WEDDING BELLS

A very pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday morning at St. Dunstan's Cathedral when Miss Mary Margaret Power, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Power of Water Street, Charlottetown was united in the bonds of Holy Matrimony to Mr. Joseph M. Malone, also of this city.

Reverend Father A. L. Sinnott performed the marriage ceremony and celebrated the nuptial Mass. Mr. Albert Blanchard presided at the Organ and played the Wedding March and several appropriate selections during the ceremony.

The bride, who was attired in Navy Blue Tricotine, wore a Sand shaded hat and carried a beautiful bouquet of roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Helen Power, who wore a charming The Brown costume with hat of the same shade.

Mr. Fred Power, father of the bride, gave her away. The groom was attended by Mr. John McGee of Moncton, who came over to the island especially for the ceremony.

The ceremony took place at 5.30 and despite the early hour there was a large attendance of friends of the contracting parties. After the knot had been tied the party motored to the home of the bride's parents where a wedding breakfast was served. The guests present were numerous and included Reverend Father Sinnott. The toast of the Bride's health was eloquently proposed by Mr. John McGee and was enthusiastically toasted.

The health of the bride's parents was also honored. At the conclusion of the breakfast the happy couple embarked for Moncton and from there they will visit many points of interest in the Maritime Provinces before returning to Charlottetown where they will reside in future.

The respect and esteem in which the happy couple are held in this city was manifested by the large number of wedding presents which were received. There included silverware, cut-glass, many household necessities and a substantial amount in cheques and gold. The groom is a valued employee of De Bois Brothers and included in the presents were cheques from the firm and from the employees.

To the happy couple the Guardian extends felicitations.

THE MARKETS (Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, April 22.—The enquiry from foreign buyers for oats and barley on the Montreal market today was good and a fair amount of business was transacted for May loading.

The demand for ocean grain room here for May shipment continues steady and the market was moderately active with no important change in rates to note. The feature of the local market for cash grain was the strong feeling in oats and spot prices for car lots were higher, but the volume of business was not large.

A sale of 20,000 bushels of feed oats was made at one cent per bushel over the Winnipeg May option c.i.f. Montreal. Owing to the renewed strength in the Canadian cash wheat situation, there was a much better feeling in the local market for spring wheat grades of flour, but there was no change in price announced.

The enquiry from the United Kingdom for supplies from all sources for supplies of milled and the somewhat limited offerings here at present. A stronger feeling developed in the market and prices generally were advanced $1.00 per ton in a wholesale business fair. The tone of the market for rolled oats was steady with little trading passing. There was no change in the baled hay market prices for all grades were unchanged and the trade volume small. A fairly good business continues to do in eggs as the whole jobbing way and there was no actual change in prices, but the undertone to the market was easier. There receipts were 3,279 cases as compared 3,047 for the same day last week and 3,784 for the corresponding day a year ago. The tender of the butter market was moderate sized and the undertone was firm little business was transacted in cheese and the feeling was again easier, with western No 1 white and colored fodder made goods quoted at 13 3/4 cents per pound and No 2 grades at 17 3/4 cents per pound. The market for Quebec 20 pound Quebec cheese was dull on account of the liberal supplies available on spot. Beams were steady at $2.70 per bushel.

OTTAWA, April 22.—The increase in production has not affected prices during the past few days. Chicago is a quarter lower for spot delivery, but the general tone of the market in both Canada and the United States is strong with no immediate prospect of lower prices.

Toronto Jobbing Specials 34, extras 32, firsts 30, seconds 27, Montreal unchanged, Winnipeg extras jobbing 30, firsts 25, to 26, seconds 20 to 22.

Saskatchewan markets unchanged. Calgary receipts light, dealers quoting delivered extras 23, firsts 21, seconds 18. British Columbia firm, dealers paying delivered Vancouver 29, firsts 27, jobbing extras 33, firsts 21, seconds 23.

CANADA'S DAY

April 22, 1915.

The following extracts from a Diary of the Second Battle of Ypres, ten years ago today, April 22, 1915, have been furnished by Captain D. A. Macdonald in memory of this day:

April 18, 1915. The French are doing well in Alsace and the British have advanced near Ypres, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy.

April 19. From Sir John French's despatch we learn tonight that the capture of Hill 60, a commanding height to the south-east of Ypres, was a most important success, as it is the key to the situation hereabouts.

April 20. The Germans have been making terrific efforts to recapture Hill 60, but have entirely failed. The German losses are said to be from 30,000 to 40,000.

April 21. The German attempts to re-take Hill 60 still continue, but with a little success as before.

April 22. The news in regard to Ypres is rather curious and confused. It states that while we still retain the ground we captured at Hill 60, the Germans have made a sudden swoop from the North, and the French troops, overcome by poison gases, have been compelled to retreat. According to a German report, we have lost some heavy guns.

April 23. According to a statement issued by the War Office tonight, the Allies were forced to fall back before the renewed German attack on the Steenstraete and Langemark, and the Canadian, who were forced to give ground to keep in touch with the rest of the line, lost our 47 guns, however, the Canadians, most brilliant and successful advance, recapturing the guns and taking a number of German prisoners.

April 24. There is no doubt that as a result of their heroic efforts the losses of the Canadians have been heavy. The Allies, however, continue to press home their counter-attacks with success.

April 25. The sudden attack by two German army corps in the region of Ypres, has developed into a violent battle for the coast, and, according to Sir John French, several fighting continues. The British have had to bear the brunt of these attacks, and, unfortunately, we have lost St. Julien in spite of the utmost gallantry on the part of the Canadians in a desperate fight against superior numbers. Yesterday the Germans made further use of asphyxiating gases, but their attacks were repulsed, and German officers and men were captured. Both the King and Sir John French have sent warm congratulations to the Minister of Militia at Ottawa on the splendid gallantry of the Canadians.

April 26. It appears that the Canadians definitely turned the tide in the battle for the coast, and, in fact, made their heroic stand, and now officially reported on medical evidence that Canadian soldiers have lost their lives in the recent fighting not from wounds, but from poisoning from gases employed by the enemy—which is a feat of the contrary to the Hague Convention.

FIRST USE OF POISON GAS. A fresh and lengthy despatch has been issued by Sir John French, in which he details the operation of the British Army in France and Flanders up to May 25. It records the heroism displayed by his troops in the second battle of Ypres, making special mention of the gallantry and tenacity of the Canadians. According to the despatch, the enemy first made use of poison gas on April 22nd.

April 24. The death is announced at Lemons of Mr. Rupert Brooke, the poet, who was serving as a sub-lieutenant in the Royal Naval Division. Just before the author left to serve his country, he wrote the following very beautiful requiem:

"If I should die, think only this of me: That there's some corner of a foreign field That is forever England. There shall be In that rich earth a richer dust concealed; A dust whom England bore, shaped, made aware, Gave once her flowers to love, her ways to roam. A body of England's, breathing English air, Washed by the rivers, blest by sun's rays home— And think, this heart, all evil dried away, A pulse in the Eternal mind, no less Gives somewhere back the thoughts by England given; Her sights and sounds; dreams her ways and her laughter learnt of friends; And gentleness, in hearts, under an English Heaven."

—Rupert Brooke. In Memory of my pals, who now

A Disease Free Area

During the present week the farmers of Prince Edward Island will receive through the School teachers of the Province, literature dealing with the DISEASE FREE AREA question. The teacher has also been forwarded petition forms, and instructions as to the manner of procedure. It is urgently suggested that teachers in each school district get together to discuss this matter, and appoint some individual or committee to co-operate with the teacher, in the performance of this work.

In a great number of districts the brooders have already taken action, the petitions have been circulated, and the voice of the cattle owners is strongly in favor of the policy. It should be unnecessary to again point out the importance of this question. The farmers of the Province have seldom if ever, been asked to pass judgment on a more important issue. There does not seem to be any argument against the plan. There are many of the greatest of importance, in its favor. Full returns should be in by May 9th.

Farmer Institutes, Dairy Organizations, Egg Circles, Women's Institutes, and other farmer organizations are respectfully requested to hold meetings and discuss this question. Where no farmer organization exists a general meeting of the rate-payers of the district should be called.

Get busy on this, Mr. Breeder. It is a question of tremendous importance and value. Work with your school teacher. Make a thorough canvass of your district. Send your report in on time.

Orphanage Campaign Notes During the past month or so money has not been coming in very freely, but things appear to be moving again and the amount coming in on pledges is gratifying indeed. Twenty-five dollars from Star of Hope Division for W. T. Costan, West Cape, remitted by Mr. A. J. Matheson, O'Leary, and accompanied by his own subscription, has been gratefully received by the committee. The time for the second payment of pledges is drawing near. Don't let that worry you, however, as your amount can be paid at any time. Keep up the good work.

Address And Presentation The members of the Community League of Mount Herbert, together with a number of visitors, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lund, Friday, April 17th. After the usual business of the Club, a singing and other forms of amusement were indulged in, after which Mr. Wm. P. McLeod, the genial Manager of the Protestant Orphanage was surprisingly made a presentation and a gift as a very small token of esteem and integrity in which he is held by the Club. The address was held by Mr. Lund and the presentation made by Mr. Percy Mutch. The recipient although taken entirely by surprise made a very suitable reply, thanking his kind friends and neighbors for their thoughtfulness and generosity. The following is the address: Mount Herbert, P. E. I. Dear Mr. McLeod: On behalf of the Members of the Community League of Mount Herbert, P. E. Island, we take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of your services as Manager of the Protestant Orphanage Farm for the past two years and also of the place you have won among us on account of your excellent character, and the deep interest you have taken in everything pertaining to the welfare of the community. You certainly have won the respect and good-will of all who have had the pleasure of your acquaintance. As a farmer you have been faithful and conscientious in your work and we feel that you will be successful in whatever you undertake. Having purchased a home near the City of Charlottetown, we will still be able to meet you and we will be always interested in your welfare. To your partner, Mrs. McLeod, we also extend our appreciation and good-will for her untiring activities in the church and Sunday School work as well as her connection with the Community League of Mount Herbert. The pleasant evenings we have spent together will be long remembered and we believe the social and educational activities in which you have taken prominent part will be a blessing to the community, both young and old. You will accept this little gift as a token of our good-will and kindly remembrance. We trust that the Giver of all good may smile upon your pathway, bestowing upon you both many years of sunshine and happiness. Very cordially yours, Community League, Mount Herbert.

You will accept this little gift as a token of our good-will and kindly remembrance. We trust that the Giver of all good may smile upon your pathway, bestowing upon you both many years of sunshine and happiness. Very cordially yours, Community League, Mount Herbert.

Orphanage Campaign Notes During the past month or so money has not been coming in very freely, but things appear to be moving again and the amount coming in on pledges is gratifying indeed. Twenty-five dollars from Star of Hope Division for W. T. Costan, West Cape, remitted by Mr. A. J. Matheson, O'Leary, and accompanied by his own subscription, has been gratefully received by the committee. The time for the second payment of pledges is drawing near. Don't let that worry you, however, as your amount can be paid at any time. Keep up the good work.

Address And Presentation The members of the Community League of Mount Herbert, together with a number of visitors, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lund, Friday, April 17th. After the usual business of the Club, a singing and other forms of amusement were indulged in, after which Mr. Wm. P. McLeod, the genial Manager of the Protestant Orphanage was surprisingly made a presentation and a gift as a very small token of esteem and integrity in which he is held by the Club. The address was held by Mr. Lund and the presentation made by Mr. Percy Mutch. The recipient although taken entirely by surprise made a very suitable reply, thanking his kind friends and neighbors for their thoughtfulness and generosity. The following is the address: Mount Herbert, P. E. I. Dear Mr. McLeod: On behalf of the Members of the Community League of Mount Herbert, P. E. Island, we take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of your services as Manager of the Protestant Orphanage Farm for the past two years and also of the place you have won among us on account of your excellent character, and the deep interest you have taken in everything pertaining to the welfare of the community. You certainly have won the respect and good-will of all who have had the pleasure of your acquaintance. As a farmer you have been faithful and conscientious in your work and we feel that you will be successful in whatever you undertake. Having purchased a home near the City of Charlottetown, we will still be able to meet you and we will be always interested in your welfare. To your partner, Mrs. McLeod, we also extend our appreciation and good-will for her untiring activities in the church and Sunday School work as well as her connection with the Community League of Mount Herbert. The pleasant evenings we have spent together will be long remembered and we believe the social and educational activities in which you have taken prominent part will be a blessing to the community, both young and old. You will accept this little gift as a token of our good-will and kindly remembrance. We trust that the Giver of all good may smile upon your pathway, bestowing upon you both many years of sunshine and happiness. Very cordially yours, Community League, Mount Herbert.
