NORTH MILTON W.L. The regular meeting of North Milton W.L. was held at the home of Mrs. Ira Rodd on Sept. 1st, with 17 members and 2 visitors present. Meeting opened by singing Institute Ode and repeating the Creed. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. The school committee requested that some Primary equipment be provided and on motion so was voted for this purpose. One member paid her fee and one subscription to Institute news was received. The Sect. was asked to write to Simpson's and Eaton's requesting donations for work. A financial statement from the festival held on Aug. 30th, was read and showed a goodly sum made. This is to be used to pay for musical instruction in the school. The program convener then called on Mrs. Tomahand, representative of Singer Sewing Machine who gave a very interesting and helpful demonstration. A vote of thanks was extended by the President, and hostess and committee served a delicious lunch. Mrs. A. E. Coles invited members for next meeting on Oct. 6th.
