KING GEORGE'S GRATITUDE.

LONDON, May 11.—The Cabinet has decided to introduce a bill amending the declaration of the King wherein he asserts his disbelief in transubstantiation and the adoration of the Virgin and the Saints, and that he makes his declaration, without mental reservation or dispensation from the Pope or other authority.

For the declaration that the foregoing doctrines and Mass "Are superstitious and idolatrous" it is proposed to substitute words, "Are contrary to my belief," and to omit all reference to the Pope.

While the representatives of the foreign nations are assembling for the obsequies of the dead Sovereign, various necessary formalities incident to the sad event are being gradually completed.

The widowed Queen has sent a touching personal message to the nation, writing in an unassuming style and recalling similar intimate measures which "Victoria" was in the habit of addressing to the people.

King George has addressed messages to the Navy and Army, expressing his thanks for their loyalty and devotion and his solicitude for the efficiency of both services.

A message has also gone from the King to the Indian Princes, and people, expressive of his profound gratitude for their sympathy.

IN MEMORIAM.

Many hearts are filled with sorrow on account of the somewhat sudden departure of Mrs. William Wallace McNeill of Hermitage, whose death took place early Monday morning, May 2nd, after only six days' sickness from pneumonia, but they do not sorrow as those that have no hope. She left a dear, bright, unimpaired testimony that she loved her Saviour, to whom her heart was given at the early age of fourteen, when she joined the Presbyterian Church at Annadale. In the absence of her regular minister, the Rev. George Orman, Methodist minister of Vernon River, was called in to visit her. On Sunday noon, May 1st, the end being apparently near, he read and prayed with her and the family and had the privilege and unexpressed pleasure of listening to her testimony which was clear and confident and he learns from her faithful and sorrowing husband that she had a triumphant departure. Mr. Orman also conducted the funeral service on Monday, May 3rd, at the house and at the churchyard at Birch Hill. Over fifty vehicles followed, testifying respect for the deceased and sympathy with the family. Agreeably to the departed sister's request the precious hymns, Nearer My God to Thee and Safe in the Arms of Jesus, were sung at the house. Many relatives and friends were present. Her husband, three young children, her mother, her father the late Benjamin E. Allen of Boughton Island, King's Co., (predeceased), two sisters, Mrs. Henry A. Stoddard of Clam Harbor, N. S.; Mrs. Daniel A. McNeill of Village Green, Lot 49.

Our sister sleeps in Jesus" and "they that sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him." She had only seen thirty-one birthdays, but it is not "how long we lived but how well." Oh may we triumph so "when all our warfare is past and dying find our latest foe beneath our feet at last."—Com.

"By the way—do you know that the sewing of hair switches has nearly "paralyzed" us since we opened the department. We had no idea that so many could be sold. We are selling a splendid 22 inch real hair switch for $2.50, which we will ask you to compare with anything at one half more.—Moore & McLeod. 5-11d31.

"That extra strength lock stitch net curtain that we offer you at $2.50 has a great many points in its favour. We could tell you of them here—but we can make them plainer in the store. Come in and let us demonstrate.—Makes no difference whether you want to buy or not—we are so proud of our lace curtain showing that we'd rather exhibit it than have a holiday.—Moore & McLeod. 5-11d31.

"Beer & Weeks advise intending users of their vacuum carpet cleaner to phone them at once and have an appointment made. Orders filled in rotation. Satisfaction guaranteed. Carpets are cleaned right on the floor—need not be taken up—and every particle of dust is removed—moths destroyed, and germs killed. Costs about the same as having carpets taken up and beaten by hand but is far more effective. 5-11drtf.

KEITH & PROCTOR'S FIFTH AVENUE THEATRE, WEEK OF MAY 16th, 1910.

For the week of May 16th, the Fifth Avenue Theatre, New York, will revert to the old policy of representing female headliners, and two well-known women artists will share first honors on the bill.

Dainty little Kathleen Clifford, late soubrette star of "The Top-O' The World" and "Betty in Dreamland" will essay a single turn, presenting an entirely new line of character delineation. Miss Clifford will combine her remarkable talents as a mimic with her clever vein of caricature, and it is said that her act will be a whole summer's sensation in New York. The young headliner will attempt masculine as well as feminine characterizations in costume of appropriateness, while the singing and dancing ends will be principal features of Miss Clifford's offering. Little Williams and Edmund Day form a great combination for entertainment. The latter has written a short play of "East Side Life," "On Stony Ground," and the former supported by a capable company, will appear in the sketch, "On Stony Ground" is not a conglomeration of mawkish sentiment and unattractive slang, but a little episode of direct dramatic interest, with interspersions of pure comedy. Miss Williams, who is quite a stranger to Fifth Avenue audiences may feel assured of a rousing welcome for her popularity has preceded her, and "On Stony Ground" will delight all of her old admirers and please her newly found ones. En- couraged by the huge success of the Imperial Musicians, Jesse Lasky is sending down his rather smart musical comedy, "The Country Club" an interlude of merriment which consistently improves with age. A score or more of versatile players are the component parts of the charming whimsicality. Several new songs and a completely new outfit of costumes are promised for the Fifth Avenue engagement. Next on the program, Leo Carrillo, monologist and brilliant entertainer, will hold the audience laughter-bound for about half an hour, while in about as much time, Fay, the 2 Coleys and Pay, immense Western comedians will present their original black face novelty, "From Uncle Tom to Vandevilla," and, as two old time managers were heard to say "Take it from us, folks, that act is some act." Henry Clive, assisted by Mae Sturges Walker is going to perform numerous difficult feats of acrobaticism, and he is going to keep the audience laughing all the time. Fred Zohadie, world's greatest juggler, and the Casting Dumbars, swiftest and most daring of high bar acrobats will complete the bill of acts, while the newest motion pictures of President Taft at a baseball game will wind up the entire program.

"There is an interesting little sale of nice wash suits and dresses for boys and girls going on at the store these days. Just a little sample lot that we gathered in by good fortune a few days ago—and selling at the factory price or less.—Moore & McLeod. 5-11d31.

An immense new range of prettiest frillings in latest cord effects and all other good new things have just been opened. Drop in the first time you want a frill.—Moore & McLeod. 5-11d31.

STYLE distinction is one of the characteristics of our suits from $12 to $25. Never was this clothing department in a better position to cater to the requirements of the fastidious dresser.

This showing of stylish suits for men represents the most popular patterns designed by experts. Then with all the new ideas, master workmen cut and tailored them to living models—so that every perfect figure line can be shown to the very best advantage, while every allowance is made for the ill-shaped figure.

There are many convincing arguments that could be mentioned in favor of the clothes but the most convincing argument we could present is the suits themselves. They have all the smartness that marks the work of expert tailors—and the price in every case is $5.00 less than you would have to pay for custom made suits. Other suits from $6.00 up.

"An occasional store into which you will drop for a pretty necktie will show you lines almost as pretty as ours. But not likely however that you will be shown the wide range and complete assortment—and in all probability you will be asked to pay 50c to 65c for lines of similar quality to our leader at 50c.—Moore & McLeod. 5-11d31.

"The very latest celluloid collar supporter is in from London. We are able to sell it for 5 cents each. Compare it with your mail order ten center.—Moore & McLeod. 5-11d31.

"Paton's silks at 45c in golden brown, Nile green, pearl grey, and champagne shades still left of their splendid silk offering at 45c yd. 5-10d31

Twenty Million Mark is Passed

For the first time in the history of life insurance in Canada the twenty million dollar mark of policies issued in one year has been passed. That the Sun Life has done this with largely increased profits and a reduced ratio of expense, makes pleasant reading for its army of policy holders.
