THOUGHTFUL ACT OF WAR GRAVES COMMISSION.— Great appreciation of the thoughtful consideration of the Imperial War Graves Commission for the relatives of deceased soldiers who have been buried in the military cemeteries of France and Belgium. is being expressed by those who have received an interesting book describing the cemetery in which their soldier relatives have been buried. Such a book has been brought to the attention of the Guardian by Mr. R. McIntosh of this city, whose son, Private J. C. McIntosh, is buried in the Wancourt British Cemetery, France. A number of other Islanders are buried in the same cemetery, including Lance Corporal T. J. Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cameron, Charlottetown, Private N. S. The Angel of death has once more visited Webster's Corner and claimed for its victim an aged and respected resident in the person of Angus McEachern at the advanced age of 89. The deceased had been in failing health for the past two years. About six months ago he was stricken with a paralytic stroke which necessitated his confinement to bed yet his friends did not anticipate the end was so near until the morning of Nov. 10th when he was seized with a second stroke which proved fatal The deceased bore his long illness with true christian fortitude ever resigning himself to his Divine Master and when the end came he meekly yielded up his spirit into the hands of the Omnipotent with full confidence of eternal reward. During his illness he was tenderly nursed by the loved ones in the home and frequently visited by his beloved pastor, Rev A. J. McDonald, who administered the last rites of the Catholic Church of which he was a valued member. The late Mr. McEachern was possessed of rare ability few were better read or could discuss matters more intelligently.

He leaves to cherish his memory four sons and two daughters namely: Alexander on the homestead, James and Aeneas in Boston Mass., Allan farming in Saskatchewan, Mrs. Margaret Curley and Mrs. Frances Martin in Lawrence, Mass., to all of whom we extend our sincere sympathy.

A few days ago The Guardian published an extract from a Winnipeg paper telling in very complimentary terms of the appointment of Clarence Sutherland Campbell of that city as Rhodes Scholar for the province of Alberta. It will be of interest to many in this province to know that Mr. Campbell is a grandson of the late Hector Campbell of DeSable, who taught school for several years in Argyle Shore and later in Centreville, Bedeque. While in Bedeque he married Miss Annie Crosby of Bedeque. Some years later went to Colorado where he died. His son, George Campbell when he had grown to young manhood went to Western Canada where he made good and became manager of the Beaver Lumber Northwestern Ltd., a position which he still holds. Clarence Sutherland Campbell, the Rhodes Scholar referred to is his son, his second name having been given him for the late Dr. Sutherland of Bedeque, a warm friend of the family.

While it might be too much to claim this distinguished young man as a "successful Islander abroad," he is a successful grandson of the Island and the many friends still living here of his grandparents will be proud to learn of his success and the distinction he has won for his family name.

St. Andrew's Day was celebrated yesterday by the Caledonian Club in their rooms, Richmond St., the event taking the form of a supper, followed by a dance. There was a crowded attendance, over one hundred sitting down to a splendid repast provided by the Ladies' Aid of the Orange Order, under the direction of Mrs. D. McLean. On account of the dance following the supper the Toast List was cut down to two, namely "His Majesty the King and the Royal Family," and "The Day an' A' Wha Honor It," the latter being responded to by ex-Chief James Paton, one of the oldest members of the Club, who maintains his enthusiasm, attending regularly all the meetings of the Club throughout the year, supplemented by a brief speech by Rev W. Bruce Muir.

The President, Mr. J. G. McFadyen, ably presided, and was supported by the Chief, Mr. T. F. White, and Mrs. White, and a large number of ex-Chiefs and other leading citizens, including His Worship the Mayor, Mr. R. H. Jenkins, M. P., and Mrs. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. James Paton, Rev. Mr. Muir, and Miss Muir. The vice chairs were occupied by Messrs D. J. MacDonald, John Anderson and F. C. Currie. Unfortunately His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, who regularly takes part in this annual function, was unavoidably absent owing to his being at present in Montreal visiting his daughter; and Premier Stewart was attending a convention at Murray Harbor. Hon. Dr. W. J. McMillan and Mr. W. Chester S. McLure, M.L.A., also sent apologies, having been prevented at the last moment from being present.

Reception Committee: The Chief and Mrs. T. F. White; the President and Mrs. J. G. McFadyen; the First Vice-President and Mrs. D. J. MacDonald.

The Haggis was brought in with the time-honored ceremony, carried by Clansman P. J. McDonald and preceded by Piper Groom, encircling the tables three times before being placed in front of the Chief. Burns' address to the Haggis was then recited by Clansman Allan Cosh in his usual effective and dramatic manner.

The President, in introducing the toast list, referred to the work of the Club during the past year, as follows:

At the regular monthly meeting of the Caledonian Club, held on October 27, the members were pleased to appoint me to the honorable position of President for the coming year, and therefore it is my duty and privilege to preside at this great function this evening. I esteem the honor very highly, particularly in view of the fact that many worthy and prominent citizens have occupied the same position on many former occasions. It is with the greatest of pleasure that I now extend to you all a most cordial greeting, and on behalf of the Caledonian Club, a most hearty welcome to this, our annual celebration of St. Andrew's Day. We are pleased to notice among the audience many familiar faces who have been with us on former occasions, as well as some that are new and welcome. The past year has been a successful one for the Club. Our membership has been increased by ten while at the same time we have been called upon to mourn the loss of one of our stalwart members, the late Joseph W. MacDonald. On February 24, the members went forth in mournful procession and paid their last tributes of respect to this worthy member. Owing to severe weather our annual Burns' Anniversary was not so great a financial success as on former occasions. But already a committee has been appointed, and we hope for a successful celebration in January, 1926. Owing to many other attractions we had to abandon our annual Scottish Gathering, but in its place we held a most successful picnic at Eldon. It is my duty and privilege to bring to your special notice and to refer briefly in a word of sympathy, to the great loss which the whole British Empire has sustained in the lamentable death of our great Queen Mother, Queen Alexandra. For a period of over sixty-two years this noble woman lived amongst us, and although she never paid Canada a visit, no part of the great British Empire was dearer to her than the Land of the Maple. When our noble sons went forth to fight in freedom's cause, she watched their every movement, and never a day passed that she did not perform some deed of kindness for the benefit of this worthy cause. In later years she became a great-grandmother, and her descendants for generations to come will call her blessed. The laborer's task is done, the day of battle is o'er, but her memory will long remain as that of the great Queen of a Great Empire. I am pleased to see that our friends in foreign lands and across the sea, have not forgotten us on this occasion, and many kind and hearty greetings have been received from the brother societies on the different parts of the continent.

The police are on the lookout for the missing boy and any information as to his whereabouts will be gladly received by his anxious relatives.

Under the guiding hand of Premier Stewart, the powerful machinery that set in motion the huge drill that will resistlessly penetrate in to the earth on Governor's Island in its patient search for the oil that every person in the Province is now anticipating, began to revolve yesterday afternoon about three o'clock, and will not stop again until the Henry L. Dougherty Company has either struck the "Flowing Gold" or until the enterprise is abandoned as unsuccessful.

Smith was stolen early Sunday morning by three individuals from front of Palmer and Watson store on Kent St. and, the Dr. next hearing of the car on Monday when he was informed by telephone that his coupe was ditched upside down on the side of the road near Dunstaffnage. The car is practically a total wreck, the windows, windshield and top being badly smashed. This practice of purloining cars is one of the basest of criminal acts and no doubt if the culprits are apprehended they will be given the full extent of the law. The Dr. said he had a clue as to the identity of the "trio" and an arrest is expected shortly.

MacDONALD-CAMPBELL NUPTIALS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Joseph's Convent, Charlottetown, on Nov. 19, when Miss Clara Campbell of Dundas Centre, became the bride of D. Frank MacDonald of Souris. The marriage was performed by Rev. Mgr. J. C. McLean of Souris, pastor of the groom. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Maud Campbell, while Daniel Campbell, cousin of the bride, ably supported the groom. After the marriage ceremony the bridal party motored to Queen Hotel where breakfast was served. They spent the forenoon pleasantly motoring, etc., returning to the Queen for dinner. The bride is a daughter of John R. Campbell, of Dundas Centre, and is a highly respected young lady. She will no doubt be greatly missed by her wide circle of friends. The groom is one of Souris' most enterprising young men and an able supporter of St. Mary's Church, Souris. We consider him very fortunate indeed, in winning over such a congenial life partner. They left on a honeymoon trip through the principal cities of Eastern Canada. On their return they will reside in Souris. We all join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald many happy years of wedded life.

The large audience in St. Paul's Parish Hall last evening was at once a credit to Charlottetown and a compliment to Dr. Charles G. D. Roberts, the eminent Canadian poet The hall was packed to the doors with an audience that appreciated Prof. Roberts' talk and recital, and expressed that appreciation with almost continuous applause. It is more than likely that there will be a rush this morning for the published poems and prose writings of Charles G. D. Roberts.

The Rev. H. D. Raymond occupied the chair. Before introducing the speaker of the evening he announced a solo by Mr. Leigh Dingwell. The solo, which was one of Dr. Roberts' own poems, "Gray Rocks and Grayer Sea," was very effectively rendered, and evidently greatly appreciated by the audience. The accompaniment was played by Prof. Hiram Ball.

A fire yesterday morning on the farm property of Mr. Keith Boswell, Victoria, razed to the ground one of the finest and newest barns in the Province, killed sixteen head of registered Shorthorn cattle, a Percheron stallion valued at $800, and destroyed the season's entire crop. An old barn adjoining, which was empty at the time, a granary, the contents of which were saved, a carriage house, and a farm shed were also burnt. The total loss is estimated at $8,000, about half of which is covered by insurance.

When Mr. Boswell left his farm with a team of horses at nine o'clock, there were no signs of fire. It was only discovered after it had gained considerable headway, and evidently originated in the loft. The smoke was noticed by Mrs. Boswell about eleven o'clock and she quickly phoned for assistance which speedily arrived. But the flames spread so rapidly that the best efforts of about two hundred neighbors armed with the Victoria village hand-pump and water-buckets were of no avail, and the willing helpers were obliged to remain satisfied with saving Mr. Boswell's home, which was continually sprayed with water, and escaped undamaged. The flames spread so quickly that neither the live stock in the main barn, a new structure 95x40 feet, with concrete foundation and floor, and equipped in the most modern way, nor any of the crop contents, forty tons of hay and fifteen hundred stooks of grain, could be saved. The cattle were dead long before the flames reached them, having been suffocated by the dense smoke. When it was seen that the large granary was also doomed, it was speedily emptied of its contents.

The fire burned fiercely for about six hours and was noticeable for miles around. Its origin is a mystery since no one had been smoking on the premises.

Mr. Boswell has the sympathy of the whole country side in his serious loss.

SERIOUS FIRE.—The general store of Mr. H. A. Robertson of Flat River was completely destroyed by fire yesterday morning and practically all its contents went up in smoke. The loss is estimated at $2500 with only $500 insurance. The fire was noticed first by Mr. Robertson about 6.30 who was in his residence at the time and the building was then wrapped in flames. The fire was so far advanced when it was discovered that nothing could be done to save the property. The neighbors who quickly gathered succeeded in saving the warehouse which was 12 feet distant. The building destroyed was 24 x 40 and was well stocked with goods. Mr. Robertson has been conducting business in Flat River for the past four years, and the sympathy of the people goes out to him in his present loss.

There passed away to the heavenly home on Thursday, Nov. 19th, W. Green Taylor, of Wilmot Valley, at the good old age of 82 years and 3 months. Mr. Taylor had been ailing for more than a year and though confined to the house was able to move around until the day before he died, when he was taken with bronchial pneumonia and the end came rather suddenly, owing to the weak condition of his heart. Mr. Taylor was married to Matilda Doull, of Wilmot, over 53 years ago last June and Mrs. Taylor is left to mourn the loss of a kind and faithful husband. Two sons and one daughter also survive and were present at the funeral, Edwin Leslie and Preston both at home, and Mrs. Fulton Simpson, whose name was Eleanor, now of Lot 16. Mr. Taylor was a progressive farmer and lived all his life on the home farm. Besides Jas. A. Taylor, his brother, his sister, Mrs. John Mann, Summerside and Mrs. Walter C. Taylor of Chelsea Mass. are also living. The funeral on the following Saturday was very largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. D. K. Ross, of North Bedeque who paid a tribute to the splendid life of the deceased. Mr. Taylor was active in church and stood an Elder in the church and a splendid man in the community. He received his early education under the late Rev. R. S. Patterson, D. D. who taught school at North Bedeque in the early days. Mr. Taylor was the reporter of field crops for the district for many years and kept the Department of Agriculture informed along that line. His last appearance in public was at the Oct. 29th when he voted at the poll at North Bedeque. He will be greatly missed by yong and old, for he had a word of wise counsel for all. He was buried in Summerside cemetery. We extend sympathy to all the mourning relatives and friends.
