

MAXIMS
OF A
MERE MAN

A soft answer won't turn away a sneak agent.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody

Covers Prince Edward Island Like the Dew

MAXIMS
OF A
MERE MAN

The average person thinks more of the "here" than the hereafter.

Morning Guardian, Founded 1887
Charlottetown Guardian Two Cents

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1934

12 PAGES

Morning Guardian, Founded 1887
Charlottetown Guardian Two Cents

United States Rid Of Notorious Gunman

ROYAL WEDDING TODAY

London En Fete For Marriage Of Duke Of Kent And Princess Marina—Royal Couple Pay Surprise Visit To West End Theatre.

(By Burdette T. Johns)
(Copyright, 1934, by the Associated Press)
(By Guardian's Special Wire)

LONDON, Nov. 28.—London, bedecked in all its finery for the marriage tomorrow of the Duke of Kent and Princess Marina, cocked apprehensive eyes at the weather man's forecast that fog might mar the decade's most brilliant social event.

With the Capital in its most festive mood since Londoners danced in the streets at the signing of the Armistice, weather officials who furnished periodic reports throughout the day predicted "local fog early but only mist during the greater part of the day."

BOLIVIAN GOV'T. IS OVERTHROWN

Vice-president Sorzano Reported To Have Seized The Capital—U. S. Officials Apprehensive.

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—A sudden overturn of the Bolivian Government was disclosed today through dispatches received here that Daniel Salamanca, Bolivian President, had been arrested by troops on the Chaco war front.

Apparently as part of a carefully planned coup d'etat, the president's flight to La Paz was reported to have been seized control of La Paz, the capital.

United States officials tonight were apprehensive over what effect the apparent coup might have on the peace in the Chaco war between Bolivia and Paraguay. In the absence of complete official dispatches, however, they declined to

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- COMING EVENTS, MEETINGS, ETC
- **Dance in Iona Hall Thursday, November 29th. L-2766.
- **Foxes For Sale. See Space Ad. G. MacMillan, Cornwall. L-2794-11-24-27-28.
- **Eastern King's Club loading livestock at Souris, Dec. 4th. Please list with Secretary. L-2925
- **Poultry. The Lightizer Co. next Queen Hotel are buying every week day except Saturday. Correct grading, best market prices. 11-21-11.
- **Important. Consult us on Poultry for highest cash returns before selling. Progressive Egg and Poultry Market, Queen Street. L-2756.
- **Concert and Dance in Grand View Hall, November 30th. Auspices Beach Point Hockey Team. Admission 15c and 25c.
- **Buying live hogs Hunter River and Emerald Tuesday, December 4th till 10 A. M. Kensington Monday. Signed A. E. Wedlock. L-2839-11-29-31.
- **Come to dance and card party at Hope River Hall Thursday, Nov. 29, if not fine, first fine night following. Ladies with cakes free. L-2813-11-29-31.
- **One splendid feature of Sun Life Long Term. Endowments. Is that while saving for yourself your dependents are protected for the full amount you contract to save. Consult J. A. Moore, Manager.
- **Annual Agricultural meeting will be held in the hall at Cornwall on Monday night, Dec. 3rd at 7:30 p. m. The proposed potato marketing scheme will be presented and discussed as well as other agricultural subjects by representatives of the Provincial Marketing Board and the Department of Agriculture. L-2833-11-29-31.

New Portrait Studies Of Prince George And Princess Marina

PRINCE GEORGE, DUKE OF KENT
Here is a new portrait of Prince George in naval uniform, the uniform he will wear when he is married in Westminster Abbey today to Princess Marina of Greece.

PRINCESS MARINA OF GREECE
After her marriage to Prince George, Duke of Kent, Princess Marina of Greece will become the Fourth Lady of the United Kingdom. Here is a splendid new portrait of the beautiful Princess.

GOVT. WILL NOT BE CAUGHT UNPREPARED

Baldwin Declares Britain Will Not Accept a Position of Inferiority With Regard To Any Forces Raised In Germany In The Future.

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Sir John Simon, Foreign Secretary, wound up a "council of state" debate on home defences in the House of Commons tonight by announcing the full contents of Stanley Baldwin's speech, urging Germany to abandon her policy of secrecy and isolation, had been delivered to Germany, France, Italy and the United States with a full explanation by the Foreign Office.

The House rejected an amendment to the address in reply to the Throne Speech, from Winston Churchill, declaring Britain's defences were entirely inadequate, and approved the Government's address.

The Foreign Secretary emphasized there was no difference of opinion in Britain on the question of defence. There were no advocates of unilateral disarmament.

He said Mr. Baldwin's plea that Germany ease the condition of nervous apprehension in Europe by tearing away the veil of secrecy helped clear away a great deal of suspicion. That speech had been delivered to world powers, he said "because this is not an Anglo-German proposal, but a European and world proposition."

"We have thus helped to clear away a great deal of suspicion. The communications to other governments constituted a new development and might create a new situation if we can get international agreement."

"We should like an agreement on disarmament at the lowest possible

First Fatality Of Hunting Season

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 28.—Hinson C. O'Brien, 31, garage proprietor, of Newton Heights, a Moncton suburb, was the first tragic victim of the hunting season in this territory. The fatality occurred in mid-afternoon in Albert County, six miles from the city where with his brother Russell, he had gone in quest of deer. Both were walking through a boggy section of woodland, Hinson being about ten feet ahead of his brother. The latter was carrying his rifle under his arm when through some manner yet unknown the gun discharged, the bullet entering the dead man's back below the shoulder blade and emerging from the upper front breast. He died shortly afterwards.

Russell O'Brien rushed to the city for aid, but the younger man had passed away when the ambulance reached the scene. R. C. M. P. and Coroner Dr. B. J. Dosh of Dillabore, were notified and after an investigation and the taking of depositions of witnesses, the coroner decided death was purely accidental and an inquest would be unnecessary.

O'Brien is survived by a wife, one young daughter, his parents and one brother.

Was Struck By Car Driven By Traffic Officer

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Nov. 28.—Peter Pedersen, 31, native of Denmark and recent a resident of Ashburn Road, died in hospital tonight from a fractured skull suffered last night when he was struck by an automobile driven by traffic officer E. R. Sowersy on Rothesay Avenue. An inquest will be held tomorrow night. Police who are investigating the case have seized the automobile.

Police said Sowersy told them he had been blinded by the headlights of another car. Pedersen and a companion, Alfred Christiansen were walking along the right side of the road as he came from behind them, he said, and the car swerved sharply to the left in an effort to avoid the pedestrians. Christiansen gave the same account of the accident.

SEES MUTUAL BENEFIT FROM AGREEMENTS

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

MONTRÉAL, Nov. 28.—The general view in the United Kingdom is that Canada has been able to obtain practical benefits from the Ottawa agreements more quickly than have the British Isles, but it is recognized that they too have obtained benefits. F. W. Field, British government senior trade Commissioner, stated here today on his return from a six months visit to the United Kingdom.

"It is recognized that in certain industries," he said, "such as tinplate and chemicals, substantial benefits have been obtained by the United Kingdom. I found a fairly general view that for one reason or another Canada has been able to obtain practical benefits from the agreements more quickly than has the United Kingdom. Manufacturers told me that they fully believe Canada desires trading between the two countries to be truly reciprocal. I think back of their minds is the thought that it is a slower job to build up their trade in manufactured articles in Canada than it is for the Dominion to increase its trade, largely in natural commodities, in the United Kingdom. For example, one that has been mentioned frequently, is obviously easier to sell half a million boxes of Nova Scotia apples in England than it is to sell, say, half a dozen English X-ray machines in Canada."

Voices Felicitations Of Island Province

The following communication has been forwarded to the Secretary of State, Ottawa, from His Honour Lieutenant-Governor DeBlois, Government House, November 23rd, 1934.

Sir,

In view of the approaching marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent to Princess Marina, and having regard to the fact that the Province of Prince Edward Island in the year 1799 was named in honour of H. R. H. the Duke of Kent, I have the honour to request you kindly to cause to be forwarded to Their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Kent, on Thursday, November 29th, a message extending to them the wholehearted congratulations and good wishes of myself, the Government and the people of Prince Edward Island.

I have the honour to be, Sir, Your obedient servant,
(Sgd.) GEORGE D. DeBLOIS,
Lieutenant-Governor.

The Honourable
The Secretary of State,
OTTAWA.

BODY FOUND IN CULVERT

Gun Battle With Govt. Agents Results Fatally For "Baby Face" Nelson—Federal Bullets End Crime Career Of Public Enemy No. One.

(Associated Press, by Guardian's Special Wire)

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—The amazing crime career of George (Baby Face) Nelson, 25-year-old Dillinger gangster, ended today in a muddy ditch where he was found a victim of bullets fired by the same two federal agents he had killed in a furious gun battle yesterday.

The broken body of the United States public enemy number one was found wrapped in a garish blanket in a culvert on a lonely prairie near suburban Niles Centre.

His body was unclashed and stained with blood which had gushed from the 17 bullet wounds he suffered yesterday in a furious gun battle in suburban Barrington with two crack government agents, Samuel P. Cowley and Herman E. Hollis.

The federal men died apparently without knowing the slugs they pumped from machine gun and shot gun had mortally wounded their opponent.

Seventeen of the bullets fired by Cowley and Hollis before they fell into Nelson, but only one of them found a vital mark. Sixteen pierced his legs and the 17th ripped through his stomach, liver and pancreas.

Chief A. C. Stolberg of the Niles Centre force and government operatives McKee and McCarthy, pledged to avenge the murder of their colleagues, came upon Nelson's riddled remains at two P. M. His arms were twisted and his ironically cheric countenance contorted. It was apparent he died in intense agony.

A crimson spotted piece of cotton cloth was wrapped about the gunman's middle. Authorities believed he had attempted to bind the gaping wound, and either he or the man and woman who were with him in the battle had removed Nelson's clothing during the amateurish ministrations. No trace of his companions has been found.

Officials were undecided whether he died from the abdominal wound or from loss of blood.

The fact that more of the slugs loosed by Cowley and Hollis in their valiant attack had not reached Nelson's upper body was explained by the position he held behind his car during the sharp duel. Cowley had discharged 50 shells from his machine gun and Hollis had fired 10 shot gun cartridges.

Gratified with the bagging of John Dillinger's chief gun bearer, federal, state and metropolitan huntsmen nevertheless continued their search for the man and woman who fled with the diminutive Nelson from yesterday's engagement.

They were certain the girl was Nelson's wife and believed the man may have been either John Hamilton, Tommy Touhy or Alvin Karpis, notorious gangsters charged with a wide range of crimes.

Department of Justice men were directed by H. H. Elegg, assistant to J. Edgar Hoover at Washington, who rushed here by plane and rail this morning. The first clue was the finding of the government car Nelson and his cohorts had driven from the scene of the gun battle. It was located on a Winnetka Street, built, painted and flecked with blood.

Chief Stolberg instituted a search in the vicinity of Niles Centre. He stumbled upon a bundle of clothing near the Niles Centre boundary in the hinterlands northwest of Chicago. He called the government men. A dozen of them raced out. The hunt grew warm.

Stolberg and agents McKee and

FRANCE'S REPLY TO NAVAL CHALLENGE

35,000 Ton Battleship Will Be Constructed If Mussolini Goes Ahead With His Programme.

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

PARIS, Nov. 28.—France's reply to Italy's naval challenge will be a 35,000-ton battleship corresponding to the two Premier Benito Mussolini has announced.

Francois Pietri, Minister of the Navy, disclosed the plan to meet the challenge in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday afternoon but said final decision on construction of the ship would be made later.

"This was taken to mean the big battleship will be laid down only if Mussolini persists in his programme," the Minister told the committee that France has 630,000 tons of fighting craft, of which 35,000 tons are obsolete. Replacements, he said would require an additional 500,000,000 francs (about $33,000,000).

22 SHOPPING DAYS

IT'S TOUGH WHEN AN ORATOR TALKS FOR TWO HOURS AN NEVER TELLS YOU WHAT HE WAS TALKING ABOUT!

Selected As Rhodes Scholar

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

WINNIPEG, Nov. 28.—Joseph B. Reid, 20-year-old fifth-year honors student at the University of Manitoba, today was selected Manitoba's 1934 Rhodes Scholar.

Born in Danville, Que., Reid received his high school education in Sydney Academy, Sydney, N.S. He won two gold medals in mathematics and the Governor-General's medal for Grade XII. He gave up a $125 scholarship when his family moved to the west.

In 1930 he received standing in the university here, enabling him to complete his junior work in two years. He entered the Senior Division in 1932 and will graduate with honors in physics and mathematics next spring.

Island Poultry Win Awards

TORONTO, Nov. 28.—The poultry farm of L. A. Hazard, of Charlottetown carried off several cherished awards in the poultry judging at Toronto's Winter Fair last night.

M. Hazard's entries won the prizes for first and second hen as well as for first cockerel and second pullet in the Black Ornaments Bantam class.

FORECAST

Maritime East—Moderate variable winds; fair.

Maritime West—Winds increasing to fresh or strong from southeast to south; mostly cloudy and somewhat lively mid; probably followed by rain towards night on Friday.

High tide this afternoon at 4:30 and tomorrow morning at 4:10. Sun sets this afternoon at 4:21 and rises tomorrow morning at 7:15. Last quarter moon Thursday, Nov. 29, 12:30 a. m.

Summerside tide eighteen minutes later than Charlottetown.

CAR FERRY

Leave Borden 9:45 A. M. (Except 1 P. M.)
Leave Tormentina (Extra) 3 A. M.
2:55 P. M. daily except Borden