The pebble throwing on Water Street, Summerside, still continues and resulted in the breaking of another plate glass window. This time one of the large plate glass windows in the Bank of Nova Scotia is badly broken. This is the second glass broken within the past two weeks. Again about nine o'clock Saturday another large plate glass narrowly escaped the same fate and in this case the culprit, a boy about twelve years of age, was caught in the act. His name is now known to one of the police and it is up to that official to make an example of this boy in order that this dangerous practice may be stopped.

All news in Summerside and vicinity should be given to J. F. Lafferty, Guardian correspondent, Water Street, who will also answer all the enquiries of and attend to the wants of renewal and contract advertisers. Miss Amy G. C. M. B. A. SENSATION. OTTAWA, Ont., August 13.—The sensation of the C. M. B. A. convention was an unsuccessful attempt on the part of some of the delegates to dislodge the present grand officers. At times great confusion prevailed and the main motion was quite forgotten in the midst of numerous amendments. The proposal was that whilst heretofore there has been a Grand President a member must have served a term in some subordinate office, an amendment be made so any member of the Association may be elected to any office.
