TWO THOUSAND GUINEAS 1ST BIG RACE OF ENGLISH TURF

Lack of an Outstanding Candidate for the First of the Season's Classics — Lord Woolavington's Coronach Will be Among the Strongest Competitors.

(Canadian Press) NEWMARKET, Eng., April 20.—The British sporting public this month is feeling the lack of an outstanding candidate for the first of the season's great classics for three-year-olds, the Two Thousand Guineas, to be run at Newmarket on April 28th, for the 177th time. The condition is not strange. It has, indeed, been practically the general rule since the curtailment of turf activities during the war. The champion two-year-old, and favorite for this year's Derby, is Lord Woolavington's Coronach, by Harry Oa-Wet Kiss. He at least will be among the strongest competitors for Guineas honors. He was never defeated last season until he met Sir Abe Bailey's Lex in the Middle Park Stakes at Newmarket last October, when Lex defeated him by a neck in the six furlong race. Coronach came through the winter in good shape, as was evidenced by his easy victory in the Column Produce Stakes at Newmarket on April 14th. His greatest opposition in the opinion of turf followers, will come from Sir Bailey's Lex, who is by Lemberg-Excelita; from Sir George Bullock's Harpagon, by Pommerne-Harpoon; and Lord Derby's Colorado, by Phalaris-Canyon. Harpagon, winner of the important Craven Stakes here on April 15th, is considered as a promising "outsider" in the classics. He ran only one race as a two-year-old, and he won it by a length. It was the maiden two-year-old stakes at Newmarket in October. Woolavington has a second strong candidate for the Two Thousand Guineas in Friar Will, winner of the Greenham Plate at Newbury this month. Out of the Two Thousand Guineas and the One Thousand on April 30th, will come the leading contenders for the Derby. H. E. and from the continent. Morris' Meana, by Phalaris-Warble, won both the great classics last year. In fact, since the Two Thousand Guineas was instituted in 1809, thirteen giants of the turf have won all three classics, the Two Thousand, Derby and St. Leger. These were West Australian, Gladateur, Lord Lyon, Grandee, Common, Isinglass, Gaiete More, 1897, Flying Fox, 1899; Diamond Jubilee, 1900, Rock Sand, 1903; Pommerne 1915; Gay Crusader, 1917 and Gainsborough 1918. The Two Thousand Guineas is over the Rowley Mile, compared with the mile and a half Derby course. It is for colts and fillies, while the One Thousand Guineas is for three-year-old fillies only. The monetary reward for the winner of the Two Thousand will be approximately ten thousand pounds, and for the One Thousand Guineas about eight thousand pounds. The race for the One Thousand Guineas, one of the two classics for three-year-old fillies only, (the other is the Oaks at Epsom) is even more open than for the two thousand. In the betting perhaps the more prominent candidate will be His Majesty's Aloysia, who is rated among the 25 best two-year-olds of last season. Going on last season's form, the best fillies entered in the One Thousand appear to be the Aga Khan's Moll Mahal, by The Tetrarch-Maglona, Aloysia, who is by Lemberg-out-of-Vervaine, and H. Lines' Golden Fairy, by Golden Sun out of Golden Isle. The First Spring stakes, Newmarket two-year-old stakes, May Stakes, March Stakes and Hastings Plate, all add to the attractiveness of the four-day Newmarket first spring meeting. The Kings, if he follows his usual custom, will witness the classics, which have long attracted race followers from all over the country contestants for the Derby. H. E. and from the continent.

Prizes for Naming Moving Picture Stars

Prince Edward Theatre Starts a Novelty Contest Next Monday.

ARE YOU A MOVIE FAN? AND IF SO, HOW MANY STARS DO YOU THINK YOU KNOW AT SIGHT?

The Prince Edward is going to give you an opportunity next week-to cash-in on your powers of discernment. In other words, it is going to hold a Grand Movie Star Contest.

The animated portraits of fifty stars will be reeled off on the screen and you must recognize them to win a prize.

Perhaps not all of them, for of course there will be some sticklers,—else there would be no contest,—but to the ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls naming correctly the largest percentage we will give wonderfully fine awards.

This scheme is creating a furore of interest in Boston, New York, Montreal and other cities.

As each person enters the doorway he or she will be given a card upon which to write the names of the stars as they flit across the screen. You will be given plenty of time to decide upon each portrait and besides the zest of trying to win a prize will prove a novel diversion.

Lights will be turned on so you can see to write and for fifteen minutes the theatre will be vocal with excitement. At any rate this is what is happening elsewhere.

The Prince Edward is not alone in introducing this stunt. Several leading firms, as mentioned in the appended list, are entering into the contest as prize donors and we figure the whole thing is going to stir up quite a little community pep.

Following is the list of the Prizes and by whom donated:— A SILVER FLOWER BASKET, or other article of the same value, donated by W. W. Wellner Co., Ltd.

PAIR OF NATURAL TREAD SHOES donated by Alley & Co.

ELECTRIC READING LAMP donated by R. T. Holman Co., Ltd.

CAMERA, donated by The Hughes Drug Co., LTD.

BANJO UKELELE, donated by A. E. Toombs, Progressive Music Store.

PRINCE EDWARD THEATRE PASS good for six months (For Pictures Only).

Thorpe Making "Last Stand" as Fielder for "Bushers"

SHELBY, April 20.—Another famous red man may make his "last stand" here this summer, or at least his last athletic stand, when Jim Thorpe dons the uniform of the Shelby Drivers in the Northern Montana baseball league. The Red Grange and Charley Hoff of more than a decade ago, Thorpe has run the gamut of professional athletics on the diamond and gridiron that has at last landed him in what sport scribes are wont to term the "bushes." Thorpe has been signed as an outfielder and will trot to the field this summer in company with young hopefuls, farmed out by Pacific Coast league teams for seasoning.

Delaney Will go On Stage

NEW YORK, April 19.—The lure of the footlights has caught Jack Delaney, Canadian champion, for the light-heavyweight championship. Delaney has been booked for a week's vaudeville engagement in New York beginning on May 3rd.

Track And Field Honors Again May Travel West

NEW YORK, April 20.—The Eastern college track and field world has again seen its major laurels go to the other side of the continent in four of the last five outdoor seasons, faces a rather dubious prospect of regaining its prestige this year.

The University of Southern California, which took the I. C. A. A. A. to a far West last spring, will be the strongest favorite to keep the trophy when the outstanding college track and field tests of the spring take place at Harvard Stadium, May 28th and 29th. The Trojans may encounter particularly keen opposition from the "Big Three" as well as Pennsylvania, Cornell and Georgetown, but the prospects now are that they will win even more decisively than a year ago.

Southern California not only has nearly all its 1925 point-scorers but has added a seemingly certain place winner in Lee Barnes, the sensational young pole vaulter who won the Olympic title in 1924 and recently set a new American outdoor record of 13 feet, 5 7/8 inches at Los Angeles. Besides Barnes, the Trojans have their famous weight man, Clarence ("Bud") Houser, who won the discus and placed second in the shot last year. With Ralph Hills, the 1925 shot-putting title-holder, out of competition, Houser figures to take both of his favorite events, Ken Grumble and Leighton Dye, who captured the 220-yard low and 120-yard high hurdles last year for U. S. C., also will be available again.

Harvard looms as the East's main hope. The Crimson demonstrated the calibre of its well-balanced array by taking the indoor championships from Georgetown last March. Coach Eddie Farrell has a crack corp of runners, with such individual aces as Al Miller in the sprints, "Soapy" Waters in the half-mile and mile, Red Haggerty, the outdoor mile champion, and Willard Tibbetts, the two-mile title-holder. The contest for sprint supremacy promises to be one of the high spots of the college season with interest centered largely on Henry Russell, Cornell's long-striding star. Russell holds the indoor 220-yard title and upset all the "dope" in March by taking the 70-yard indoor crown from Al Miller and Francis Hussey of Boston College. These three, with Norton of Yale, Barbara of California and Wittelsdorf of Colby, compose the leaders. Relay carnivals at Kansas, Pennsylvania and Drake figure as the opening high spots of the track calendar.

Additional interest will mark the season with the presence of Charley Hoff, Norway's spectacular pole-vaulter. Hoff also may figure in a renewal of his quest for all-round honors with Emmerson Norton of Georgetown and Harold Osborn of the Illinois A. C. All three are slated to compete in the decathlon at the national A. U. champion league in Philadelphia, July 5th and 6th. Other national titles will be decided on the same program and with the New York Athletic Club in the palm comes out and there are ample grounds for saying that it is an excellent article.

DOINGS AT THE Y

Rub it in for Lame Back.—A brisk rubbing with Dr. Thomas' Electro Oil will relieve lame back and skin will immediately absorb the oil and it will penetrate the tissues, bringing speed and relief. Try it and be convinced. As the liniment sinks in the pain comes out and there are ample grounds for saying that it is an excellent article.

Lacrosse Gains Ground

NEW YORK, April 19.—Lacrosse a comparatively new intercollegiate sport, has gained a firm foothold in twenty-five American universities and, in the opinion of F. M. Touchton, Yale coach, is threatening the popularity of baseball as a spring college pastime. English colonists found the Indians playing the game three hundred years ago, said Touchton. At that time it was known as "baggataway", a struggle lasting several days in which the squaws lash the players onto greater efforts. Many changes have been made in the game and today it provides sixty minutes of speed and thrills.

Argentine Ant Waging War On Domestic Pest

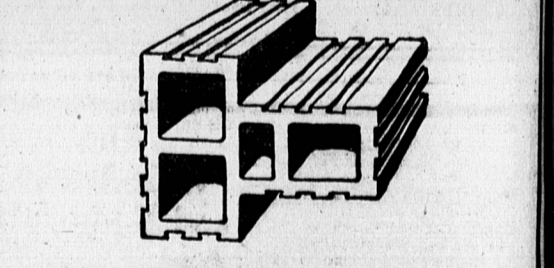

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 17.—A race war is raging in California and state authorities, far from trying to pacify the combatants, are adding to the slaughter by endeavoring to poison them all—namely, dark-brown Argentine ants and their redskin opponents, the Fire ants. Fifteen years ago entomologists predicted the energetic Argentine ant eventually would crowd out all other breeds and become sole survivor of the ant race in this state. Late bulletins from the front indicate that while the prophecy has not fully materialized the South American insect has most of his rivals on the run.

The Verdict of the Builders

C. H. Wright Interlocking Tile Features

"For some time I have been looking for a building unit which would give permanence, and which in first cost would be somewhat on the level with frame construction. I am satisfied that this is to be found in your Interlocking Tile. "It not only gives permanence, but I have found that in buildings under my supervision during the past few years that the inside walls are dry, and the building easily heated. I have no hesitation in recommending it for all types of construction, and expect to make use of it myself wherever permanent and fire-proof walls are desired." (C. H. Wright, contractor, Wolfville.)
