OWING to the enormous amount of time and expense necessary in book-keeping and making out small accounts as well as mailing and collecting same, The Guardian has decided that in future all ordinary amounts under one dollar will be accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those who have a regular advertising account who will still have the privilege of monthly redt.

$50,000.000 FOR ADVERTISING.

"James B. Duke, the tobacco king of Long Branch, New Jersey, recently claimed in an interview that he had spent more money in advertising than any other living man. He said that the figures would reach fifty million dollars.—Newspaperdom."

Yet James B. Duke is to-day one of the wealthiest men in the world. When you see a liberal advertiser you see a rich man. The business man who in this age of advertising is afraid to invest his money in publicity will never accumulate a fortune.
