The track has also been all cleaned off and put in perfect shape for training and racing purposes and some of the boys are making good use of it. They intend holding a local race on Dominion Day and classes will be formed to suit the horses who line up at the wire. Anybody wishing to see some sport should go to Montague on Dominion Day.

HALIFAX, June 28.—The time for the coming of the Duke of Connaught to Halifax, is now within easy measurable distance. His royal highness will be here in about six weeks. This is none too long a period, for the work of preparation. Halifax always does well on such occasions and there is no doubt that the welcome to the king's uncle on August 14th and 15th, will be cordial, whole-hearted and splendid. Volunteer effort and concerted work will go hand-in-hand to make the affair one not to be forgotten. The Arm clubs, the city, the Canadian club, the National societies, the military and the navy will certainly all do their best. The city can afford to be generous, and will no doubt realize that this is not a time to be too economical. It would be better to err on the other side, but in any case what is right should be done and doubtless will be.

Housekeepers have long since learned the value of the wire dishcloth, which is of the greatest help in cleaning pots and pans. A new dishcloth of this sort is mounted on a handle, similar to the string dish mops, and so is more convenient to use. There is often occasion to saw a meat bone, a small piece of wood or perhaps a piece of piping. A saw which is guaranteed to do any of these things well is now to be had. With the hot weather close at hand, ice shavers are sure to be in demand. There are several of practical value on the market, the cost varying with the size. "If you need something that will be new and cool try a pair of our canvas shoes on a comfortable last in brown and white. Goff Bros, New Store, Richmond St. 6-28M31. Reminiscences of a Sojourn at a Hudson Bay Post" by Frank Houghton, the opening number in the July issue of Rod and Gun in Canada (W. J. Taylor, Limited, Publisher, Woodstock, Ont.) contains an interesting comparison between the characters of the white man and the Indian, illustrated in the almost quixotic honesty displayed by "Wabun Anning," when temptation, in the guise of imminent starvation, might well have proved overpowering. A profusely illustrated chapter of the popular continued article, "The Culture of black and Silver Foxes" is another feature of this issue which contains many stories and articles of outdoor life in the various Canadian Provinces.

MILITARY HEROISM. While swimming horses the other day in the cavalry pond at Aldershot a sergeant and two privates, all of the 19th Hussars, were drowned. A soldier named Barnes was the first to get into difficulties. He was swimming with a horse across the pond when the animal plunged, a fellow-trooper swam on his assistance and it is supposed that Barnes must have clutched him desperately, as they sank together. Sergeant Clark then made a desperate attempt to find the two men, and at last becoming exhausted, he also sank. Lieutenant Lyons then plunged, almost fully dressed, into the water and succeeded in grasping one of the men, but became so exhausted that he was on the point of sinking when Major Percy made a cast for him with his long riding whip. The thong fell near the drowning officer, who clutched it, and was drawn ashore. Every effort was made, but in vain, to save the three others.
