RECITAL AT NOTRE DAME ACADEMY Young Musical Artists Do Much Credit to Careful Training. Our lives are songs; God writes the words. And we set the music, at leisure; And the song is sad, or the song is glad. As we choose to fashion the measure. Something of the spirit of these lines was evidenced at the Notre Dame Academy musical recital held last evening in the Academy Hall. Right Reverend Monsignor M. McDonald presided. The programme throughout bore evidence of the careful and thorough training which the youthful musicians have received, both individually and collectively.
