Mrs. F. L. Cairns, Mrs. Russell McCaville and Mrs. J. J. Stavert; Auditors, Mrs. F. L. Cairns, Mrs. D. M. Bernard; School Committee, Mrs. Gordon Burns and Mrs. Roy Lidstone; Sick Committee, Lois Cairns, Mildred Jardine. It was decided at this meeting for a certain sum of money to be given this committee to have on hand for fruit. Collections amounted to 46 cents. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the retiring President and Secretary-Treasurer. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Cairns. Roll call will be answered by paying fees. It was decided to have a Christmas programme for the December meeting. Meeting closed by the National Anthem, after which lunch was served by the hostess and much enjoyed by all.

-CHICKEN SUPPER AND BINGO—The ladies of the Little Pond Altar Society had a very successful chicken supper at the home of Mr. Allan McKenzie on Thursday evening, Oct. 30th. There was a large attendance, although the night was most unfavorable. Those present enjoyed themselves at bingo, and with musical selections. The table, which groined with delicacies, was a feast to the eye as well as to the palate. The snug sum of seventy-six dollars was realized.

-MACDONALD AND QUINN NUPITALS—A quiet marriage ceremony was performed in St. Bernard's Church, Moncton, Oct. 14th, when Mr. Henry J. MacDonald, of Little Pond, Prince Edward Island, was united in marriage to Anastasia May Quinn, formerly of Cardigan, P.E.I., late of Boston, Mass. Rev. Father Brown performed the ceremony. The bride, who was becomingly attired in a sand crepe ensemble, was unattended. After a short honeymoon in the Maritime Provinces, they returned to the Island and motored to the home of the groom's brother, Mr. Joseph A. MacDonald, where a reception was held, the immediate relatives and neighbors were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The bride was a very successful teacher in this province for a number of years. The groom was a graduate of St. Dunstan's University in 1925. Their numerous friends and relatives wish them a "bon voyage" through life.

-PIUSVILLE INSTITUTE—The annual meeting was held on Nov. 27th at the home of Mrs. J. J. Corcoran. Sixteen members were enrolled and ten visitors were present. Meeting opened by repeating Creed and roll call answered by "Original Verses". The president reported satisfactorily. The Secretary's report stated that since May when our Institute was organized we had made $77.35 with which a pump had been dug, and other articles such as blinds, wash basins, kettle etc. had been bought for the school leaving a balance on hand of $25.00. The following officers were elected—President Mrs. John F. Gallant, Vice President Mrs. Ambrose Corcoran (both re-elected); Secretary, Miss Louise Arsenault, Treasurer, Miss Catherine Corcoran, Auditors, Mrs. Thomas Corcoran and Miss Lena Gallant, Directors, Miss Marguerite Corcoran, Miss Henrietta Gallant and Mrs. William Gallant. A very interesting program had been prepared by Miss Catherine and Miss Marguerite Corcoran. A guess cake realized the sum of $3.05. Next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Thomas Corcoran and roll call answered by "A New Year's Resolution". The following committees were appointed for visiting school Mrs. J. J. Corcoran and Mrs. Joseph T. Gallant and Mrs. Frank P. Gallant, for preparing a program, Miss Lena Gallant and Miss Henrietta Gallant. It was decided to have a grab bag at next meeting to raise funds for the new altar. It was proposed that each member should prepare a Christmas story or recitation for the next meeting. After the meeting a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess and then the members retired to their homes well pleased with the evening.

The members of the young Peoples Society held an interesting debate on Friday evening, Nov. 28th, the subject being "Resolved that modern amusements are beneficial to young people." The affirmative speakers were Ralph Bryenton, (leader), Alice Fraser and James Ramsay. The negative speakers were Ralph Bryenton, Gordon Rice and Marjorie Crozier. The judges, Mrs. Preston Ramsay, Mr. L. D. MacNutt and Mr. Ralph Beairto gave their decision in favor of the affirmative. The Rev. E. M. Aitken acted as chairman.

Mildred Aitken, little daughter of Rev. E. M. and Mrs. Aitken, who was taken suddenly ill on Saturday, Nov. 29th, was conveyed to Charlottetown the same day. She has been receiving treatment while there and it is pleasing to know that she is improving. Mr. Aitken returned to his home on Tuesday and it is understood that Mrs. Aitken and Mildred will return to their home on Saturday of this week.

In the absence of the Rev. E. M. Aitken on Sunday, Nov. 30th, the pulpit of the Princetown United Church was occupied by Dr. E. H. Ramsay, of Trinity United, Charlottetown.

Mrs. William Adams, Sea View, is visiting relatives in Charlottetown.

Misses Verna Cousins and Kathleen Profit are visiting here, the guests of Miss Margaret Ramsay.

Mrs. Howard Ramsay, Hamilton, who has been in Charlottetown, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ramsay, returned to her home on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. H. Woodside is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Sheen, Kensington.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Muttart, Master Elmer and Miss Helen, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson, Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Agnew, of Wilmot Valley, spent Sunday the guest of Mrs. Agnew's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair MacGougan.

Rev. W. E. and Mrs. Aitken, of Lot 16, were motorists here on Tuesday. Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stewart on the arrival of a young daughter.—M.
