Stock Markets At A Glance

CHICAGO, Jan. 19 — (AP) — Coarse grains were easy to weak in the futures markets today and wheat suffered fractional losses.

Commission house liquidation accounted for the break and was attributed to additional German reverses.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 19 — (CP) — Rye futures dropped more than two cents below previous closing levels today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange with the October option posting a new seasonal low of 1.10-¾.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19 — (AP) — Good but deflationary war news more than offset inflation psychology in today's Stock Market and leading rails and industrials again beat a more or less orderly retreat.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was off .5 of a point at 58.8.

MONTREAL, Jan. 19 —(CP) — A profit-taking move which set in for papers, industrials and utilities today on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market forced these groups lower in the averages. Some golds displayed enough resistance to push their average a bit higher in the indices. Individual losses were generally fractional but were steeper in spots.

TORONTO, Jan. 19 — (CP) — Stocks took a down turn today on the Toronto Exchange regardless of the cheering war news. All index groups weakened in harmony with lower prices on the New York board.

Mining groups slumped in the afternoon while the marked weakness of Vermilata on heavy selling put a damper on action in the western oils and losses were general though narrow. It closed at 14 ½ cents for a loss of 3 ½ cents on turnover of 204,000 shares. Home dropped 5 cents and minor losses were netted by Anglo - Canadian, East Crest, Mid-Continent, British - Dominion and South End Pete. Royalite was off ½.

SOLDIER

There's a soldier peacefully sleeping tonight.
Somewhere on the torn fields of France,
He gave up his life, he laid down his gun.
God, called him home. His duty was done.

He was brave, honest and true
Loved his comrades, his country too.
He answered his call and started to roam
Left his dear mother, and his Island home

Tonight he is sleeping, no thoughts on his mind,
No thoughts of home ,and his loved ones behind
His dying words, Mother I am resting in peace

Queen's Canadian Fund News

CALGARY RAISES $29,750 FOR QUEEN'S FUND

In Calgary, Alberta, $29,750 has been collected for the Queen's Canadian Fund.

Word has just reached the Montreal office of the Fund from the Royal Trust Company, Calgary, of a further donation of 2,591 23 sent by F. J. Watt from the Foothills War Charity sale, High River, Alta.

This fourth annual calf sale of the Foothills War Charity Club exceeded previous sales by over $2,000 passing the $8,000 mark.

Prompted by the knowledge that the proceeds were for war charities and encouraged by the good salesmanship of Auctioneers J Allen baker and Warren Cooper the buyers were in generous bidding spirit. One ewe sold 15 times to bring a total of $265 and there were 32 resales of calves.

All services in connection with the sale were voluntary. The proceeds were divided amongst the Queen's Canadian Fund, the Navy League of Canada and the Prisoners of War Fund of the Red Cross.

In Calgary the Queen's Canadian Fund is actively promoted by the Calgary Herald and subscriptions are received at that newspaper office and at the office of the Royal Trust Company.

SEA FOODS ARE NUTRITIOUS

Science belies the old belief that "fish feeds the brain" though perhaps it might be said that "brainy people feed on fish."

As a protein or body building food, fish and other sea foods, like oysters and clams are just as valuable as meat. Salt water fish are rich in iodine. This mineral, though needed in minute quantities, is important for it helps to prevent simple goitre which is often prevalent in inland districts.

Sea foods are one of the few food sources of vitamin D, the sunshine vitamin.

Clams are especially noted as a good source of calcium and salmon of the B-complex vitamins.

Modern methods of preservation and transportation have introduced many new varieties of salt water fish to Canadians who live a thousand miles or more from the sea. Even with the war-imposed limitations on processing and transportation for civilian consumption, most larger centres offer a choice of salt-water fish the year around and there is variety for menus and good nutrition to be found at the fish counter.

Stresses Importance of Life Insurance

An indication of the important part life insurance, operating under the system of free enterprise, is playing in the economic life of Canada was furnished at the Annual Meeting of The Imperial Life Assurance Company of Canada. Payments to policyholders and beneficiaries made by the Company in 1944 amounted to $6,700,000 of which $4 millions was paid to living policyholders in matured policy proceeds, dividends, etc. The Company has since its inception made benefit payments of $147 1-2 millions. During the same time it has built up assets which at the end of 194 amounted to $119,600,000. The great proportion of these represents the aggregate equity of policyholders in their contracts — in other words, the accumulation of funds essential to the carrying out of the Company's obligations under these contracts as they become due.

War claims in 1944 represented 14 per cent of the total net claims. The average of war claims for a five-year period has been 8 per cent of the total.

During the year people bought $34,800,000 insurance with the Company. Imperial Life business in force now stands at over $36 millions. With total premium and interest income in the year 1944 of $16 millions, the Company committed itself to the purchase of $12 millions of Victory Bonds in the Sixth and Seventh Victory Loans.

"Life insurance," said J. F. Weston, President of the Company, "is a logical development in the system of free enterprise, which is the basic principle in the economy of democratic states, giving stimulus and incentive to the individual to make his maximum contribution to the common good. It has flourished only in those countries where the citizen is protected in his right of reward for courage, initiative and enterprise directed to the purpose of maintaining a self-supporting position for himself and his dependents, while he plays his part in the business life of the community.

"Life insurance serves as a great stabilizing factor in the economy of countries where citizens are free to order their lives, enjoy the fruits of their labour and sense the satisfaction of personal accomplishment, and where each success attained stimulates ambition for fresh endeavour."
