ORCHESTRA at rink tonight—perfect ice.

THE Carnival on March 6th promises to be the best ever held here. Professor Vinnicombe is preparing special music and will have four or five pieces extra in the orchestra. The music alone will be well worth the price of admission.

INSPECTOR McINTYRE and Mr. James Profit, Spring Valley, inspected the Margate school on Thursday, Feb. 21st. The Principal's room, under the charge of Miss Durant is doing excellent work and the primary department is also in a satisfactory condition, although the teacher, Miss Abbott is altogether new in the profession, she gives promise of being a capable and painstaking teacher.

CARLETON NOTES.—The roads are again passable and in good condition after the recent series of snow storms.—We are sorry to learn that Mr. and Mrs. William Lowther intend to move to Corwall in the near future, having purchased a farm there.—Mr. and Mrs. David Lowther are visiting Charlottetown, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews.—The farmers have near all their firewood home and are ready for the next again.—Feed is scarce in this section of the country this year, and it is almost impossible to procure hay except from Mr. Albert Weeks who has a large quantity of pressed hay for sale on the farm lately occupied and owned by Alexander Howett.—Our school is progressing very favorably under the management of Miss Rebecca Gillespie.

THE pie and basket social at Green Marsh, on Feb. 20th, was a complete success and a credit to all who took part. The schoolhouse where it was held was filled to its utmost capacity. The large number of ladies who graced the meeting with their presence was a noticeable and most attractive feature. The chair was occupied by Mr. D. Montgomery. The program consisted of music, recitations, and dialogues. Where all did so well it becomes difficult to praise or to criticize; yet if there is one part to which special reference is due, it is the musical. The hearts of the music lovers present were cheered by the appearance of Mr. Daniel McLeod, Newton, and Mr. A. McInnis, Murray River, on the stage. Were it not that Mr. McLeod's reputation of being one of the best, if not the very best, violinists in the province is already made, he would have created a sensation. The program was taken part in by Miss Maggie McPherson, Miss Rachel McPherson, Miss Margaret McPherson, Miss Maggie McPhee, Miss Minnie McDonald, Miss Lizzie McDonald, Miss Maggie McKay, Miss Lillie McDonald, Miss Katie McPherson, Miss Effie McPhee, Mr. D. A. McPherson, Mr. J. McLeod, Mr. M. McKay, Mr. J. A. McPherson, Mr. A. M. McLeod, Mr. J. McLeod, Mr. J. McKay, Mr. A. B. McPherson, Mr. A. McIntyre, Mr. R. McPherson, Mr. A. McDonald, Mr. W. McPherson and Mr. W. E. McLeod. The pies and baskets of which a goodly number were provided by the generosity of the ladies, were auctioned by Mr. McInnis, and the fact that they realized, on an average over a dollar a piece, testifies to the ability of the auctioneer. It was after 10 o'clock when the sales began, and it was after 12 before full justice was done to the generous repast. It was early before the guests departed for their homes and beds. But it will be long before the memory of the merry evening fades away in their hearts.

The basket social held in the Episcopal Church Hall, in Kensington, on Monday evening, Feb. 18th, was a decided success, the hall being packed to the doors. Rev. J. A. Winfield occupied the chair. The program was as follows:

- Solo—Carrie McArthur.
- Recitation—Annie Essory.
- Dialogue—Lily McArthur, Fairlie Durant, Melville Baker, John Howard and James Johnson.
- Solo—Mrs. Fred. Sempie.
- Reading—Miss Fairlie Durant.
- Solo—J. A. Ready, B. A.
- Solo—Will Morrison.

The accompanists were F. Durant, Maggie Cusely and Birdie Moynagh. Mr. A. Bowness acted as auctioneer and the pies and baskets were disposed of at reasonable figures, and about $40 was realized, which goes towards painting the outside of the church.

A GOOD DEAL OF NONSENSE

About "Good Purifiers" and "Tonics."

Every drop of blood, every bone, nerve and tissue in the body can be renewed in but one way, and that is, from wholesome food properly digested. There is no other way and the idea that a medicine in itself can purify the blood or supply new tissues and strong nerves is ridiculous and on a par with the fol-de-rol that dyspepsia or indigestion is a germ disease or that other fallacy, that a weak stomach which refuses to digest food can be made to do so, by irritating and inflaming the bowels by pills and cathartics. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure indigestion, sour stomach, gas and bloating after meals, because they furnish the digestive principles which weak stomachs lack, and unless the deficiency of pepsin and diastase is supplied it is useless to attempt to cure stomach trouble by the use of "tonics" pills and cathartics which have absolutely no digestive power, and their only effect is to give a temporary stimulation.

One grain of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3000 grains of meat, eggs and similar foods and experiments have shown that they will do this in a glass bottle at proper temperature, but of course are much more effective in the stomach.

There is probably no remedy so universally used as Stuart's Tablets because it is not only the sick and ailing, but well people who use them at every meal to insure perfect digestion and assimilation of the food.

People who enjoy fair health take Stuart's Tablets as regularly as they take their meals, because they want to keep well, prevention is always better than cure and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do both; they prevent indigestion and they remove it where it exists. The regular use of one or two of them after meals will demonstrate their merit and efficiency better than any other argument.

POET LAUREATE

NEW YORK, February 18.—A London cable says: Wilson Barrett, the actor, is practically poet laureate of England. His poem on the death of Queen Victoria was the only one that pleased King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra. His Majesty yesterday sent a royal command to Mr. Barrett to send him a copy of the funeral poem.
