The Queen's County election case of L. P. Tanton, petitioner and L. E. Prowse respondent came up for hearing at the Supreme Court. The hearing on the preliminary objection was commenced on Saturday before the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Fitzgerald. The argument was continued on Tuesday when judgment was rendered and the preliminary objection was dismissed with costs to be paid by the respondent to the petitioner. The case now stands for trial.

One thing above everything else that shoppers approve of and desire is a cleanly store. On the corner of Prince and Water Streets the well known stand formerly conducted by Sidney Gray, has recently been purchased by Moore and Franshan for the purpose of carrying on a similar business. The stock of goods, which includes cigars, temperance drinks of every description, is the very best to be obtained, and as cleanliness and prompt attention appear to be the order of the day, the new firm is deserving of the best of patronage. Their advertisement will be read with interest when it appears later.

Miss Cora L. Docherty of Cherry Valley, had the pleasure of picking from her "American Wonder Lemon Plant" on the fifth of May last, one perfectly formed and ripened lemon, which weighed seven ounces and measured nine inches around. This is the second lemon that has been grown on the plant. The first one ripened in January 1908, and was converted into a delicious lemon pie. The plant with its large dark green foliage is beautiful as well as useful, and as there is three bunches of bloom on the plant. Miss Docherty naturally expects more of the golden southern fruit to be grown in her P. E. Island, window garden—it Cherry Valley, Conn.

"Bulk tea may leave the dealer a larger profit, but 'Salada' Tea (packed in sealed lead packets) leaves a lasting and favorable impression upon the palates of all giving it a trial. Hence its enormous sale.
